

First Presbyterian Choir of Detroit To Sing at Christ Church Cranbrook Sunday

The famous "Crucifixion" by Staiber will be sung at the 4 p. m. vespers service in Christ Church Cranbrook Sunday by the choir of the First Presbyterian Church of Detroit. This choir sings under the direction of Frank Wendler, official organist for the Detroit Symphony and the Ford Home, and director of the Edison Chorus. Soloists with the choir include Muriel Magerl Kyle, one of Detroit's popular sopranos, who will sing "Indifference" by Patterson during the offertory, and William Williams, tenor, and Cleon Collins, baritone.

Many Attend First Revival Meeting At Baptist Church

Pre-Easter revival meetings sponsored by the Baptist Church of the past Sunday with one of the largest crowds in months attending Sunday School and worship. Four new members were added to the congregation. A musical program, under the direction of T. D. Carole, followed the service. Sermons each evening, which are dedicated to youth. The pastor is preaching on the general theme, "Dwelling in Youth." At Tuesday evening's assembly the theme was "Youth Prevailing." In this message Dr. Johnson discussed youth standing in the breach for God. An old Testament character was the central basis for the sermon.
