

PLAN OF PROPOSED HURON-CLINTON PARKWAY

A parkway similar to the Cleveland metropolitan parkway would be set up under a plan proposed for southeastern Michigan. It would consist of a connected series of county and city parks and drives along the Huron and Clinton rivers, and would tap the best recreational sites and areas of southeastern Michigan.

The map above shows this parkway in dotted lines, following the Huron river from Lake Erie through Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor and Dexter until it reaches the Clinton river near Rochester.

"Oh East is East, and West is West, and ne'er the twain shall meet!"
An epigram quite obviously untrue—
In human hearts in every land the same emotions beat.
