Detroiters Defeat Maroons In Finals Of Regional Meet

Baldwin Basketball Team Is Outclassed In Titular Match, 43 to 22

Fighting gamely every inch of the way an outclassed Baldwin High School basketball team earned the respect and admiration of every one of the spectators who jammed the Royal Oak gymnasium Saturday, March 13, to witness the Class B regional finals between Birmingham and Visitation of Detroit. The final score was 43 to 22 in favor of the rangy Visitation quintet, but the game left not a doubt in the spectators' minds that had the local boys been able to add two inches each to their respective heights, the outcome would have been a different story.

The Visitation team made deadly use of its edge in height under and in front of the basket. The first foot Visitation shot, towards Higel and Gedda, the latter a Detroit All-City player, and Gandy, center of O'Halloran, were in the scramble for the ball following every Visitation shot. Towering over Adams and Lawler, the Maroon guards, they were able to retrieve the ball almost at will. Higel, especially made a fine showing, netting 15 points to lead the night's scoring. It was no fault of Fritz Adams that Higel was able to collect his total. Adams was right with him on every play that Higel, using one-hand overhead shot as he cut across the floor in front of the basket, was able to shoot over him.

The Maples, at times, flashed a fine offensive punch. Howing, Clark, and Lawler leading them. Lawler and Adams dropped several very pretty long shots through the rim, and Howing proved effective in using a fast break. Visitation, however, also made use of this play to good advantage. Gus Hoff, an excellent player, the director and leading spirit of the Visitation attack, setting up plays for his mates with his fine passes. He also broke through the Maples' defense single-handed two or three times to score. Late in the game, Hoff slipped and fell, his leg being severely injured, he was forced to leave the game.

The local team established its right to play in the finals by trouncing Van Dyke to the tune of 34 to 21 a week ago, March 11. The two teams on that occasion were more evenly matched as to play, and the Maroons' superior play carried them through the game. Rolly Langerman was again the outstanding player in this game, totaling 13 points to emerge high point man for the night. In visiting games, Langerman totaled 28 points for the three games Birmingham played in the district and regional tournaments, or an average of almost 10 points per game.

In the Van Dyke contest, Birmingham again used the fast break and the "sleeper" play to fine advantage. All in all, Birmingham's showing in the two tournaments has been very gratifying to local fans after the team's mediocre season's play, and by advancing to the regional finals, gave promise of an even better team next year. Six men will return next year, and all gave good account of themselves this year. The sextet is composed of Langerman, Upward, MacDonald, Bob Peabody, Hallett, and George Forster.

KROGER SALES RISE 11% IN 4-WEEK SPAN

An increase of 11 per cent in sales at Kroger Grocery and Baking Company for the second four-week period of 1937, ending February 27, over the same four-week period of 1936, was announced at the General Offices of the company in Cincinnati, O. The increase represents a business gain of $1,933,651 for the second 1937 period over the second period of 1936. Total business during the second period of 1937 reached $19,468,987, compared to $17,535,336 for the second four-week period of 1936. The company had 4,198 stores in operation at the end of the second four-week period of 1937, compared to 4,271 at the end of the second four-week period of 1936, a decrease of 73 retail units.

CRANE ATHLETES RECEIVE AWARDS IN THREE SPORTS

Basketball, Wrestling And Hockey Players Are Given Letters

Athletes in basketball, hockey and wrestling received their letters from the Committee of Awards at Cranbrook School, Bloomfield Hills, the past week.

The following were granted letters for basketball: Captain John G. Chiera and William T. Markey of Detroit; Thomas E. Beckwith, Morris, Illinois; Paul Derriksen, Georgetown, Delaware; William M. Wood, Birmingham; Ray Rode Jr., Gross Pointe; and Charles G. Sims, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The team finished its season with 6 wins to 4 defeats, garnering 317 points to their opponents 247. Paul Derriksen, forward, led in scoring honors with a total season count of 117 points; Captain Chiera, forward, was second with 70, and he was followed by center Ray Rode with 56. Of the seven award winners Rode Beckwith and Meade will be back next year to form the nucleus of the next season team.

Receiving letters for their services on the hockey team during the past season are: William Hart Arthur Bull, Thomas Talmann, and Robert Porter of Birmingham; Captain Robert Craig and Edward Lerchen of Bloomfield Hills; William Lewis of Royal Oak; and Henry Uehlin of Milwaukee.

Unseasonal thaws on game days allowed play-offs of only four of the scheduled meets. Of these the Cranes won two, tied one, and lost one. Turning in outstanding performances were captain Craig, goalie, and Bill Hunt, defense. Both have played their last season for the Bloomfield Hills school, and their graduation will leave coach Bruce Coulter busy finding suitable material to replace them. The late season, about 70, temperatures prevented the development of new material this year, next season should present Cranbrook a threat to challengers, because of the heightened interest in this sport.

Members of the wrestling team receiving letters include: Captain Richard Kern and Eugene Chamberlaine of Detroit, Jack and Robt Bird of Bloomfield Hills, and George Fremont of Birmingham.

The fallacy of judging a team by its wins and losses is proved by the statistical record in the post-season check-up. Of the seven matches played Cranbrook emerged with 124 points won to 114 lost. Making up the total of four losses, two wins, and one tie are two meets lost by one point and another by one bout; this last defeat was at the hands of the Dearborn Boys' Club, who had beaten the Michigan State Varsity by pinning the man Dick Kern had downed in a previous match.

Coach Bob Hall and Captain Kern outdid themselves in bolstering the confidence of the school's matmen. Of the five letters to start the season, one was lost for the greatest part of the season by sickness while two others, second and third scoring men of the previous season, were lost by a new rating barring participation in more than one winter sport.

Except for the vacancies left by the two graduating boys, prospects for next year are excellent with experienced men in every one of the lower classes returning besides some reserves. This year's managers who will return for duty next season are: Fred Dye and Ed Wilson of Birmingham; Otto Kern of Detroit; Bruce Craig, Bloomfield Hills, and Jim Bush of Jackson; strengthening the lighter divisions will be Joe Linton, Detroit, and George Bird of Bloomfield Hills.

Illini Champs Bow To Crane Fencers

The defeat of the Lake Shore Athletic Club, Illinois state fencing champions, at the hands of the Cranbrook School team by a score of 9 to 8, was a brilliant finish to a highly successful season for the Bloomfield Hills school. Out of the eleven meets held the record shows eight wins, two defeats, and one tie for the Cranes; this score almost duplicates last year's record of 10 wins to 6 defeats. Coach F. Philler Curtis will very much regret the resignation of captain Bill McKelvey, Youngstown, Ohio; Charles G. Porter, and Charles Hall, Bloomfield Park; number one, two, and four men respectively. McKelvey, expert welder of both the foil and sabre, has won 32 matches out of 37 starts; his captaincy was an inspiration to the boys, and his departure will be felt by them as well as by the coach.
