

Treat the Family to These Special Dishes on Easter

Easter offers that excuse for a holiday which is welcomed in most families. All over the country little children associate Easter with colored eggs, bunnies and tiny chicks. Why not let this holiday spirit prevail in your kitchen and plan special dishes for the family on this occasion.

Combine white sauce with hard boiled eggs. Cool and add minced parsley. Shape, keeping the croquettes rather small. Dip in crumbs, beaten eggs and again in crumbs. Fry in deep fat until a golden brown. Drain and serve with tomato sauce.

Egg Croquettes
1 cup white sauce.
Egg and crumbs for dipping croquettes.
2 tablespoons butter.
Salt and pepper.
6 eggs, hard boiled and chopped.
4 tablespoons minced parsley.

Easter Ham
Seruill well a 10 lb. ham, rinse in cold water and place in a kettle of simmering water. Allow the ham to simmer until nearly tender. Carefully remove the skin from the meat, brush all over with beaten egg, then cover with bread crumbs mixed with brown sugar, paprika

EASTER DAY
On Easter day, long years ago, The Christ came here on earth to show, That life is not a fleeting thing But an eternal happening.
The Christ is come to show to man There is no fear or pain, but care He taken care of by our God.
Whose ways by all are reverently trod.
My dearest wish goes out this day, The Christ come to you as you pray To help you guide our halting feet To the little with the sweet.
To make your life a lovely theme, To better fight the demon,
I'll find a model there for me
Christ is risen on this day, May he live for you always.
—Helen Forester

and a little mustard. Place in a medium oven and pour 1 cup of fruit juice or cider in the baking pan. Bake almost a half hour. Garnish with broiled peaches or apples. Make the gravy from the liquid in the pan.

Stuffed Lettuce Salad
Select a large head of lettuce, and trim away the outer leaves. Cut a slice from the bottom so it will stand evenly. Then with a sharp knife cut out a hole as deeply as possible all around the top. Remove as much of the inner part of the lettuce as you can and shred it very fine; then mix with equal parts of beets salad, a few tiny shreds of onion and a half of a green pepper shredded very fine. Season well and mix with French dressing. Fill the head with this, heaping it up in the center. When serving, cut in the ring fashion and serve French dressing.

Creamed Deviled Ham and 1 bunch asparagus.
2 tablespoons butter.
2 tablespoons flour.
Paprika.
Pepper.
Medium can of deviled ham
1 1/2 cups milk
6 slices of toast.
Wash, prepare and boil the asparagus until tender. Meanwhile melt the butter in a saucepan, add the flour and stir until blended; add milk gradually, stirring constantly. When smooth and thick, add the deviled ham, paprika and pepper. Pour over the hot asparagus arranged on toast and serve at once.

Peach Cobbler
2 cups dried-peaches.
3/4 cup sugar.
1 teaspoon cinnamon.
2 thin slices lemon.
2 tablespoons butter.
Cook slowly peaches, lemon and cinnamon 45 minutes. Add sugar and pour in baking pan, add butter and when boiling cover with biscuits. Dot tops of biscuits with butter. Bake 25 minutes in oven 425 degrees. Serve hot with cream.

Biscuits for Peach Cobbler
1 1/2 cups flour.
4 teaspoons baking powder.
1/2 teaspoon fine minced onion.
4 tablespoons shortening.
1 tablespoon butter.
1/2 cup milk.
Sift dry ingredients, put in shortening, add milk. Handle lightly and make into biscuits.

Pineapple Fritters
Pineapple, sliced.
1 egg.
1/2 cup flour.
Sugar.
1 tablespoon butter.
Drain pineapple and dip in the following batter. Beat the yolk and white of the egg separately. To the yolk, add the liquid, salt and butter. Stir in flour, heat until smooth and fold in beaten white. Fry in deep fat. Remove when brown and drop on paper. Sprinkle with powdered sugar.

Chicken Souffle
2 cups hot medium white sauce.
3 eggs.
2 cups minced cooked chicken.
1/2 teaspoon finely minced onion.
1/2 teaspoon onion parsley.
Pour hot white sauce on well beaten egg yolks. Cool and then add minced chicken, parsley and onion. Fold in well beaten egg whites. Pour in a greased casserole, set in pan of hot water and bake in oven 375 degrees for 15 to 20 minutes. Serve with mushroom sauce.
