VOWS SPOKEN AT SIMPLE CEREMONY

Birmingham Girl To Ride In Evansville After Wedding Trip

At a simple ceremony Saturday afternoon at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Gainer of Manor road, Miss Louise Shipman became the bride of Walter Maximoff of Evansville, Ind.

The Rev. Warner L. Forsyth, rector of St. James' Episcopal church, read the nuptial service at 4 o'clock before the mantle in the living room, which was decorated with stars of white tulle and amaranths, and burning votive tapers.

The bride's gown was of ivory satin, simply fashioned on princess lines, with her of pattern sleeves, high neckline and full skirt ending in a short train. Her veil was held in place by a crown of orange blossoms and veiled with a host of white tulle in front.

Mrs. Gainer, who attended her niece on her wedding trip, was a gown of ecrued white satin made with a jacket. Her tulle-trimmed corsage satin contrasted with her ecrued and delicate undergarments and Amaranth bouquet.

Mrs. Gainer attended Mr. Maximoff at her home.

Mrs. Margie Shipman of Indianapolis, mother of the bride, closed a gown of tulle in front, with which she wore a shawl of coverage of tulle, roses and sweet peas.

An informal reception for 25 guests followed the ceremony. For traveling, Mrs. Maximoff wore a black velvet suit trimmed in satin, and a felt hat in the inside shade, with matching accessories.
