The property on the north side of the old H. S. Leet property, with the exception of the strip of land on the south side of the alley which belonged to James M. Hunt, was a part of the Lovewell Estate. It was a part of an 11-acre tract which was occupied by A. P. Patton's Bakery, city and Confectionery. This building was used as a bakery and also as a store during the past several years. The property was sold by George H. Mitchell and John Hanna.

Mr. William Lovewell's three daughters had a dry goods store at the north west corner of Woodland avenue and the Hunt alley. Louis Kronberg was the son of Putman. He married Burt Elden, daughter of Kronberg, the son of Harry and an adopted daughter. Mrs. Mae is the wife of Mr. Clayton Marsh of Orleansville, Mich. Their children are Ruth, George, Gerald and Gloriana and Robert Naves, tenors, with Don Clark, Bruce Johnstone and Millard Plumstein. Twenty-four youth in red and white vestments represent the Junior choir which is made up of Constance Coulter, Betty Lou Shattuck, Adrienne Volberding, Sally Pattison, Nina Karfias, Ann Halliday, Barbara Boughner, Jean Kelly, Margaret Plumstein, Gladys Willis, Jean Cutler, Peggy Jensen, Martina McKinney, Jane Stacey, Margaret Mead, E. Vonnor-Penfield, Pete Gahn, Bob Ewings, Frank Watts, Keith Willis, Mitchell Tyson, Don Benschoter, Ralph Corryell and Charles Coley.

The concert Easter evening beginning at seven-thirty o'clock will mark the concluding appearance of the youth choral groups for the season.

SPECIAL ANTHEMS TO BE SUNG ON EASTER

Special Easter anthems will be sung by the choir of the Joslyn Avenue United Presbyterian Church, of Pontiac, during the morning worship hour on Sunday, Easter Day, at the local United Presbyterian Church.

The choir is under the direction of Kirby Miller, of Draxton Plains. At the service, Rev. J. A. Mears will preach on "The Risen Lord." The rite of baptism will be administered and the sacred communion will be observed.

Peak Attendance Is Noted At Baptist's Service on Sunday

According to Dr. A. F. Johnson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, the attendance of Birmingham on Sunday night was the largest crowd in the Baptist Church for a season and service that we have seen in the church building since its reconstruction. He pointed out that this was the first time since our great revival of 1929 that so many men, women and children have united with the church as new members during January of this year.

Dr. Johnson recently held the Sunday School, according to the minister, has grown for week at the rate of about 25 new members of the church. Two new B. Y. P. U.'s were organized last past Sunday evening while during the week of 20 were added to the church in the last few weeks. The advice board, a committee to be formed, held a meeting Sunday afternoon, which will consider the church has undertaken since the reconstruction in 1929.

Dr. Johnson and Mrs. Johnson were called away to the state of Texas before returning and capable assistants to fill the gap in his absence have been provided for. His wife, Mrs. Johnson, will continue to be a teacher in the former's absence. Spoken of their departure, the pastor said, "We are sorry to leave on the sad journey but we will return as soon as possible to labor with the good people of this community, whom we have labored to love."
