"Italy" Subject Of Talk To Club Children

Children of the Saturday Club took an imaginary trip through Italy under the guidance of Ar. thur Flavin, a member of the American consular service in Italy, at their meeting in the Community House last week.

Particularly interesting to the children were the word pictures of Venice that Mr. Flavin drew for them in telling of means of transportation to the schools of the canal city of the world. Each child was given an assortment of illustrated travel pamphlets showing ancient, as well as modern, methods of Italian art and sports.

At their gathering in the House this week the children will have as their guest, Comtesse Ferrero Bostang of Detroit, who will tell them of the customs of the boys and girls in France.

Alpha Chi's Will Have Luncheon Meeting

Members of the North-End group of Alpha Chi Omega sorority were entertained at the home of Mrs. Conrad Church of Iroquois avenue, Pontiac, for their monthly luncheon meeting, Tuesday, March 2.

Attending the meeting from Birmingham were: Mrs. Thomas Adams, Mrs. William Shaver, Mrs. W. H. Buckles, Mrs. Laurence Clark, Mrs. S. H. Coe and Mrs. Lauren Robinson. Mrs. Leonard Miller of Ann Arbor, mother of Mrs Adams, and a member of the sorority came to the luncheon with members of the Ann Arbor alumnae group.

Benjamin De Loache To Sing At Kingswood

Benjamin De Loache, young American baritone, will be the soloist at a concert given in the Kingswood Auditorium the evening of March 14.

Mr. De Loache, who has sung with the Philadelphia Philharmonic Orchestra under the direction of Leopold Stokowski, won the Atwater Kent award in 1927 and was awarded the Naumburg Foundation Prize, ha sabo been with the choir of the All Souls Church at Biltmore, North Carolina.

WHEN SLEEP EVADES YOU

The Schettler Drug Co.

Inability to sleep, insomnia, is a disease of the nervous system, although you may have no pain or other evidence of suffering.

It may be caused by over-exertion, or mental exhaustion—and frequently is — but treatment should be administered only upon the advice of a physician. Don't attempt to "drug" yourself to sleep, or to request a druggist to "give me something to make me sleep," for neither you nor he knows the underlying cause of your inability to sleep.

Your physician's treatment is the only safe one—a reliable pharmacist the only safe person to compound the prescription in case the treatment requires medication.

Mrs. Fricker

Mrs. Franklin Fricker was elected president of the Birmingham Branch of the American Association of University Women, Friday when the new board of directors met to choose officers. Mrs. Fricker was one of four new directors named by the branch at the annual meeting held recently at the Community House.

The other new officer elected was Mrs. J. J. Reilly, Jr., as recording secretary. Those remaining in office, Mrs. Loren T. Robinson, vice-president; Mrs. W. T. Cushing, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. William Schultz, Jr., treasurer.

Mrs. Fricker succeeds in office Mrs. Fred D. Farrar, who resigned to become president of the state A. A. U. W. In the interval, Mrs. Robinson became president to complete the term, but she will again assume the duties of vice-president with the beginning of the new year in October.

Under the present by-laws of the Association, officers must be chosen from the four new members added to the Board. Members chosen to serve on the Board this year, as elected recently are: Mrs. James J. Reilly, Jr., Mrs. Donald T. Stanton, Mrs. Fricker and Mrs. Sam C. Mitchell.

Mrs. Thomas Adams of Puritan road will entertain members of the Birmingham group at her home on March 10. Mrs. Clyde A. Halfner, as chairman of the program, has arranged for a discussion by Harold F. Gray on "Co-operative Farming," which he will illustrate with motion pictures of his farm at Saline, Mich.

The tenth annual national convention of the A. A. U. W. will be held this year at Savannah, Ga., with the Georgia State Division and the Savannah Branch of the Association sharing honors as hostess groups. Mrs. Farrar will represent Michigan at the convention, while Mrs. Fricker will be present as official delegate from Birmingham.

"Education: The Foundation for Social Organization," has been chosen as the theme of the convention, and as such will be discussed by several distinguished educational leaders of the country. Delegates, in sectional meetings will discuss topics which have been subjects for study by the 746 branches of the Association throughout the year, and will chart the progress of their educational policy and program which has been maintained continuously since their organization in 1881.

The convention is called for March 15 and will continue with over a sleeveless gown.

Legion Auxiliary Sews For Billet

A shower for the children at the Otter Lake Billet will be given by the women of the American Legion Auxiliary, Tuesday, March 9 at the Legion Home following a pot-luck luncheon.

Mrs. E. C. Baynes will be hostess to the members present for the afternoon, while sewing will be under the direction of Mrs. James Gordon. Members are advised that wash cloths and towels are sorely needed by the children.

Friday, March 5, the Junior Group of the Auxiliary will meet at the Legion Home for a social meeting. They too will have a pot-luck lunch.

Fashion Tips

It seems that we just can't get away from prints. Every week we have something to say about them, but the truth of the matter is that new ones are appearing every day.

Not satisfied with bouquets and scattered blooms, the designers are using everything from Dalmatian peasants to question marks for their ultra-modern prints. Some have barely visible heads and masks of lovely ladies hidden in flowers or outlining foliage. One has pink kitty cats with topaz eyes scattered over a mauve background. We see suits of prints, afternoon dresses, evening gowns and bathing suits, all in print designs.

Patent and gabardine seem to be favorites for spring shoes judging from the showings so far. The models are high and open.

Unless you have a fresh clear skin, greens and greys are not for you. And if you are on the other side of fifty and your neck and arms seem the least bit crepy, beware of the very decollette gown or the one cut out deeply under the arms. A little jacket is always flattering, for the older matron, over a sleeveless gown.

OFFICERS ELECTED IN SCOUT COUNCIL

Local Girl Scouts Meet To Observe Tenth Year Of Activity

Mrs. Craig Ritchie was named to succeed Mrs. F. W. Du Bois as Commissioner of the local Girl Scout Council at the annual meeting of the group held Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. G. W. Jensen of Kinnesaw road.

Elected to serve with Mrs. Ritchie on the council were: Mrs. Erie Hyde, deputy commissioner; Mrs. Robert Hulburt, who will serve as secretary and Mrs. A. C. Utter, treasurer.

At the same meeting committee chairmen were chosen for the ensuing year. Mrs. Hyde will supervise the committee of training and personnel; Mrs. F. R. Navin, who will be in charge of badges and awards; Mrs. Utter will supervise the duties of the financial committee, and Mrs. Charles Kinnison will head the group in charge of the camp. Mrs. Lee White will handle publicity for the council while Mrs. Clarence Hempstead and Mrs. Robert Hulburt will act as chairmen of the house and courtesy committees respectively.

During the afternoon plans for the celebration of the Scouts twenty-fifth anniversary were discussed. At the same time the group made known the list of the original council members of this being the week of their tenth anniversary of activity in scouting in Birmingham.

Members of the first local council were: Mrs. Lee White, Mrs. Richard Fowler, Mrs. Lawrence Thomas, Mrs. B. C. Stewart, Mrs. Fred Johnson, Mrs. Frank Packard and Mrs. J. J. Rouda. Two of the original council, namely, Mrs. White and Mrs. Fowler are still working with the group.

Members of the present council supervising the work of Girl Scouts in Birmingham are: Mrs. DuBois, Mrs. Richey, Mrs. Hulbert, Mrs. Navin, Mrs. Utter, Mrs. F. A. Franklin, Mrs. G. W. Jensen, Mrs. R. W. Scaholm, Mrs. H. Craig, Mrs. Heminilley, Mrs. Ruth Saunders, Mrs. Walter Russell, Miss Hulbert, Mrs. Kinnison, Mrs. George Beecher and Mrs. Walter Elliott.

The Council and leaders of the troops met Tuesday evening for supper at the Community House to discuss, plan the leadership of Mrs. Ritchie, the year's program for work with the older girls.

Apricot Caramel Tarts

Cook together 1 tablespoon butter, 1-4 cup brown sugar, 1-4 cup white sugar, 3 tablespoon water until very thick and brown. Beat egg slightly, mix 1 teaspoon corn starch with the syrup from one 8 ounce can of apricots and combine the two. Add caramel mixture and cook in double boiler until thick. Pour into 6 baked tart shells, in which apricots have been arranged. Top with meringue made of white of egg and 3 tablespoons confectioners sugar. Brown in a slow oven.

Pie Is Always Popular Dessert And Here Are Some Recipes

Pie is the most popular dessert, especially with the male members of the family. When making pie, be sure your crust is light and flaky; for a good crust insures full appreciation for the filling.

Cream Pie

1 baked pastry shell.
2 cups milk.
3 tablespoons cornstarch.
1-2 teaspoon salt.
1-2 cup sugar.
1 tablespoon butter.
3 eggs.
1 tablespoon lemon juice.
1-2 cup crushed pineapple.
1-2 cup diced dates.
1-4 cup finely chopped nuts.
3 tablespoons sugar.
1 large banana diced.

Scald the milk in a double boiler. Mix the cornstarch, sugar and salt; stir in enough milk to form a thin paste; add to the remainder of the milk and stir until the mixture thickens. Stir and cook for 10 minutes. Add the butter and the beaten egg yolks and cook 1 minute more. Remove from the fire and add the fruit, lemon juice and nuts. Cool. Prepare the meringue by beating egg whites and adding the 3 tablespoons of sugar gradually. Pour the cool filling into a baked pastry shell. Cover with meringue and place in an oven 300 degrees until brown.

Prune Pie.

1 1-2 tablespoons tapioca (quick cooking)
1-4 teaspoon salt.
1-3 cup sugar.
2 1-2 cups cooked prune pulp.
1 1-2 cups prune juice.
2 tablespoons lemon juice.
Pastry.

Combine the tapioca, salt sugar, prune pulp and fruit juice. Heat to boiling point and remove from the heat. Let stand while the pastry is being made. Line pan with the pastry, add the filling and arrange lattice strips of pastry across the top. Bake in a 400 degrees oven for 10 minutes and then reduce heat to 375 degrees and bake 20 minutes longer. Serve cool.

Honey Cheese Pie.

Mix 1 cup of flour, 1-4 cup of sugar and 1-2 teaspoon baking powder. Work in, until 1 tablespoon of shortening and add a beaten egg. Roll 1-4 inch thick and line a large oblong pan with this. For the filling, press 3-4 pint of cottage cheese through a sieve, add 4 level tablespoons of flour, 3 tablespoons of cream, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1-4 cup of sugar, 1-2 cup strained honey, the yolks of 4 eggs, well beaten. When this is smooth fold in the grated rind of half a lemon and the egg whites beaten stiff. Spread this over the crust in the pan and sprinkle the top with 1-4 cup of sugar mixed with a teaspoon of cinnamon and 1-4 cup chopped almonds. Bake in a moderate oven until the filling is firm and the crust well browned.

Banana Cream Pie

Line a large deep pie plate with pie paste. Select very ripe fruit. Force 6 bananas through a potato ricer (there should be 2 cups of pulp); add 1-2 cup sugar, 1-4 cup fine cracker crumbs, 1-2 cup of milk, the juice and rind of an orange, 1-4 teaspoon cinnamon and 2 beaten eggs. Mix well, pour into the prepared pie plate; bake 30 minutes in a moderate oven. When cold cover the baked filling with thin slices of banana, then sweetened whipped cream.

Crumb Pie

Roll and sift enough hard dry bread to make a pint of fine crumbs. Put into a square or rectangular large enough to hold bag fashion, by the corners, and dip into boiling water. Immediately press out as much water as possible. Put the crumbs in a mixing bowl and while still warm add 1-4 cup butter, 1 or more cups of cream (cream should be added to make a medium batter, milk may be used); 1-2 cup sugar, mixed with 1-2 teaspoon of cinnamon, 1-4 teaspoon of cloves and 1-4 of a nutmeg grated. Quickly stir in the unbeaten yolks of 3 eggs and stir and beat until no streaks remain. Chop and flour 1 cup of seeded raisins, and if you like, 1-4 cup of fine shaved citron. Beat in the not too stiffly beaten whites of the eggs. Put the mixture into a baked pastry shell and cook in a moderate oven until the filling is set.

Slacks have regained their popularity. As the resort folks get their clothes together for the trip south or the ocean cruise they include slacks of every kind of material. There are slacks of gabardine, woolens and even of crepe.

D. A. R. CHAPTER ELECTS DELEGATES

Three Women Of Society To Serve On Convention Committees

Invitations to serve on committees for the thirty-seventh annual state convention of the Daughters of the American Revolution have been received by three members of the Pretty Hill chapter of the society, announced by the request from the State Regent, Mrs. George Schnoebrun. Mrs. Wm. Graham who will work on the Standing Rules Committee; Mrs. Sidney A. Webb, treasurer of the local group, who will serve in the Committee of Credentials, and Mrs. C. V. Crockett who will work as a Page during the meetings.

Delegates to the convention include Mrs. William H. Graham, who will give a report of the year's work of the D. A. R. in Birmingham, and Mrs. W. H. De Graff, while Mrs. F. W. Bigham and Mrs. Mark Harris have been elected as alternate delegates.

At a meeting Tuesday March 16 the chapter will be entertained by Mrs. Headley Green, assisted by Mrs. William Roberts.

Mrs. Ralph Wright, former resident of the Loulia Scott chapter, will talk on the "Work of Junior American Citizens" to members present.

Deep red tuberose will seem again with the brilliant spring shades. Burgundy is the newest rage in nail polish.

Woman's Club Elect Officers For Year

At a luncheon meeting in the Community House, Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Warren C. Pratt was elected president of the Birmingham Women's Club for the ensuing year.

Following the election of officers the members present were entertained by readings given by Mrs. Delphine Newcombe. A feature of entertainment was given by Mrs. M. R. Kyesworth, first vice-president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, who in addition explained the workings of the Emma Fox Foundation Fund. Mrs. Terrence Way Merrill, State chairman of Art for the Federation spoke briefly of her work in this field.

Officers elected to serve with Mrs. Pratt include: first vice-president, Mrs. Harry Allen; second vice-president, Mrs. John K. Ormand; recording secretary, Mrs. John F. Woods; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Floyd Peabody; treasurer, Mrs. D. L. Tate; auditor, Mrs. Charles Kinnison, and, as director for a two year term, Mrs. Lester Blank.

Mrs. Pratt will be the official Birmingham delegate to the convention of the State Federation of Women that will be held in Flint, March 12, 13, and 14.
