BACKFENCING

By A MAN ABOUT TOWN

Another week—another month and the sit-downers are sitting down all over the country. The Birmingham girls in Detroit seem to be having a great time as they park in their employer's store and make their deliveries for most of one thing (called wages) and less for another (called work). A young lady dime store in the big town told us the other day that she was all ready for a sit-down strike, if and when the big shops (union organized) said the word. She has evidently been telling her customers her troubles, as she remarked that many of them promised to bring her food and various forms of entertainment in the event of a sit-down. She has been getting something when she assured the Flint sit-downers that they would not be forced out of General Motors Plants. . . . started something which some one was sure to have to do.

TED SHAWN, DANCERS IN "APATHEOSIS"

Ted Shawn and His Men Dancers "Apathetic" from the "King of Motown" suite is presented for the first time in Detroit as the Opening Town Hall attraction in the Fisher Theatre, Wednesday evening, March 17. Shawn took his inspiration from ancient Greece when he told in words "The basic themes are of Love, Strife, Death and Beyond Death. The program will also include two other groups, Walk and Arr. Throne and Religious Dances."

Former Macomb Co. Sheriff Is Killed

George P. Eckstein of Warren, Mich., former sheriff and drain commissioner of Macomb county, died of injuries Wednesday morning in an automobile accident occurring at the intersection of John R. and the 10-Mile Road. Colonel Donald Bell, who investigated the accident, asserted that witness station Eckstein ran a red light. Captain Richards, also of Warren, companion of Eckstein, was critically injured. As a result of the collision.

journal before long. . . . Last week we were accused of being too quick on the news front. It actually proved the news better had happened. Well, you're probably heard or seen the skirt about the reporter who was always being chased about the advanced age of the news he brought in. Then one day he dashed up to the city editor's desk and shouted, "I've got some bad news." "What is it," inquired the editor. "The How House Blow Up," exploded the newshound. "WHEN," barked the head boiled desk man, "LISTEN," shouted the triumphant cub. . . . and a terrific explosion rent the air . . . and the news was sweetened on his mainly Well, Dorothy and Tom . . . and other skeptics—that's just how fast we work on the news of the day. (Tom probably doesn't know that he HAS won the Toothbrush Selling Championship. We have been told that Mrs. Lillian Latham, who lives on Hamilton Street, is going to England to the Coronation. We hope she will tell us all about it when she returns.) They say that landlords are getting More Hard Boiled every day. A late report has it that some of the annual Fairbanks and Sons Banquet. It seems that two dogs are preferable to one child in bygone days. If such an attitude prevails, Birmingham will become a charming city of "Dogg Owners." If a few more of these children are born, Birmingham will become a charming city of "Dogg Owners."
