GUILD PLANS FOR FLOWER FESTIVAL

Creation of Goods To Be Sold Keeps Members Busy

The annual Flower Festival, sponsored by the League of St. James Women and St. Margaret's Guild, to be held this year on May 29, will outshine all its predecessors, if even half of the ambitious plans being made for it, materialize. Under the leadership of Mrs. Robert F. Wait, of Hanna Street, co-chairman for a score of committees have been named, and the workers are devoting every spare minute to plans.

This year the Festival will include the sale of baked goods, knick-knacks and garden gadgets, as well as the customary flowers and plants. Mrs. F. W. Guest and Mrs. A. F. Plant will preside over the sale of the baked goods, while Mrs. George T. Hendrie and Mrs. Donald Stanton are in charge of the plant sales. Mrs. Clyde Hagerman and Mrs. Clarence G. Heinmiller head the group which has devoted the past month towards the construction of clever painted novelties especially appropriate to the summer season. Mrs. Otis Howell is handling the publicity for the occasion.

If the weather is favorable, tea will be served on the lawn of the Parish House, at tables for four, with Mrs. E. H. Trump and Mrs. Fred Dorris in charge of arrangements. An important feature of the afternoon's attractions will be the fashion show held on the lawn in conjunction with the tea. In the event of inclement weather, both will be held indoors.

Mrs. Frederick M. Whittlesey heads the ticket committee, and Mrs. Sherman LaMoore will stage the show itself. Models for the fashion show are all members of Mrs. Warner Forsyth's Sunday School class, and include Mary Prussing, Betty Anne Pease, Yvonne Gay, Louise Cobb, Betty Miner Forsythe, Barbara Toph, Katherine Walton, and Marjery Smith.

Wedding Vows Will Be Spoken Here Saturday

Before a mass of ferns banked in front of an antique Chinese well hanging of white satin embroidered in cherry blossoms, the marriage of Virginia Starr Lamborn to Jack Thatcher will be solemnized Saturday, at 4:00 p. m., at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie G. Lamborn, of Villa Road. Mr. Thatcher is the son of Mrs. Fern Thatcher. Only the immediate families of the bride and groom will witness the ceremony, which will be performed by the Rev. Warner L. Forsyth.

Miss Lamborn will wear a soft wool suit in the new thistle shade with navy accessories, a combination perfect for her blonde coloring. She will wear matching flowers and chids. After the first of June, Mr. and Mrs. Thatcher will be at home at 165 Woodward Avenue.

Summer Season Is Opened With A Breakfast

Opening activities for the summer season with a May breakfast at ten yesterday morning and new members of the Pine Lake Country Club met for the first ladies day program of the year.

Following the breakfast there was the Kicker's Handicap round of golf and progressive bridge for those not participating in the golf games. Among those present for the event were the following women from Birmingham: Mrs. William McCombs, Mr. Leslie A. Alban, Mrs. Howard P. Seelye, Mrs. Erwin Covey, Mrs. H. B. Harris, Mrs. R. B. Beery, Mrs. E. G. Fremont, Mrs. Harvey Allen, Mrs. Charles S. Ball, Mrs. Earl Wilson, Mrs. D. B. Bünleth, Mrs. Glenn Coley, Mrs. J. R. Wagner, Mrs. Huntley Childs, Jr., and Mrs. J. H. Stresen-Reuter.

BRIDGE POPULAR AT OAKLAND HILLS

Fashion Show And Buffet Supper Planned For Saturday

A bridal party, complete with all appointments and accompanied by suitable music, was the feature of the fashion show given yesterday at Oakland Hills Country Club at their first Ladies Day open-house. The women members were guests of the management of the Club for this annual event which serves to renew acquaintances and introduce new members of the club to the old members.

The morning was spent playing golf, and following the luncheon, at which time the fashion show was held, the afternoon was devoted to bridge. A strolling orchestra furnished music throughout the program held within the Clubs.

Mrs. C. C. Whitlock as chairman of the entertainment committee was in charge of the arrangements for the party, assisted by Mrs. H. M. Burgess, Mrs. Clyde A. Haefner, Mrs. William J. Black, Mrs. T. V. Colman, Mrs. J. L. Dostal, Mrs. M. R. Mead, Mrs. L. A. Colman, Mrs. Warren Cababito, Mrs. Don J. Buell and Mrs. A. R. Malcomb.

Saturday evening marks the opening of the mixed bridge tournaments that are held at the club throughout the summer season. Pastel colors, carried out by huge baskets of blooms placed throughout the rooms will decorate the Club while a six-foot runway, extending from the lounge through to the dining room will be used for the fashion show which will follow the buffet supper.

Birmingham members making reservations for Saturday evening include: Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Dostal, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Ball, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Atcheson and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Skinner.

ANNUAL BANQUET HONORS MOTHERS

DeMelay Mother and Son Affair Held Tuesday Evening

"The bountiful life comes not as an accepted gift, but is rather the result of overcoming that which tends to hold the individual back," said the Reverend William Molton, of Ferndale, speaker at the Community House, Tuesday evening when the Hassberger Chapter of De Molay presented their annual Mother and Son banquet.

Reverend Molton went on to say that while glowing opportunities constantly present themselves, the personality, to be happy, must utilize them. "One reaps from life what one gives from life," he affirmed. "The world is not interested in what we can't do or don't believe, but in what we can do and do believe. The tempo of life has always been positive and not negative."

He also remarked that the Mother and Son gathering was as splendid as it was different from other functions, such as Father and Son or Mother and Daughter. He believes that the growing up together of the mothers and sons affords a fine relationship, and one too often neglected nowadays. William Bowden presided at the banquet as master of ceremonies, and Junior Timm, chaplain of the order, gave the invocation. Among the members of the chapter ad-

PLAYERS ARRANGE JAMBOREE PLANS

Group Will Go To Lapeer As Guests Of The Vernors

The Players' Jamboree, to be held Friday, May 21, will probably be one of the liveliest of their gatherings this year, if advance plans are any indication. In fact, the party is so lively that it doesn't stay in any proposed location for more than a week.

The final, and correct location for the party is at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. James Vernor, Jr., near Lapeer. With the exception of this important change, plans for the affair remain about the same, with games, a steak roast and a prevalence of the informal picnic atmosphere.

A pleasant aftermath from the policy started this year by the Players, of exchanging invitations among the Boards of other clubs, is this Saturday's play, being given at the Detroit Players' club, by the Ridgedale Players. Members of the Board and their husbands or wives who plan to attend this performance, are Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Dweley, Mr. and Mrs. Paul N. Averil, Maude P. Mack, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hordrich, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hart and Mr. and Mrs. Rolfe C. Spinning. The group will probably form first for a subscription dinner.

New Officers Are Elected By Club

At a recent meeting of the Home Economics Extension Club in the home of Mrs. Forest Cornell of Smith street, Mrs. John Gill was elected chairman of the group for the coming year.

Assisting Mrs. Gill in the government of the organization will be Mrs. Roy Smith who was elected secretary-treasurer. Acting as leaders in the year's activities will be Mrs. Correll and Mrs. Myron Clement while Mrs. Victor Ogden will fill the position of recreation leader. The club is an extension project of Michigan State College.
