Highlights Of Michigan P. T. A. Convention At Petoskey Outlined By Mrs. H. H. Corson

Mrs. H. H. Corson, president of the Baldwin Parent-Teacher Association, and official delegate to the P. T. A. state convention held in Petoskey last week, stated that leading figures in child care and education addressed the convention of 500 on every field of their work.

Rev. W. Hamilton Aulenbach, of Christ Church, Cranbrook, whose address opened the meeting, urged parents to share their time and interests with their children now, and not to postpone that intimacy with the idea that "piling up of money for later security was of paramount importance."

When the topic of supervised recreation was raised, the delegates were asked to choose between RECREATION and "Week-keeping." Birmingham may well be proud of its committees working for the success of this summer program of Community Recreation," said Mrs. Corson.

Kitchen Program May Be Enlarged By The Inclusion Of Easily Prepared Hot Rolls

To some housekeepers the baking of rolls is beyond their kitchen program; yet rolls are one of the most popular breads. They are acceptable at breakfast, dinner or supper. Make up a batch of dough, cover it tightly and store in the refrigerator—sometimes for as long as a week. Then it is only a matter of minutes before it is shaped and set to rise.

Cheese Rolls. 1 cup hot water, 2 tablespoons granulated sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons lukewarm water, 1 teaspoon sugar, 1 egg, well beaten, 2 cups grated cheese, 3/4 to 4 cups flour.

Combine the hot water with 1/4 cup of sugar and the salt. Cool into lukewarm. Meanwhile, melt the yeast cake in the lukewarm water, add 1 teaspoon of sugar, then stir into the first mixture. Next add the well beaten egg and grated cheese and as much flour as can be stirred into the dough without kneading—about 3/4 to 4 cups. Toss dough on a lightly floured board; knead until nearly doubled its bulk. Bake in an oven at 425 degrees F. in 1 cup of potatoes. Remove from oven and brush with melted fat. This makes 2 dozen cloverleaf rolls, 4 large loaves of bread. If preferred, this dough may be brushed with melted fat and stored in the refrigerator.

Corncrust Rolls. 1 1/2 cups flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 heaping tablespoons shortening, 1/4 teaspoon soda, 1 tablespoon sugar, 3/4 cup cornmeal, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1 egg.

Fruit Buns. Scrape 2 good sized potatoes and let boil in 1 pint of water until soft. Drain, saving the water; put potatoes in to a mixing bowl, add 2 ounces of butter and 1/2 lb. of sugar, mash and mix the whole thoroughly together so that the hot potatoes may melt the butter and sugar. In 1 cup of potatoes, add 1/2 cup of yeast cake; add 2 cups of flour, sifted, with 1 teaspoon of salt, and enough milk to make a rather thick batter. Cover and let rise in a warm place until double in bulk. When risen add 1 cup each of flour, raisins and currants, with addition of milk enough to make a very thick batter. Drop into greased muffin pans, let rise again until light, and bake in a hot oven.

TOO MUCH CHICKEN Seattle, Wash.—There's one family in town to whom a chicken dinner has no appeal. For sixteen consecutive days chicken was the piece-of-resistance at the Williams home. The mother, who said each chicken would bring to light a $100 diamond picked from the Morgan's ring which she was feeding the birds. The diamond was found in the gizzard of the very last chicken.

SEVEN SESSIONS WILL FEATURE HORSE SHOW

(Continued from page one) James Vernon, Jr., who is president of the Detroit association giving this show, wants a public effort to improve on all interested in the horse that this is a particularly attractive and interesting feature.

The mechanics of education were revealed in the address of Dr. A. J. Phillips, secretary of the Michigan Educational Association. "The schools of this state are operating on 20 million less dollars than they used in 1931," he told his audience, "and the teachers receive 17 millions less wages than at that time."

While primarily a horse show, the program will include a special invitation is extended that they may see the best horses in America in action and from them and their riders and drivers take a post graduate course in the fine points of this viceroyalty.

There will be seven sessions to this show, mornings and afternoons of June 3, 4 and 5 and a Sunday matinee. The show ring is on Lone Lake Road, just north of Birmingham, and a quarter of a mile east of Woodward avenue.

Auxiliaries Add Color While primarily a horse show, the program will include a special invitation is extended that they may see the best horses in America in action and from them and their riders and drivers take a post graduate course in the fine points of this viceroyalty.

Between the club house and the ring a huge tent will house Detroit's first automobile sale, 14 manufacturers display in a close contact with groups representing various creeds, races, social and economic backgrounds.

Extending along that road will be about a dozen smaller exhibits chartered by churches, societies and charities in which a large variety of articles will be displayed for sale. The food and beverage concession for the comfort of the show goers also is in this midway.

Brass Band Plays The full brass band from East Wayne will live up the horse show and in the salon will be a fine orchestra. The show will take on a military air and will be policed by regulars from the fort and the Michigan state police detail.

Entries which closed last Monday indicate that some of the best horses in America will furnish the entertainment in the ring. Many of them are at Devon where the show ends Monday and they will arrive here Wednesday.

Others from the Michigan State College show at East Lansing will get in Sunday or Monday, as will those from Toledo and elsewhere.

GIVES BACCALAUREATE MARTZ PROCLAIMS BUDDY POPPY DAY

The local VFW post, under the direction of Commander Ernest M. Mertz, will hold its annual Buddy Poppy sale Saturday. The City of Birmingham has appropriated up to $30 to assist the organization in decorating graves of veterans here on Memorial Day, part of the post's activities.

Major John E. Martz has issued the following proclamation designating Saturday as Buddy Poppy Day.

WHEREAS: The Buddy Poppy is the universal recognized official memorial flower of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States and

WHEREAS: The sixteenth annual sale of the Buddy Poppy will be conducted in the City of Birmingham on the 29th of May, 1937 under the auspices of the City of Birmingham Post No. 2445, V. W. and

WHEREAS: The entire proceeds of the sixteenth annual Buddy Poppy sale throughout the country will be devoted to the purchase and shipment of the purpose of veteran care, child welfare and relief and assistance to disabled and needy veterans,

WHEREAS: The purpose served by the annual Buddy Poppy distribution to the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States are noble in principle and humanitarian in nature.

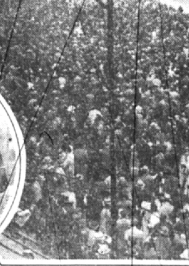

I THEREFORE HEREBY OFFICIALLY PROCLAIM that the day of May 29, 1937, in the City of Birmingham as V. F. W. Buddy Poppy Day and do sincerely urge the residents and citizens of this City to support the sale of Buddy Poppies both a civic and a patriotic duty.

Signed, JOHN E. MARTZ, Mayor.

$15,000 JEWELS LOST Great Neck, L. I.—Mrs. William J. DeWitt, 40, of Great Neck, L. I., lost a diamond and general platinum bracelet valued at $7,000; a platinum chain drop necklace, a diamond bracelet, a pair of earrings and a brooch with three rubies and three emeralds, each article valued at about $2,000. The property of Mrs. DeWitt King. A hat box in which the jewels had been placed during house-cleaning, was placed outside the house by mistake and carried off by a garbage collector.

HIT BY HAMMER TWICE Wash. and No. Schiengel thinks there should be a limit to some things. Recently while he and his brother, Carl, were working in a house, Carl dropped his hammer and called to Noah to throw it back to him. Noah didn't answer, so he threw it back. The falling hammer and knocked Schiengel unconscious. A few days later the well formed habit of making a brother were roofing another house.

War Admiral Proves His Greatness; but You 'Ain't Seen Nothin' Yet

Victory smiled on young War Admiral, inset, for the second time in a week when he won the coveted Preakness at Pimlico, Baltimore, Md., a crowd shot of which is shown above. War Admiral already had won the Kentucky Derby.

BY IRVING DIX THERE is a belief that children born to parents late in life are sure to be precocious and grow up to be brilliant men and women.

Young Mr. War Admiral, say, whinny-some little three-year-old son of Man o' War, seems to bear out this belief. War Admiral, you see, was born when the King of the Track was an elderly great-great-great grandfather of 17 years. And, strangely, he is the most brilliant of all Big Red's gettings—far superior, for instance, to Big Red's champion son, the Kentucky Derby winner, who was born when the King of the Track was only a young man. The Admiral, in fact, might very well turn out to be one of the truly great horses of all time—possibly better than his pappy was.
