

PRESIDENT NAMES EIGHT CHAIRMEN

League of Women Voters Holds Season's Last Meeting

Chairmen of committees for the Birmingham League of Women Voters were announced Monday at the last meeting of the year, by the newly elected president Mrs. Angus McRay.

The meeting was held at the Community House following a one o'clock luncheon. A discussion of the Constitution of the United States was held during the afternoon session.

Mrs. McRay announced that Mrs. Lee White would be chairman of the committee on government and child welfare, while Mrs. F. F. McKinney will govern the work of the committee dealing with government and education.

Mrs. Russell Barnes, will be chairman of the committee on the labor division of government and economic welfare work, while Mrs. George Patch will head the consumer group of the same division.

The government and foreign policy committee will have Mrs. Charles Chalm as its chairman and Mrs. Frederick B. Smith, Jr., will head the group on the government and legal status of women.

Mrs. Forbes Haswell is social chairman for the year and Mrs. Arthur Gillespie in a dual committee head role will be in charge of the legislative and membership work.

Holiday Week-End Anticipated By Members Of Country Clubs

With the prospects of a longer week-end to look forward to, members of the golf and country clubs of the county are anticipating the programs that have been planned for their entertainment over the first holiday week-end of the season.

The schedule of activity at Orchard Lake Country Club opens with the qualifying round club championship for the men on the golf course and the sailing races at three in the afternoon for the club sailing enthusiasts of the club. The opening dinner dance will be held in the evening at the club, and on Sunday the qualifying round will be continued on the golf links. The sailing races will also be a feature of the Sunday program. Decoration Day will find the women participating in Kicker's Handicap and putting contest, and sailing with the men at three in the afternoon. Exhibition tennis matches will be held and there will be afternoon games for the children. A buffet supper will be served early in the evening.

Saturday night will see the opening of the new outdoor dance floor at Pine Lake Country Club when the first party of the season is scheduled for the members of the club. Special golf events will be featured here over the week-end.

Farist Lake Country Club will stage a Nassau Party on Saturday at the club that will include a morning and afternoon of golf, and an evening of dinner-dancing for which a stage show has been

BOOTH SPONSORED BY LEAGUE WOMEN

Will Feature Tempting Foodstuffs at Horse Show

Sausage rolls and pork pies, both prime favorites in England and justly famous when made by Mrs. J. N. Hadjilakis will be at the booth, as well as Mrs. Warner L. Forsyth's popular rolls. Lobster paste, the delicate recipe for which has been handed down through the generations in the family of Mrs. W. Hooper, Jr., will be another item to tempt gourmet. Mrs. Lane Bishop's contribution will be cheese straws and cream puffs, made as only she can make them, while Mrs. Arnold Schou is going to send some of her tartlets—the sort which make people sit up and beg.

Miss Francis Stahl, Mrs. Fred Cole, Mrs. Orin Andrews, Mrs. A. Coombs, Mrs. E. N. Vehmeyer, Mrs. Donna Bay and Mrs. Ed Litt are a few more of the league's best cooks whose wares will be vended all through the show. Lakes will be sold in cellophane hat boxes, for the double purpose of protecting the pastry and allowing customers to eat their cake without losing the entire value of the purchase. The Re-orders will cheerfully take, and in all, if there must be such bothersome as a stationer, the League has chosen the best manner of administering them, according to those who know.

planned to continue the entertainment. Jules Klein will bring his band to the club for the evening. Members of the Birmingham Country Club will dance at the Decoration Day party on Monday evening, after a day spent in competing for the spring championship of the club. There will be the flag contest in the morning and a mixed two ball foursome for the golfers in the afternoon. The regular Saturday night dinner-dance will be held at Oakland Hills with Jack Rosegar's orchestra providing the music. A special feature of the evening will be the accordion solos by Boris Radoff Sunday will be devoted to golf matches with a buffet supper being served in the evening. Monday there will be a mixed two ball foursome at two P. M. with select driving. The children of the club members have not been forgotten in the holiday plans for the afternoon will be devoted to a program of games and vaudeville entertainment for their benefit. They will have a dinner and dance from 6:30 until 8 P. M. which will be followed by a dance for the adults.

Mrs. A. W. Collins, of Glenhurst Circle, was among those who entertained a table of bridge at the Birmingham Farm and Garden Tea Saturday at Kingswood. Her guests were her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. T. Collins, of Buffalo, New York; Mrs. Arley Reagan, Mrs. Ward Jones and Mrs. Paul Garber, all of Detroit; Mrs. A. T. Collins which will be followed by a dance Friday to their home in Buffalo.

GARDEN TOUR IS HOLIDAY FEATURE

Hills Estates Will Be Opened On Saturday and Sunday

Holidays, a very necessary adjunct to living, should be different from everyday existence and as pleasant as possible. If they are to bestow maximum pleasure, what better way to enjoy the holiday week-end than to take advantage of the garden tour offered both Saturday and Sunday by the Bloomfield Hills Unit of the National Woman's Bureau and Garden Association? This tour which has never been held at a more opportune time.

The holiday seeker's choice is usually limited by lack of time, family or interest. In this case, with all the gardens on exhibition to close that they could practically be reached on foot, this case, with all the gardens on exhibition to close that they could practically be reached on foot, this case, with all the gardens on exhibition to close that they could practically be reached on foot, this case...

The garden tour will give everyone a chance to see what time and skill and anxious care can produce an ordinary plot of land. Lilies, at their most fragrant stage, tulips in full bloom, grapes at their freshest, bushes at their crispest, these are only a few of the contributing factors. Enjoy in peace the skillful landscaping and the wealth of color and fragrance that make up each garden. And have made to order holiday which will stand out in your memories, vivid, even after the gardens themselves are buried under the snow.

Gardens to be viewed on the tour, between the hours of one and six p. m., include those of Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Polk, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Morley, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Shull, Mr. and Mrs. George G. Boney, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Bromley, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Larchen, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Wadling, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kahn, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce E. Van Dusen and Mr. and Mrs. William L. Thompson.

Mrs. McDonald Is Winner In Contest

Mrs. Beatrice McDonald, writer of verses printed in The Eccentric, was awarded first prize in the contest division in the Detroit Women Writer's contest.

The contest, which is an annual affair, was held Tuesday at the Detroit Colony Town Club.

Mrs. Helen Shaw Stauch entertained twenty friends at one of her Sunday night suppers in her home on Redding Road. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Shepard, Mr. and Charles Carey, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ewald, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tyson, Mrs. Ruth Craine, Mrs. Alice Lyon and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kluge.
