Bible Study Group Is Honored At Reception

Ninety students, friends and officials of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, which maintains Bible School at Nyack, New York, attended a reception given for them by Mrs. Lorraine Wilson, 215 West Street. Mrs. Wilson was assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Smith.

The guests were entertained with a program of vocal and instrumental music, and addresses from the students and pastors from all over the state. Later a buffet supper was served. Mrs. Lucille Coover, of this city and Mrs. Ross Steese, of Clawson, poured at a table beautifully decorated with flowers.

Students from the college who have returned to Michigan for the summer vacation are Lillian Heth, Birmingham; Wanda Greer, Oak Park; Lois Woodley, Royal Oak; John Seabrook, Nyack, New York; Annabelle and Jack Burnison, Clawson; and Kathleen Kinnin, Pontiac.

In the fall John Hendricks and Charles Wilson, both of whom are members of the June graduating class from the Berkley Christian School, will enter the organization's college at Nyack.

The responsibility is entirely up to the owners of the dogs, unless there is a willingness to cooperate with the owners of the dogs by observing the present dog quarantine, orders will be issued to shut all dogs at large in the City of Birmingham.

Signed, D. C. EGBERT, City Manager, W. LLOYD KEMP, Health Officer.

Parties Continue For Popular Visitor

Hermine McCormick, formerly of Birmingham and now of Westwood Hills, California, continues to be the center of a round of parties and entertainments given in her honor. She has been the house guest of Eleanor Wasey, and Beth Ranney, and is at present staying with Elaine Cree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Cree, of Michigan.

On Friday night a group of ten met at Miss Cree's home for cocktails and then they were the guests of Beth Ranney. In addition to the honor guest and the joint hostesses the party included Eleanor Wasey, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Luck, Bobbie O'Brien, Dick Coombs, Bill Graham and Bill Kane. On Saturday night, Julie Kane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kane, of Lakewood Drive, entertained at cocktails in her home. The party afterwards at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Lane, Pine Road.

This affair was also tendered for Miss McCormick. Two informal luncheons for the popular visitor were the remaining events of this week. One was given by her present hostess, and the other by Mrs. Lyle Luck, in her home on Southfield Avenue. From here Miss McCormick plans to attend the World War activities at Annapolis Naval Academy before returning to California.
