FUND TO BENEFIT BY CLUB PROGRAM

Baldwin Dramatic Group Will Present Plays June 2-3

For the benefit of the Birmingham Playground Activity Fund, members of the Baldwin High School Dramatic Club are busy these days putting the final touches on a program that will include the presentation of five of their best plays of the year. In addition to individual performances that several of their members will give.

The original plan, according to Mrs. Carol Darling and Miss Ruth Hull, faculty advisors of the organization, was to present the plays for no monetary consideration. Then the offerings shaped up so well that members of the Parent-Teacher's Association, realizing the wisdom of exploiting their resources, thought that the dramatic program would be an excellent means of adding to the funds of the Playground Activity Commission.

Therefore the plays have been postponed and will be presented twice, on June 2 at 2:30 P. M. and June 3 at 8:00 P. M. in the high school auditorium, for the benefit of those who want to be royally entertained in all possible ways, and also for the benefit of the Playground Activities.

First on the program is J. M. Taylor's "The Man From Brandon," which will be directed by Rose Berlin. The cast reads: Phil Lester—played by Edward Palmer; Jeremiah Decker, M. D.—Ward Cruikshank; Bernice Mowbray—Bertha; Constance Peck—Miss Janet Spencer—Margaret Corryell; Anne, the maid—Janet Gibbons; Don Moulton—Bob Bliss; Fido, the dog—Himself. Following this play, Dorothy Kelly will offer some clever imitations of well known celebrities.

Dorothy Trumbo directs the next presentation, "Colin Clements' Hot Lemonade." The cast: Willis—Norman Lyle; John—Hoover; Charles—Ruth Seager; Stewart—Charles Gardiner; "His First Tux," directed by Winnie Lyle, will follow. Characters for this play follow: Teddy Harding—Charles Fiske; Betty Harding—Margaret Corryell; Mrs. Harding—Elizabeth Lund; Johnny Drake—Charles Gardiner.

At this point Charles Savage, acknowledged maestro of the school, will render several selections on the piano. The versatile Miss Kelly adapted the next play, "Guido, the Gimp of Ghent," from the story by Stephen Leacock. She direct sit, and plays the title role. Other members of the cast are: Kiva Nordhoff—William Seligman; Leopold, announcer—Charles Savage; Erminda, the stewardess—Annette Lambie; Tanager, the Tenspot—Norman Lyle.

Proving that male versatility is nothing to be omitted Norman Lyle will next appear before the curtain to recite "Casey at the Bat," in his own manner. The final presentation of the evening will be Belle Macbride's "His Blue Serge Suit," directed by Ann Day and Virginia Lochrow. The cast includes: Nancy Cooley—Joan Campbell; Howard Cordes—Bruce Corson; Lennox—Charles Seaver; Leonard—Herbert Moore; Trashman—Loren Robinson; Janitor—Bob Bliss.

Club Chooses New Officers For Year

Mrs. H. B. Barrett was elected president of the Parent-Teacher Club at their meeting held last week in the home of Mrs. Mahlon Stevens of Hanna street.

Elected to serve with Mrs. Barrett were Mrs. Roy F. Smith, chosen vice-president, Mrs. Harvey Muselman who will be secretary and Mrs. Floyd Crouse who will be recording secretary for the new year. Mrs. Myron Clement was elected treasurer.

Mary Palmer Will Be Guest At Academy

June Week! This magical time, a whole week of graduation festivities honoring graduating cadets of Annapolis, is the mecca of every girl. Mary Palmer, daughter of Ray A. Palmer, of East Maple Avenue, will experience the thrills of June Week, when she leaves Sunday for the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland, where she will be the guest of Midshipman Vincent E. Schumacher, of Kalamazoo. There are traditional ceremonies and activities to occupy every waking moment of the week, the most glamorous perhaps, being the Varsity V Club Dance, the famous String Dance and the Farewell Ball.

A senior at Kalamazoo College, Miss Palmer will resume her studies June sixth. She will return to her home shortly afterwards, for summer vacation.

Meeting for cocktails at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Giffels, on Kennesaw Avenue, will be Mr. and Mrs. C. Howard Donley and Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Averill. The party will later attend the opening dinner and dance at Pine Lake Country Club.
