JUDGE TO SPEAK AT CLUB MEETING

Committees Announced For Annual Flower Exhibit

Members of the Birmingham Farm and Garden Club will meet at the Community House, Monday, May 10, to learn from Mrs. David D. Dunlop, of Detroit, accredited flower show judge, what points will be taken into consideration when their exhibits are judged at the annual flower show sponsored by the Club.

The meeting will open at 1:45 and will be followed by tea. Mrs. Paul Bell, general chairman of the arrangements for the afternoon will be assisted by Mrs. Stanley Spiegel, and Mrs. Robert Essex.

The annual flower show, one of the most ambitious projects of the organization, will be held in the Community House this year on June 11. Townspeople are urged to enter the competition but are warned that all entries must be at the House by noon of the eleventh. The show will be open from three in the afternoon until seven in the evening.

Mrs. Aaron Webster as general chairman of the event is assisted by Mrs. Lawrence Howe as vice-chairman.

In the specimen bloom class of entry, Mrs. Craig Williams will handle the details of the exhibit assisted by Mrs. C. O. Hurlburt, Mrs. Charles Lewis, Mrs. E. S. Painter and Mrs. C. H. Sander.

Mrs. Charles Welch is general chairman of the special artistic class and on her committee are Mrs. H. Gray Muzie and Mrs. James Meek.

The artistic arrangements class will be in the hands of Mrs. C. Emerson Van Dusen, aided by Mrs. Frederick Booth, Mrs. F. H. McKinney, Mrs. Robert Grindley and Mrs. Douglas Ewert.

A children's exhibit will be managed by Mrs. Alan W. Joshy who will have Mrs. Bruce Booth and Mrs. Wallace Doidis working with her.

The decoration committee is headed by Mrs. Lester Bishop and with her in this work are Mrs. John Gordon, Mrs. Jules Agramonte, Mrs. Albert Clark, Mrs. S. Gilbreath, Jr., and Mrs. Carl Bradt.

Mrs. Donald Eadie is in charge of all entries and will be assisted in this by Mrs. Roy Hanson, Mrs. Donald Goldsmith, Mrs. Frank Newell, Mrs. Charles Hood and Mrs. Newton Chandler.

Mrs. Harold Roehm is concerned with the publicity for the event while Mrs. Durwood Gamble will be in charge of all tea arrangements.

In the non-number classes Mrs. Atwood Outman will take care of the details and Mrs. Lawrence Howe will be in sole charge of the prizes. The exhibits will be handled by Mrs. George Miller.

Mrs. Sam Garber, president of the society, will entertain at luncheon for the judges for the exhibit.

A. A. U. W. Workshop Convenes At Community House Saturday

Headed by the branch president, Mrs. Loren T. Robinson, the Birmingham branch of the American Association of University Women will be hostesses at the State Workshop meeting of the Association, in the Community House, Saturday, May 8.

Mrs. F. D. Farrar, state president of the association, and Mrs. W. A. P. John, state secretary, both members of the local branch, are in charge of the program for the day which will consist of morning business sessions, afternoon group meetings and a luncheon.

The workshop is planned especially for branch presidents, officers and chairmen of the A. A. U. W. who will be working in the society next year. It is open to all members however who desire to attend. This means of bringing together the leaders of each branch was suggested at the convention in Savannah and it is hoped that it will prove beneficial in developing workable programs for the coming year. The Workshop will provide members an opportunity to bring in their problems and will afford the leaders a chance to give advice and direction for further study.

With Mrs. Farrar presiding, the all-day session will open with her address on "Why A Workshop?" Miss Marion H. McClellan, state educational chairman and Miss Frances Preston, chairman of the Speaker's Bureau, who will discuss some projects of the Association. In addition Marie Sayle will give the financial report for the year.

Reports by branch presidents and an announcement regarding the Ella Coys Miller Memorial Service of June 6 will be featured at the luncheon.

In the afternoon meetings delegates will divide into groups to hear special discussions of Education, Fellowship, International Relations, and Social Studies. With the exception of the group which will study International Relations with Mrs. Charles J. Shain, all forums will be conducted by state officers.

The entire program will be summarized at 3:30 by Mrs. Edward C. Durfee, state legislative chairman.

Luncheon reservations are being taken by Mrs. William F. Tighe, chairman of arrangements, who may be reached by calling 1293. Mrs. Tighe is assisted in these details by Mrs. Herbert Wood, Mrs. W. H. Buschmann, Mrs. J. J. Reilly and Mrs. Franklin Fricker. Mrs. John is making arrangements to house out-of-town delegates over night.

Mrs. W. K. Poppleton was hostess at a bridge luncheon in her home on East Maple, Tuesday, inviting in for the afternoon, Mrs. Charles Scott, Mrs. Herbert Niga, Mrs. E. Glover and Mrs. H. W. Bird.

Mrs. Clay Herbst was hostess to her friends at a bridge luncheon Wednesday afternoon at Bloomfield Open Hunt Club. Spring flowers were used on the luncheon table.

VILLAGE PLAYERS ANNOUNCE PARTY

Theatians Will Frolic About Springdale Grounds May 21

Continuing this year's policy of something new and different at almost every meeting, The Village Players will hold a club party at Springdale Park following the business meeting, scheduled for Friday, May 21. No definite plans have been formulated as yet, but the various committees promise plenty of action to the members attending.

Rolf C. Spinning, vice president of the group, is general chairman of the combination field day and Theaters' rally. Maude Mack is taking care of the music for the dancing, which will wind up the evening's festivities. To further insure the success of the party, Mrs. P. N. Averil heads the food committee, which will provide a picnic dinner and Warren Pease Jr. will take care of the sports, or at least be promising to see that the sports take care of the rest of the guests.

Mrs. G. M. Dweilley will spend the week end at Denison University, where she will be the guest of her son, Thordike, for the Mother's Day program at the Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

Marriage Of Ridge Couple Performed Here

Wide local interest was in the Presbyterian Church, of Miss Vera Hogben and Samuel Todd, both of Pleasant Ridge. Miss Hogben is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Hogben, of Pleasant Ridge, and Mr. Todd is the son of Mrs. Samuel Todd, of Ferndale.
