

T. Hawley Tapping, Alumni Secretary, Will Address "M" Group at Gathering

MICHIGAN LEAGUE NAMES SPEAKER

Evening Meeting To Be Preceded By Dinner

Members of the local branch of the University of Michigan League are busily completing arrangements for their annual evening meeting, to which their husbands are traditionally invited. This year's guest night will be held Wednesday, Nov. 17, at 8:30 p. m., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis B. Sappington, on Arlington drive.

T. Hawley Tapping, of Ann Arbor, general secretary of Michigan Alumni, will address the meeting, to which all University of Michigan men and women are invited. Following the program, there will be a social hour. Mrs. Henry M. Foley and Mrs. J. Darby Taylor are joint chairmen of the refreshment committee.

Preceding the meeting, Mrs. Lee A. White is organizing a subscription dinner for members of the League and their husbands, to be held at Devon Gables, at 8:30 p. m. Among those who have made early reservations for the dinner are Mr. and Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. Sappington, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Watt, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wiedenmann, Mr. and Mrs. Rolf C. Spinning and Mr. and Mrs. Lorey T. Robinson.

Mrs. Lee Joslyn Jr. Fetes New Arrival

Introducing Mrs. Cornelius Harper, Mrs. Lee E. Joslyn Jr. is hostess to more than 60 guests at tea Friday, in her home, at Tibbally place. Mr. and Mrs. Harper are recent arrivals in Birmingham, where they will make their home. Mrs. H. Gray Muzzy presided at the tea table, which reflected warm autumn tints in its decoration scheme. The house was lavishly decorated with eucalyptus leaves and their unusual foliage of the "Silver Wedding" rose, a new botanical specimen.

American Legion

The local chapter of the American Legion will hold open house for all ex-service men in the community on Armistice Day, Nov. 11. The Legion home, on South Woodward Avenue, will be opened from 3:00 p. m. on through the evening, to enable everyone to attend. The committee in charge of the affair includes Richard Dewey, Arthur Ritter, C. P. Hamill and Wylie Pearsall.

Legion officials announce that membership is now double that of a corresponding date of last year. Wiley Pearsall and Gordon Bailey are both winners in Michigan's Thirty-Membership Club, both having introduced over 30 persons to membership in the organization.

Mrs. John Gill was hostess at a luncheon meeting for the Auxiliary held Wednesday at the Legion home, in observance of Armistice Day.

Mrs. Gordon Bailey will attend the Armistice Day observances of the Ninth District Association, being held today in Muskegon. She is on the program as speaker, with "Youth Activities" as her topic. Also while there, she will install the officers of the Muskegon branch of the Eight or Forty, honor society of the American Legion Auxiliary.

BIRMINGHAM

TODAY - FRI. - SAT. LUCETTA YOUNG WARNER BAXTER in "Wife, Doctor and Nurse" PLUS "THE JONES FAMILY"

"Hot Water"

SAT. 2 P. M. ONLY CARTOON SHOW One full hour of cartoons starting at 2 P. M. Sat.

SUN. - MON. - TUES. - WED. SONIA TYRONE HENIE in "THIN ICE"

TOM BROWN in "The Man Who Cried Wolf"

NEW PRICES EFFECTIVE TODAY Men, 30c; Pk. Adults, 40c; Men, 30c; Pk. Adults, 40c; Sun. & Adults, 30c; Children (under 10 yrs.), 15c; Sat. to 10 yrs., 15c. All other times, 10c.

Attend Early Shows

Equal Portions Of Work And Play Mean A Sparkling Wayside Mart For League

Preparing for the Wayside Mart (which will be held Thursday and Friday, Nov. 18 and 19) isn't all work for the members of the League of St. James Women. They find time to mix pleasure with the very serious business of the day—which is preparing all sorts of attractions to be sold at the various booths in the Mart.

Mrs. Edwin H. Strunk was hostess to her committee, which will take care of the food, in her home on Baldwin avenue last Friday. Other committee members—you can take your choice of calling them workers or guests—include Mrs. Fred M. Dorris, Mrs. C. J. McKay, Mrs. E. K. Leavenworth, Mrs. Joseph Wagner, Mrs. Forest Hubert, Mrs. George Dixon, Mrs. Ralph Norton, Mrs. Garrett Arnold, Mrs. Bruce Van Dusen, Mrs. John B. Williams and Mrs. John B. Kendall.

Others meet Tuesday. All of the other groups met on Tuesday, and the air was thick with plans as they finished festivities and huddled down to work. Mrs. George D. Clark, of Brookside drive, had two assistants to help her with her committee. They were Mrs. Garrett Arnold and Mrs. John B. Kendall, and the afternoon group spent the afternoon working on doll clothes. The others, all of whom are members of the choir group of the League, were Mrs. Sherman L. Messner, Mrs. D. S. Hastreiter, Mrs. L. A. Farquar, Mrs. Forrest Hubert, Mrs. Fred Whitley, Mrs. Clarence Vliet Jr., Mrs. Fred Dorris, Mrs. William H. Jackson, Mrs. Robert M. F. E. Pomeroy, Mrs. J. H. Stroven-Reuter, Mrs. Joseph Wagner, Mrs. D. M. Spencer, Mrs. Charles Kwendler, Mrs. D. H. Strunk, Mrs. E. K. Leavenworth, Mrs. W. H. Elliot, Mrs. J. M. McKay, Mrs. James L. Cox, Mrs. H. M. Hempstead and Mrs. Newman Halvorson.

Hospital Group Sewa. Mrs. Irving Bakcock and Mrs. David Bakcock were co-hostesses to the League's hospital group at the home of the former on Lone Pine road. This gathering was also for the purpose of sewing for the Mart and included Mrs. James Bullock, Mrs. Milton F. Coulson, Mrs. Thomas L. Walton, Mrs. Hilda Hayes, Mrs. Constance Sills, Mrs. Merrit Pike, Mrs. Robert Royal, Mrs. Herbert Listman, Mrs. S. O'Rourke, Mrs. J. J. Morehouse and Mrs. J. F. Hollister. Meeting at the Parish House.

'BRIDAL PAIR' ARE HOSTS AT DINNER

The John Nixons Entertain Guests In Their Home

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Daniels on Thirteen Mile road was the scene of the wedding of their daughter, Clara, to John Nixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Nixon, of Beverly road. The Rev. S. A. Long, of the Franklin M. E. church, performed the ceremony—which occurred November 10, 1937. And Wednesday, the children and grandchildren of the "bridal" pair met at their home for dinner, and to wish them many more years of happiness.

Mr. Nixon, who was 74 in March, and Mrs. Nixon, who was 74 in June, are the parents of seven children, six of whom are living. The children are Clark, of Howell; Mattie, at home; Harry, of Vassar; Marcus, of Beverly road; Mrs. Edward Stevens, also of Beverly road; Mrs. Halsey Russell, of Fowlerville. They have 14 grandchildren. Mr. Nixon is the brother of Chauncey Nixon and Mrs. Nixon is the sister of Ed. Daniels and Mrs. Stella Bingham, all of Birmingham.

Both "bride" and "bridegroom" have spent their whole lives in Southfield Township. They began housekeeping on Beverly road, near the home of Mr. Nixon's parents. Later, the young Nixons built a "new" home, in which they are living today. And in which they intend to keep right on living, for a good many years.

INTERESTS VARY FOR DIVISION DAY

Club's Branches Will Meet Separately For Programs

Division Day for the Birmingham Woman's Club will be observed on Tuesday, Nov. 16. Most of the divisions will combine their meetings with a social hour before the program for the afternoon.

The home of Mrs. Frederick A. Carey, on Buckingham road, will be the gathering place for the Literature Department of the Woman's Club. The meeting will open at 2 p. m., with a paper on current events, read by Mrs. George H. Flynn. Following Mrs. Flynn on the program will be Miss Dolphine Newcomb, who will present poetry selections.

The International Relations Department will convene at the home of Mrs. Ray A. Morrow, on Townsend street, where Mrs. Morrow will be hostess at a dessert-luncheon. Mrs. John E. Morrow will be the speaker. Her topic will be "Steps Toward International Good Will."

Mrs. Thomas L. Thurber, of Oak street, will also be hostess at a dessert-luncheon. She will entertain the Art Department, assisted by Mrs. Royce L. Beers and Mrs. John Black. Members of the department will bring their family treasures to the meeting, and following the luncheon, the precious exhibits will be shown and discussed.

The American Home Department will meet at the Casa Loma ten room, in Detroit, for luncheon. After this, they will attend the premiere of the Michigan Artists Exhibit, which will open that day at the Detroit Museum of Art. Mrs. Forbes Bascall is in charge of luncheon arrangements, and Mrs. Ruthens P. Cole is arranging transportation.

Roger Toothackers Honored At Dinner

Members of the Central Committee group of the Allied Youth dinned at the Pallister tea room, in Detroit, Saturday, Nov. 6, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Roger N. Toothacker for their outstanding services to the organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Toothacker were highly commended for their "loyal devotion and unselfish help in promoting the cause of Allied Youth through their efforts and example."

"At the conclusion of the banquet, the honor guests were presented with a silver platter, through the courtesy of Mrs. Truman H. Newberry. The members of the group which attended were those who have served with Mr. Toothacker on the Central Committee, one which is made up of the chairman of all of the organization's other committees.

Mr. Nixon, who was 74 in March, and Mrs. Nixon, who was 74 in June, are the parents of seven children, six of whom are living. The children are Clark, of Howell; Mattie, at home; Harry, of Vassar; Marcus, of Beverly road; Mrs. Edward Stevens, also of Beverly road; Mrs. Halsey Russell, of Fowlerville. They have 14 grandchildren. Mr. Nixon is the brother of Chauncey Nixon and Mrs. Nixon is the sister of Ed. Daniels and Mrs. Stella Bingham, all of Birmingham.

Both "bride" and "bridegroom" have spent their whole lives in Southfield Township. They began housekeeping on Beverly road, near the home of Mr. Nixon's parents. Later, the young Nixons built a "new" home, in which they are living today. And in which they intend to keep right on living, for a good many years.

Forest Lake Bridge Starts Winter Fun

Members of Forest Lake country club will inaugurate their season of winter activities with an invitational bridge party, to be held at the club Friday evening, Nov. 12, in keeping with the season, the club house will be decorated in shades of rust and green.

The committee in charge of the event consists of Mrs. A. L. Ladd, Mrs. P. C. Evans and Mrs. Fred W. Raede. They have arranged for door and table prizes, as well as for refreshments.

Among those who plan to attend are Mrs. J. L. Ladd, Mrs. S. M. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. G. Osterman, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Tate, Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Schon, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Wenzel, Mr. and Mrs. W. Carlston Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Preston and Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Raede.

Members of Forest Lake country club will inaugurate their season of winter activities with an invitational bridge party, to be held at the club Friday evening, Nov. 12, in keeping with the season, the club house will be decorated in shades of rust and green.

The committee in charge of the event consists of Mrs. A. L. Ladd, Mrs. P. C. Evans and Mrs. Fred W. Raede. They have arranged for door and table prizes, as well as for refreshments.

Among those who plan to attend are Mrs. J. L. Ladd, Mrs. S. M. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. G. Osterman, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Tate, Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Schon, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Wenzel, Mr. and Mrs. W. Carlston Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Preston and Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Raede.

be the gathering place for the Literature Department of the Woman's Club. The meeting will open at 2 p. m., with a paper on current events, read by Mrs. George H. Flynn. Following Mrs. Flynn on the program will be Miss Dolphine Newcomb, who will present poetry selections.

The International Relations Department will convene at the home of Mrs. Ray A. Morrow, on Townsend street, where Mrs. Morrow will be hostess at a dessert-luncheon. Mrs. John E. Morrow will be the speaker. Her topic will be "Steps Toward International Good Will."

Mrs. Thomas L. Thurber, of Oak street, will also be hostess at a dessert-luncheon. She will entertain the Art Department, assisted by Mrs. Royce L. Beers and Mrs. John Black. Members of the department will bring their family treasures to the meeting, and following the luncheon, the precious exhibits will be shown and discussed.

The American Home Department will meet at the Casa Loma ten room, in Detroit, for luncheon. After this, they will attend the premiere of the Michigan Artists Exhibit, which will open that day at the Detroit Museum of Art. Mrs. Forbes Bascall is in charge of luncheon arrangements, and Mrs. Ruthens P. Cole is arranging transportation.

Members of Forest Lake country club will inaugurate their season of winter activities with an invitational bridge party, to be held at the club Friday evening, Nov. 12, in keeping with the season, the club house will be decorated in shades of rust and green.

The committee in charge of the event consists of Mrs. A. L. Ladd, Mrs. P. C. Evans and Mrs. Fred W. Raede. They have arranged for door and table prizes, as well as for refreshments.

Among those who plan to attend are Mrs. J. L. Ladd, Mrs. S. M. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. G. Osterman, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Tate, Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Schon, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Wenzel, Mr. and Mrs. W. Carlston Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Preston and Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Raede.

Follow The Crowd in
"FALLETTES"

Young collegiennes and business girls choose Kayser "Falletes" because they are extra-comfortable and attractive for study and frolicking... And for cozy sleeping, they are soft and warm. In handsome colors in the popular two-piece styles.

$1.95

"KAYSERETTE"

Sleepers

... are warm and cozy as a kitten on the hearth. You'll want to smuggle into them on chilly evenings at home or at school. Many styles to choose from, in both gown and pajamas. Long and short sleeves. Open and high necks. Woolly frills.

$1.95

"Be wiser—buy Kayser"

CARTER'S PAJAMAS

Carter's fine ribbed knitted pajamas, in two-piece styles. Long sleeve jacket, pant with close-fitting cuff for snugness. Soft cotton and 20% wool. Colors—coral, navy, tealose and powder blue. Sizes—small, large and medium.

$1.95

Other cotton pajamas at $1.00 and up.

CARTER'S GOWNS

Carter's knitted gowns are lightweight but cozy and warm. They are designed for comfort, but still retain their attractiveness in style and good looks. Small, medium and large sizes, in tealose with blue trim.

$1.75

3 DAY SPECIAL

SATIN AND CREPE

GOWNS

Lace trimmed and tailored styles in tealose and blue. A fine selection from which to choose. Some slightly soiled.

Reg. $1.95 to $5.95

1/2 PRICE

79c up

3 Days Only — Another Famous Mulholland

HANDKERCHIEF SALE

Think of it! Exquisite white embroideries, appliques, spoking and your embroideries which women adore. It would take minute inspection to tell them from kerchiefs costing two and three times as much.

29c

4 For $1.00

This isn't a bit too soon to buy for Christmas

DON'T SPEND THANKSGIVING IN THE KITCHEN

We'll Put a New Modern GAS RANGE In Your Home On FREE TRIAL

You'll marvel at what this modern automatic featured range will do for better cooking, a brighter kitchen and new freedom from the "stove."

We'll put one in your home with no obligation whatsoever. Just try it for yourself, then if you desire to keep the range you can pay for it as little as 10c a day.

Consumers Power Co.
348 E. Maple Phone 1174

Marlboro SHIRTS

AT $1.65

See these long wearing, popular priced shirts in the new Fall colors. Neatly styled, with the "Marlboro" trademarked collar, soft, close-fitting stripes in harmonious colorings. Tailored to fit and give lasting satisfaction. Dozens and dozens to choose from... in a full run of sizes.

Better buy now — for Christmas

Men's Neckwear

Fine quality silk ties in solid colors and attractive patterns. Also the famous "Rotans" wool ties in smart new patterns.

$1.00

Campus Coats

$6.50 up

32 Oz. All Wool jackets in colorful plaid. Patch Back—Full belt—Double breasted... Fine quality and excellent tailoring throughout. Wind and wet repellent... they are top-flight service.

Sizes 38 to 46

BOY'S "RAYMASTER"

Rubber Rain Coats

Made by the U. S. Rubber Co., and pressure welded. Lighter weight... Wadded seams... Won't peel... Greater resistance to sagging, ripping and oxidation.

$2.95

Same coat in men's sizes at $5.75

Mulholland's