

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Roberts entertained at dinner Tuesday evening, in their home on West Maple road. Honor guests were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Cooper, who are leaving soon for a winter in the West Indies.

Unquestionably, the gracious thing to do is to send—

and Time demands your selection now... so that you will be completely satisfied. A task as important as the choosing of your own cards should not be done hurriedly. Come in soon—and do it leisurely.

WILL GIVE FROLIC TO AID MILK FUND

Pierce P. T. A. Will Sponsor Affair To Be Held At School

The Pierce school Parent Teacher's Association is sponsoring an evening of festivities for the benefit of its milk fund, to be held at the school on Friday, Nov. 19. General chairman of the affair is Mrs. Jack C. Boomer, Jr.

There will be a showing of "The Prince and the Pauper," a movie designed especially to attract the younger set, although anyone who has read Mark Twain's book, on which the movie is based, will want to see this. An educational film and a comedy will round out the theatrical end of the entertainment.

Late on there will be an opportunity for bridge-lovers to indulge in their favorite indoor sport. And for those who feel frisky, there will be a dance in the gymnasium. At some time during the evening, the Drum and Bugle Corps from the Royal Oak division of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will present a musical exhibition for which it is becoming famous.

One of the most popular features of the affair will be the presentation of the prize quilt, a traditional affair for the P. T. A. milk fund benefits. Tickets are being sold for a nominal sum, and during the evening the holder of the lucky one will win a handmade quilt for herself—or maybe it will turn out to be Hilda's.

Tickets, both for the quilt and for the party, may be obtained from any of the teachers at the Pierce school, or any of the mothers who belong to the organization.

Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Lynch, of Fairfax drive, are in New York city for a period of days, staying at the hotel New Weston.

Mrs. Maurice F. Smith, of Pilgrim road, will be hostess at a series of luncheons at the Fox and Hound on Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 15 and 16, for 12 guests at each occasion. At both events, the guests will return to Mrs. Smith's home following luncheon, for an afternoon of bridge.

Included among those who are spending some time in St. Petersburg, Fla., is quite a colony of Birmingham residents. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Appell, Horace Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Elock, Mrs. Henry W. Kline and Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Vier.

Among those who will attend the dinner and Keno party at the Detroit Boat Club this Saturday, is a party composed of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Mixer, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Emmert and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Rutherford.

Following the custom which has been in effect since the formal opening of the hunt season for the Franklin Open Hunt, breakfast will be served after the Saturday hunt, which starts from the Club Kennels at 8 a. m. Hostesses for this occasion will be Mrs. Maxwell Richman, Miss Elizabeth Jacob, Miss Bertha Shaw and Miss Eugene Willis. The affair will be held at Oakland Hills riding club.

Mrs. Fred Vahey, of Grand Rapids, is the house-guest of Mrs. Katherine Vahey Mills, in her home on South Bates street. Honoring her guest, Mrs. Mills was hostess at tea Wednesday for 12 of her friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClellan, of Rivenook avenue, have returned to Birmingham from Appleton, Wisconsin, where they were the house-guests of Mr. McClellan's sister, Mrs. C. J. West.

Eileen Moergel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Moergel, of Southfield road, entertained at a luncheon Thursday evening, at her home. Included among the guests were Miss Jessie Galbraith, of Pontiac; Mrs. Clayton Blackley, of Rochester; Mrs. N. M. Schartz and her daughter, Evelyn, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Beatrice Penberthy, of Beverly Hills and Miss Margaret Moore, Rita Veit, Bernice Allen, Alice Gross, Betty Ware and Mrs. Stuart MacLane, of Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills.

GIRL SCOUTS

Girl Scout troop number 3, which meets at the Quanton school, held a patrol investiture Tuesday afternoon. At this time also, the investiture of the troop's scribe and treasurer was performed. Mary Patterson is the new assistant leader of this group.

Troop 3 hiked out to the Girl Scout cabin on Tuesday, and was the first one to use the new fire place, donated by the Lions' Club. The members are planning their Thanksgiving baskets, and have also begun work on baskets and cellophane trees, for use at Christmas.

Troop 5, under the leadership of Lillian Walton, hiked out to the Cabin Saturday afternoon, where they participated in a winter roast.
