CELEBRATE CLUB'S 20TH ANNIVERSARY

Bloomfield Open Hunt Plans Musical Ride And Dinner Dance

Members of the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club are nothing if not original. The club is nearing its majority, since its twentieth anniversary falls during this week, and this event is going to be celebrated in a fitting and unusual manner when members of the club convene tonight. Past presidents of the organization and past Masters of the Hunt are also going to be honored, in a festive and highly diversified program.

Mr. George Shepherd, general chairman of the celebration, announces that first on the program is, appropriately enough, a ride. Only this will be an extra special ride, accompanied by music. Dinner will follow the amusements, and the evening will wind itself up with dancing at the club house.

Among those who will attend the party are Miss Betty Cousins, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Hendrie, W. R. York, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carey, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hopper, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Emmert, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Lovett.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Lechen, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott S. Schala, Mr. and Mrs. Clay E. Herbst, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Navin, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Whitcomb, Jr., and Mrs. Frank W. Shuehl.

KINGSWOOD IS ACTIVE

Mr. and Mrs. George Booth and Dr. and Mrs. S. S. Marquis were honor guests at the Alumnae dinner, held Tuesday at Kingswood school. Miss Edith Hamilton, president of the Kingswood Alumnae Association, was general chairman of the affair. Dr. Marquis made an informal address to the guests following the dinner.

Today will witness the return hockey game between Kingswood versus the Vaughan school. In last week's tilt, Kingswood came off victorious, with a score of one-nothing.

On Wednesday, Nov. 24, the school will adjourn for the Thanksgiving recess. The students will return to their regular classes on the following Monday.

Dance Chairman

Miss Trump

Dorothy Trump, popular senior student at Baldwin high school, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hal G. Trump, of Franklin. Most recent of the honors she has won is her selection by the Baldwin Student Congress to act as general chairman of the annual Football Dance. The dance will be an event of tomorrow night, at the high school gymnasium, honoring the school's 1937 football squad.

Active in school affairs, Miss Trump is president of the Dramatics Club and a member of the Baldwin orchestra. In this capacity she spent the summer at the National Band Camp, at Interlochen. While there she was named "Miss Interschola" in a contest based on outstanding qualities of the candidates.

CHURCH PLANS PARTY

There will be plenty of room at the Keno party to be sponsored by the Holy Name church, Tuesday, Nov. 23, at 8 p. m. James O'Connor, general chairman of the affair, announces that it will be held in the largest assembly hall of the Holy Name school. This party is an annual event among the church members, and always eagerly anticipated by them and their friends. Those who set the date are particularly proud of the fact that it is being held almost on Thanksgiving eve, at a time when all the prizes may be put to especially good use.

ALL PLAYERS ARE 'CAST' FOR KENO

Mrs. Cecil F. Charlton Heads Those Working On Party

Among other things played by the versatile members of the Village Players is that favorite indoor sport of the late fall season, Keno. Saturday, Dec. 4, at 9 p. m., is the date and time selected for their annual affair which will be of course, held at the Playhouse. A large percentage of the club's membership has already made reservations, according to Mrs. Warren Pease Jr., who is in charge of that aspect of the affair.

Others who are working on different committees in charge of the multiple details of Keno parties are Mrs. Cecil F. Charlton, who is general chairman of all arrangements, Mrs. Harold Klein, Dr. J. B. Haslerger, Frank Packard and Charles J. Shain.

Most important of the Players' "extra-curricular" activities, which term includes anything that is not a play, are the club dances. The date for the first one of their winter season has been set for February 12. No plans have been made, other than the decision to adopt a Valentine's Day theme.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett J. Wright announce the birth of a son, Bennett Jackson, on Sunday, November 7. Mrs. Wright is the former Shirley Hayman.

Fashion Tips

Although black continues to be a favorite of the season, most women are adding a touch of color to their costumes.

A yoke of colored velvet over a black crepe dress, or a band of velvet draped around the hood of a dress, are some of the ways in which color is used.

Of course, sequin boleros and gold mesh collars brighten up other black models.

'Hey Boys, Up Go We'—And Everyone Else Goes Up Too, At Folk Dance Assembly

A crowd estimated at 200 persons participated in the first of the folk and country dancing assemblies, conducted by Mrs. Fred D. Farrar, at the Community House Wednesday, Nov. 10. Many of the guests had never performed any of the dances before, but, almost before they knew it, the quaint tunes and titles and the evident pleasure of the other dances, lured them onto the floor.

And what a wealth of atmosphere those titles contain! "Circassian Circle" was the name of the first of the four numbers in which the assembly participated. As the name suggests, it was a circle dance. The next is not so easy. It was a progressive dance, but one would never guess it from hearing it called "First of April."

From Maine came the next number, which was very popular, being a lot like the familiar Virginia reel. But who'd have thought it from the name, "Thaddy You Gander?"

And the next one, "Long Eight," was really a follow-the-leader affair. It's done with a skipping step, and the dancers really skipped, too.

It was a breathless crowd indeed that stopped dancing to witness the program. But they found enough breath left to sing some of the old English and American folk songs, led by Helen Wagner Neff. Mrs. Neff presented several solos, sea chanteys like "Spanish Ladies," and some of the others. And Mrs. George M. Dweilley, who played for the dancing, sang a typical ballad of the Tennessee mountains. Everyone joined in on the choruses of songs like the lively "A Keeper Would A-Hunting Go."

Since the folk dances were originally danced by whole families, even without the aid of guests, a family group from Birmingham put on an exhibition dance. It was composed of Mr. and Mrs. George O. Seager, and their two children, Betty and Bobby. They were accompanied by Edward Wegan, of Detroit, who played an accordion.

Mr. Wegan also played for the two-family exhibition presented by the Seager family, Mr. and Mrs. Farrar, Diggins Farrar and Ward Crutskahn Jr. This last had the most idyllic and fascinating title of all: "Hey Boys, Up Go We." The next meeting of the Assembly will be held Wednesday, November 24, at the Community House, beginning at 8 p. m. and lasting until 9:30. It is planned to hold them every fortnight thenceforward.

Mrs. Bolton Retes Foreign Guest At Luncheon

Mrs. Harry Bolton, of Purdy street, was hostess at a luncheon Wednesday at Devon Gables. Honor guest was the Baroness Liane de Gidro, of Budapest, who is the house-guest of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Averill, of Rivenoak avenue, for an extended stay.

Bessies the homopoe and Mrs. Averill, Mrs. Bolton's guests included Mrs. Owen Nacker, of Pleasant Ridge, Mrs. H. Hoyt Gilbert, Mrs. C. V. Crockett, Mrs. Norman Lyle, Miss Gladys Rogers, Mrs. Fred Johnson and Mrs. Harry Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner M. Cobb, of Gray Mower drive, will have as their guests for a pre-Thanksgiving dinner next Wednesday night, Mrs. Elizabeth Hasberger, Dr. John B. Hasberger and Mr. and Mrs. Paul N. Averill.

WOMEN VOTERS TO HOLD DISCUSSIONS

Current Questions Occupy League During Next Meet

The regular bi-monthly department meeting of the League of Women Voters will occupy League members on Monday, Nov. 22, at the Community House. The meeting will start at 11 a. m., with a gathering of the study class, the consumer division of the department of government and economic welfare.

Mrs. George Patch will lead the discussion on a subject which has been entitled "Uncle Sam and Mrs. Consumer." Mrs. Patch explains that the talk will resolve itself into an attempt to determine whether President Roosevelt's proposal of a Department of Social Welfare, which will function solely to protect the consumer, would be more desirable than the present system of unrelated bureaus, many of whom are not suited in the interests of the consumer.

At noon the assembly will adjourn for luncheon, returning to the business meeting at 1 p. m. The study class will again be the order of the day, with the labor division of the department of government and economic welfare. Mrs. Russell Barnes will lead the afternoon's discussion, on the Wagner Labor Relations Act.

Heads Committee

Mrs. Kemp

Mrs. W. Lloyd Kemp is general chairman of the next meeting of the Birmingham Musicals, which will meet December 10 at the Baptist church. Chief among Mrs. Kemp's duties will be preparing for the Ypsilanti Normal Choir, which make another appearance here at that date, under the auspices of the Musicals.

Mrs. Carl W. Neuman, of Wing Lake road, is in Chicago, where she will remain over the weekend.

PLAN FIRST MEET OF CATHOLIC P.T.A.

Mrs. Corson Is Temporary Head of Group At Holy Name

Parents of pupils who attend the Holy Name school will meet at eight o'clock in the Community House tonight, for the purpose of organizing a Catholic Parent Teacher's Association. Mrs. Harold H. Corson, who has been acting as temporary chairman of the group, says, "This action is coming at a most opportune time. Sister Mary, at Marygrove college, in a series of weekly articles, is stressing the need of parent education. And more and more, enlightened parents are seeing that the need is a compelling one."

Mrs. John Dunn, Mrs. Henry M. Foley and Mrs. P. L. Ledwidge form the committee on by-laws. They will present their report for adoption at tonight's gathering. The nominating committee, on which are serving Mrs. Leo Flynn, Mrs. Edward Hayes, Mrs. Edmond Mansfield and Mrs. J. R. Adams, has also prepared a slate for the election of officers.

The new association will become a branch of the City Council of Parent Teacher's Associations. Mrs. John Harvey Basso, president of the Council, will install the officers to be elected.
