

BACK FENCING

By A MAN ABOUT TOWN

They're gone again... and by "they" we mean all the lucky guys who have hit the roads for the northlands of Michigan...

Word reaches us that the football game played last week by the Mt. Clemens and Birmingham High School football teams was anything but a tough affair.

Another good Goodyear man has been moved again. It has been said that the Goodyear slogan should be, "Join Goodyear and see the country."

Jack Potter is the new manager at the local Goodyear sales and service emporium.

Jack Oimsted, who though married is also a boy, really does take one place when he gets you in that his powdered hair is the other night he stepped the dial up to 82 miles per hour...

Why is it that a certain fair lady over at Healy's is always humming that old refrain which goes, "Horses - Horses - Horses, Crazy Over Horses - Horses - Horses"?

Joe Lemke, one of the most congenial store managers at the local Woodward Avenue Kroger Store, has ever had, is slowly recovering from a long illness and expects to be back at his post here next week...

If either Walter Raychel or Dr. Archie McNaughton should happen to look like they were doing their Christmas shopping early these days...

Folks over in the neighborhood of the city water tower which is being torn down have all about gone " loco " according to word passed out by one who should know.

And now as we are winding this conglomeration up for the week, we get this red hot tip, direct from the firing lines of the north woods.

And now in closing, let us warn you that if you do not get in on the $1000 worth of Keno and Door prizes which will be passed out at the Lions Party next Monday night...
