

An honest self-inventory of your... your light may be—that you have much to be thankful for.

SIXTIETH YEAR—NO. 33

Good Things Plentiful and Cheap for Thanksgiving

Pumpkins are cheap, so let's have pie to top off the turkey! By the way, if you are planning to economize on your Thanksgiving dinner this year, better have turkey instead of kettle roast.

CITY ADOPTS EGBERT PLAN

Weekly Rubbish Collection To Begin in January Commission Rules Starting January 15, 1938, weekly collection of rubbish will take place in Birmingham.

LIBRARY SETS STUDY HOURS

Board Ruling Defines Time Reserved For School Group in Evening By action of the Library Board, new regulation limiting the hours during which school students may use Baldwin Public Library in the evening, will go into effect Wednesday, Dec. 1.

BOY SCOUTS PLAN ANNUAL TOY DRIVE

Out-grown or Partly Broken Contributions Will Be Repaired Cards will be distributed to students in Birmingham public schools, asking them to bring members of local Boy Scout troops, explaining the purpose of their annual drive for outgrown and particularly broken toys and asking students to bring such toys to school.

PETITION FOR SEWER

A petition for creating an easement for laying sewer water mains, preparatory to the erection of one or more houses on Tooting Lane, was presented to the City Commission, Monday night, instructed, Manager Donald C. Egbert to have the petition, Mrs. Josephine Wasey, of Harmon street, prepare final plans for the project.

TEAMS TO FIGHT IN FOOTBALL TROUSERS AT PLAY

Wurster Confident Despite Acorns' Sliver Edge Over Maples With Royal Oak high school given a slight edge in the 26th annual clash with Baldwin, and with followers of the Maroon and White warriors confident that the home team has finally hit its stride, pre-game feeling is running high.

RECORD CROWD PICKS HOUSE AT PLAY

More Than 1000 Guests Fill Rooms, Halls and Stairs in Biggest Event The capacity of the House was taxed to the limit when guests crowded into kitchen, cloakrooms, and rest rooms, and in offices, after filling the large auditorium and both lounges.

TRIO TO TALK AT PTA MEET

Parent Education Division To Offer Discussion of Community School "Have We a Community School? is the question to be discussed at a meeting of the Parent Education Division of the Baldwin High School Parent Teacher Association at Baldwin High School Monday, Nov. 29 at 8 p.m.

TO STUDY WASTE PLANT

Next Monday night the City Commission will meet at seven o'clock to discuss details of the proposed waste plant, the eventual cost of which will exceed $100,000.

MINTON PETITION REFUSED BY CITY

Commission To Wait Highway Completion Before Taking Action Define use for property on Oakland avenue, in the vicinity of the new Wilder Woodward cut-off of the old Grand Trunk right-of-way, will be determined when the highway is completed, and the City can see what changes in the plan are indicated.

Berz Gets Contract For City Warehouse

The contract for the building of the new garage and warehouse for Birmingham, to be located on City property at Eton and Holland roads, south of the Grand Trunk cut-off, was awarded Monday night by the City Commission to Wm. Berz, local builder, for $25,500.

Parish To Honor Bishop of Mexico

Rev. Forsyth As a tribute to the Rev. Wm. L. Forsyth, who has completed more than ten years as rector of St. James Episcopal church, members of the Parish are planning a dinner in his honor, to be held Monday, Dec. 6, at the Community House.

NEW PASTOR TO COME DEC 1

Rev. Joseph O. Nelson, who will come to Birmingham, Ala., to fill the pulpit of the First Baptist church the following Sunday, has had an interesting career in theological work, which began at an early age.

QUARTON SKATERS TO HAVE LIGHTS

Lake Will Be Equipped For Winter Sport Again This Season Birmingham again this year will maintain illumination on Quarton Lake to aid in the recreational use of that body of water for skaters.

Injured Resident Is Recovering

Mrs. Lloyd S. Linton, of Oakland avenue, who, with her husband, was injured when their car accidentally ran into the corner of West Long Lake and Woodward avenues early on the morning of Nov. 11, is recovering.

WANT ADS

WILL DO THE JOB Each week these little Ads bring opportunity to buy—sell—rent—trade services—and many other miscellaneous items.

Churches Will Lead City in Spiritual Observance of Holiday

Birmingham will welcome Thanksgiving Day 1937, with special services of worship in all the churches, and with the usual family reunions and gathering of the clans around tables bountifully spread.

Baskets To Be Distributed By Community House To Local Poor

Each year as Thanksgiving Day approaches, one of the functions of the Community House is to see to it that needy families are provided with well-filled baskets. Five years ago, the burden was a heavy one, figures show, but since that time, when more than 100 baskets were distributed to local families, the number has steadily decreased.

Chronic Case of Tuberculosis

Christ Church will observe Thanksgiving Day with its Festival of Ingathering at 11 a. m. The service will include a pageant representing a presentation of gifts to the Spirit of Thanksgiving by various groups of different countries and periods of history.

The Birmingham Eccentric

Phone 11 The Birmingham Eccentric