

Saturday Party at Community House Will Be Preceded by Several Dinners

NEW DANCE GROUP HAS MANY PATRONS

Numerous Reservations For Assembly Foretell Gay Affair

One of the bright spots in the Thanksgiving holiday period will be the first meeting of the Friendly Dancing Club, Saturday, Nov. 27, at the Community House. Organized by a group of women headed by Mrs. H. H. Gardner, the club plans to meet four times during the season, with future dates to be determined later. The first meeting will be at 8 p. m. and will be held at the Community House. The first dance will be at 8 p. m. and will be held at the Community House. The first dance will be at 8 p. m. and will be held at the Community House.

PARENTS REVEAL TROTH

Friends of the engaged couple will be interested to know of the revelation of Mr. and Mrs. David Ives, of West Frank street, of the engagement of their daughter, Helen Louise, to C. Everett Porteous, Mr. Porteous is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Porteous, of Ridgedale avenue. No date has been named for the wedding.

Mrs. Forbush Speaks To Hills Garden Unit

The Bloomfield Hills Unit of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association is sponsoring a series of two talks, on decorations during the holiday season. The first was delivered recently at the Vaughan school by Mrs. Edith M. Forbush, State President of the Association, who was assisted by Mrs. W. Hamilton Aulenbach. Mrs. Forbush's subject was "Thanksgiving Centerpieces," during her address, Mrs. Aulenbach displayed model illustrations of the decoration in question. The second address will be concerned with Christmas greens and their use. It will be held at the Vaughan school, with Mrs. Forbush again as the principle speaker. The date for this program will be announced later.

Second Folk Dance Assembly Planned

The vacationing collegians will have a chance to see what the home town set has been learning in their absence at the second folk dance assembly for American and English country dancing, to be held Thanksgiving eve at 8 p. m., at the Community House, under the direction of Mrs. Fred D. Farrar. It is planned to continue the assemblies throughout the winter months, holding a dance every fortnight. Hostesses for Wednesday night's affair will be Miss Betty Klingensmith, Mrs. Ford D. Pearson, Mrs. William E. Essery, Mrs. John H. Gordon, Mrs. D. S. Hastreiter, Mrs. George T. Hendrie, Mrs. W. A. Schunck, and Mrs. Harry G. Muehlman. Mrs. George M. Dwyer will accompany the group at the piano.

College Knowledge

By SOPHIE MORE

Before going completely mad, Sophie wants to will to all you pippies, several bits of data on college capers. They're too good to miss, so be darned sure you know that . . . Lloyd Stanley, who's at State, is a member of their snazzy band. And consequently, he played over the coast-to-coast hookup for the Varsity Show that N.B.C. held there recently. Aren't you proud of him? . . . Mary Jane Johnson and Ann Louise Baldwin, both in their first year at Marygrove, were two of the 194 four who received cap and gown at that noble institution's Founder's Day program. As you know, this is the 92nd anniversary of the founding of the order which conducts the collieth. . . . A brace of local lads are going to help make the people go round in a big way at double-A this winter. Art Brandt Jr. heads the ticket committee for the Soph Fro, biggest sign of life on the part of the second-termers, which will be given Dec. 10. And Ralph DuBois has been elected to the J-Hop committee from the College of Engineering. Exclamation points to both of 'em. . . . So now, with a long breath and a brave smile, I vainly attempt to tell about what a few of you 'l' whoooots are doing over Thanksgiving weekend.

Family Reunion
The Bolton family is having itself a bit of a reunion. Big Bear, Charles R., is buzzing down from Saginaw, where the toils of business have him staired since he got out of college, down Tennessee way. Medium-sized Bear, Roland (or But), will desert the Sigma Nu house at Ann Arbor, where he is a senior, for the holiday. Little Bear, Robert, schools it here in Beem. But he's casting an eye on Harvard—no less—for Law School, in the near future. . . . Out-of-Towners
Mt. Holyoke, in South Hadley, Mass., is a pretty long jaunt away.

More Commuters
Eleanor Bishop (Bish to youse guys) will be coming home from State, of course. Incidentally, did you know they're getting four days off? Her family devoutly hopes she'll bring home at least one guest, which probably means roommate June Lyons. But the latter's a bit unpredictable, so all we can do is keep our fingers crossed. So many others will be trucking in from the nearer temples of learning, that we won't go directory on you and call 'em all by name. But keep looking for them, and you'll still find.

Guests and Hosts
Harry Wise will let the Deke truck take care of itself, while he trucks back to the old homestead for a 1 1/2 change of scene. (We were going to call it a rest, but it'll hardly be that. He'll probably be at the University Club in Detroit Saturday for the regular blow-out, and goodness knows what else.) Here's a funny note. He's bringing no less than two house-guests (whose names we couldn't snag, darn it) and both of 'em are from Beem Alabama! Ain't it odd? . . . Mary Lis Robinson returneth also, for but one day—the piker! Her family thinks she may bring a guest, but isn't sure. I'll be sort of like opening a surprise package to see, won't it? . . . The Foley brothers, Hank and Art, who are senior and frosh respectively, are two more Michigan-ers who'll be home for a day. Art and his family will be truly thankful if only he can carve his name on the way home from own turkey. Seems he was playing a bit of touch football a couple months ago, got too lively, broke his arm, and has been in a cast ever since. Nothing serious, but a awful bother. . . . Bright Idea

Speaking of bothers, doesn't it seem a shame that all the schools can't give four days at this time? Olivet has a neat system, of which we just got wind. The legal vacation is just Thanksgiving, but the kids can take four days if they want. It doesn't cut down on their marks or anything if they miss a class or two, but they do have to pay a fine. The amount of the fine, we suppose, depends on the number of credits given in the course, or their current mark or somep'n. A perfect use for the money, might we suggest, would be to spend it on a party for the kids who didn't cut. (Loey Preston's going to be one of the contributors to the fund. But it's worth it to have her here for four whole days.) . . . Happy Birthday
Here's another stayer-awayer note. Patty Blackmore couldn't gallop all the way home from North Cal'ina, where she's froshing it at Duke, for just one day.

Madman's Matinee
Bubble bubble, here we go 'round the mulberry bush . . . hop Scotch, hop Scotch . . . we all fell into the river. (HOORAY! Yip, of course poor Sophie is going crazy, trying to keep track of 'fall. But she's smart enough to cheer at this last (we hope) time. Y'know Charlie Zwick, whose smooth hand is a feature at the Michigan League? Why of course you do. Besides imitating all the huge-namers, he has a distinctive style all his own. 'N he has a swell Gleb Club, n'can whip up a floor show at a moment's notice. N'the handsman c'n play 32 different instruments, all good. . . . WELL . . . Charlie and the boys will be in town New Year's eve, when the De Molays hold their annual party at the Community House! Will THAT be a party? The lads are getting a professional decorator for it, besides Monsieur Swick, and there'll be screaming mobs of Beem's best. But the whole thing is, we understand, set in cheaper if bought in advance from any of the members of De Molay. And if that isn't true, blame Tony Freeman, general chairman, instead of Sophie.

PLANS TEA AND SALE
Mrs. L. N. Pyle will be hostess this afternoon in her home on Ewald avenue, at a tea and Christmas sale, for the benefit of the League of St. James' Women. St. James Episcopal church. The affair will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. . . . Presiding at the tea table, will be Mrs. George T. Hendrie, Mrs. Graham John Graham, Mrs. Frederick W. Boynton, Mrs. Norman Lyle, Mrs. Warner L. Forsyth and Mrs. J. J. Roura Jr.

MEN TOO--Will Be Dressing Up for the Holiday Week-End

NECKTIES 65c up
Beautiful, new patterns in attractive color combinations. Stripes, plaids, overall patterns and plain in silk and wools. Full cut and well tailored. Hundreds to select from.

SCARFS $1.00 up
Every man will want one of the new scarfs now being shown. Daring new plaids in soft warm wools with heavy fringes. Novelty scarves that will delight the eye and live up to the gait-dor appearance. Also silks in patterns and plain colors.

HOSE 39c up
New socks, just arrived, in cotton and wool mixtures. Striking color combinations in a wide variety of patterns. Also silk and cotton mixtures in plain colors. Hundreds to select from. Time to buy men's hosiery for Christmas.

GLOVES 79c up
Fine, warm woolly gloves for sport and street wear, in 655 patterns and leather combinations. Several styles from which to choose—all right up to the minute. Also a wide selection in leather gloves, lined and unlined, in soap, wrist and slip-on styles.

50 WASHINGS FAIL TO FAZE WONDER COLLAR
Shirts, you know, always wear out first at the collar. That is, all except Arrow New Trump. For this shirt has a new soft collar that is so well that—after being worn, washed and ironed fifty times on a verified test—it was still unfrayed, still neat as a pin. New Trump is Mitoga form-fit and Sanforized Shrunk (a new shirt free if one ever shrinks). $2

Fashion Tips

Colorful dresses are quite the thing these autumn afternoons under dark coats. Sequins on boleros and whole dresses of gold or silver lame are worn with contrasting velvet sashes. . . . One of the Parisian designers is showing evening gowns with matching gloves. . . . At the Horse Show, the first part of this month, white furs were favored. Ermine came first with white fox as a runner up. One hip line jacket of shaggy white skunk was most attractive. . . . There is a very sheer black hose being shown and also a deep red to the wrist with white or black daytime dresses. These hose are so sheer that the skin gives them a subtle indefinite color.

Pretty COTTONS in High Fashion Prints for Hours at Home

They have all the details that well made dresses should have, and are smart enough to save for a southern resort vacation! Women's and misses' sizes, of standard measurement.
