Rhea Ewald, their daughter, who is a freshman at Wellesley college, attended the Yale-Harvard football game at Cambridge, Mass., Saturday. She was the guest of William Sullivan, of Boston, who is a student at Harvard.

Richard Dick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Dick, of Wesley drive, and Harriet Babcock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving B. Babcock, of Lone Pine road, are two of the contingent of students at the University of Michigan who will return to Birmingham for Thanksgiving with their families.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Grindley, of Puritan road, have had as their house-guest for several days, Mrs. Grindley's sister, Mrs. C. Stiles Smith, of Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Smith arrived Saturday, and the party attended the Michigan-Ohio State football game.

Among the other residents of Birmingham who attended Saturday's game at Ann Arbor were Mr. and Mrs. Sidney A. Wells, of Moberg drive, and their weekend guests, Mary Kilbane and Carl Hauser, both of Cleveland, Ohio. Returning to Birmingham after their game, Mr. and Mrs. Wells took their guests to the Keno party at Forest Lake Country club.

Eleanor and Jim Allen, both students at Ann Arbor, will spend Thanksgiving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Allen, of West Maple avenue. Eleanor will have as her guests, two former classmates at Stephens College, in Mis-

St. Dunstons Guild Gives Light Touch To Whimsical Comedy By Sir James Barry

By Marjorie Elaine Porter. St. Dunstons Guild gave two very creditable performances of the Whimsical comedy, "Dear Brutus," by Sir James M. Barry, Friday and Saturday evenings in the auditorium at Cranbrook. There is a lady quality to many of Barry's plays that requires a light touch, delicate handling, and a sense of humor. "Dear Brutus" is one of these, half fact and half fancy, gay and wistful, with the author's philosophy woven into the plot with gossamer threads.

It was a delight to those attending, to note that none of the delicacy or charm which Barry endowed the play was lost in the Grand production. As a whole, the cast revealed a fine sense of artistic appreciation of the roles portrayed.

One of the more familiar scenes of the play is that in the second act between Dearth, the artist, played by John Mulock, and his shantied daughter, "Margaret," a part remarkably well done by Carl Mortimer of Kingswood School.

Her interpretation of the little girl was natural and winsome, and revealed considerable talent. Mr. Mulock as the artist, who seeks a "second chance" in the wood on mystic Midsummer Eve, was particularly appealing in this scene as a man who thwarted in life, finds happiness with his imaginary daughter.

Helena Eden, as Joanna Trout, captured new laurels, as a lady and overcome by sentiment at times as

Other local travelers in the east are Mr. and Mrs. Warren K. Lee, of Southfield road, who are in Philadelphia at present. On Thanksgiving day they will attend the Cornell-Penn. football game. Following their stay in Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. Lee will spend several days in New York, returning to Birmingham on Wednesday, Dec. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Thulin, of Hazelwood avenue, will spend Thanksgiving weekend with Mrs. Thulin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bradford Abram, of Jackson.

ANOTHER NEW DRESS FOR THE DANCE? Not at all—it's that darling chiffon gown dry cleaned the careful way so as not to lose one bit of its wicked-witchery that sets masculine hearts a-thumping. Clothes dry cleaned by us lose none of their original beauty. They stay clean longer, too, because less expensive fluids than ours leave an imperceptible film of oil, which gathers dust.

Hostesses May Give Thanks For Simple And Appropriate Holiday Menus

When you set your table for Thanksgiving be sure you have it in keeping with the spirit of the occasion, simple in both menu and decoration. Here are some recipes that will assist the hostess during this holiday season.

Thanksgiving Fruit Cocktail 2 Honey Dew melons. One 16 oz can grapefruit juice. 1 cup sweet cider. 1-2 cup confectioner's sugar. Red and green cherries.

Chicken With Almonds Blend 4 tablespoons shortening with 4 tablespoons milk, add 1-2 cup undiluted evaporated milk, 1 cup of chicken broth and salt and cayenne to taste. When thickened, add the chicken, cooked and cut up, between 2 and 3 cups, and heat thoroughly. Then add 1-3 cup of shredded, blanched almonds and 2 tablespoons Madeira wine. Serve at once.

Harvest Salad 3 cups shredded cabbage. 2 canned pineapples. 1 tablespoon minced onion. 1 green pepper. 3-4 cup grated carrot. Celery and mayonnaise. Cut the pineapple and green pepper into short thin strips and combine with the cabbage and the onion. Mix lightly with mayonnaise. Select tender, curved stalks of celery and fill with the carrots, mixed with mayonnaise. Then cut crossways in half-inch lengths. Arrange the cabbage mixture in nests of lettuce and garnish with the celery strips.

Thanksgiving Cake 2-4 pound butter. 7 eggs. 1 pound shelled pecans. 1 pound flour. 2 teaspoons baking powder. 1 teaspoon nutmeg. 1 cup rose water. 1-2 pound raisins. 1-2 pound citron. Cream sugar and butter, add eggs beaten separately and half of the flour; use other flour to dredge the fruit. Add baking powder, nuts, raisins and citron, which has been cut in thin pieces. Bake

Pumpkin Pie. 3 eggs. 1-2 teaspoon salt. 2-3 cup sugar. 1-2 cups milk. 1-2 cups cooked pumpkin. 1 teaspoon cinnamon. 1 teaspoon ginger. Beat the eggs lightly, add salt, sugar and beat again. Gradually add milk, cooked pumpkin, cinnamon and ginger. Add filling to crust. Cook for 10 minutes in oven 450 degrees, then reduce heat to 325 and cook for thirty minutes.

EXHIBITS AT ART SHOW

One of the exhibitors at the Michigan Artists Show, being held currently at the Detroit Art Museum, is Mrs. Harry Penrod, of Lansdown, Pennsylvania. Mrs. Penrod, who is the sister of Harry Allen, of Birmingham, was Mabel Allen before her marriage, and well known to local residents. Two of her pictures have been accepted for the show.

CANCEL TWO PROJECTS

Mrs. Julia K. Lally, Community House hostess, announced Monday that two of the House activities planned for the season have been discontinued due to lack of response. These are the women's class in rhythmic reducing, and the bridge tournaments, a popular feature of last year.

Dancer Opens New Studio

Miss Thompson, who also has studios in Detroit, has studied extensively in teaching and dance technique at the Bonnell School of the Dance, the Parley Quikranks school, in Chicago; the Albertina Rash studios in New York. She has also been a pupil of Madame Cassan, of St. Louis, who was formerly Pavlova's assistant for eight years.

Miss Thompson A new addition to the ranks of local dancing teachers is Miss Bertha Thompson, who will begin classes on Thursday, Dec. 2, at the Community House. Included in her courses will be ballet, toe, ballroom and tap classes for both children and adults. Stage dancing will also be featured. A special course will be given for women in weight correction and body freedom, relaxation and control.
