

Fraternity Arranges Holiday Dance

BIDS ARE OUT FOR A. O. BEGGAR'S BALL

'Yello and Volanda' Will Perform For Crowd At Playhouse

Another 'Beggars' Ball' will be sponsored by members of Alpha Omega fraternity, as their contribution to the festivities of the Thanksgiving week-end, and as a gesture to the collegians home on vacation. The party, which is open to the public, will be held Saturday, Nov. 27, at the Village Players playhouse, and dancing will start promptly at 9 p. m.

Invitations for the affair are definitely intriguing. After warning the would-be dancers to wear old clothes, they invite them to "Dance to corny music. Watch Yello and Volanda dance 'The Northern Spy,' or, in common talk, 'The Green Apple.'" And the information stops there, leaving the rest to one's imagination.

Norman Lyle, general chairman of the ball, is being assisted by a group of committee chairman, all of whom are said to be doing their best to make it a good party. These include Neil Stark, music, and Donny Matthews, hall.

A large proportion of the crowd expected to attend, has yet to return from college for the holidays. However, local members of the fraternity are signing up rapidly, the committee reports.

Charlie Dean's date will be Mary Anne Neff, and Dave McKinney will escort Betty Minor Forsyth. George Mullin will quire Dorothy Penning, and "Georgie" will attend with Mayfa Jean Gracy.

Donny Matthews has a date with Madeline Pease for the affair, and Duke Potere will escort sister Betty Ann Pease, while Charles Fiske is taking Betty Lee. There will be a large number of stages in the crowd also. To date, these have indicated their intention of coming: Neil Stark, Don Patterson, Bill Vinton, Cecil Morehouse, Bill Wall, Ed Watkins and Frank Savage.

Members of Alpha Omega and their guests will hold a hay-ride Friday night, at Devonshire Downs. Norman Lyle is general chairman of the affair, assisted by Dick Wenzel and Charles Dean.

Among those who plan to attend the affair are Norman Lyle and Betty Minor Forsyth, Ted Snyder and Dorothy Frussing, Neil Stark and Jerry Gracy, Don Patterson and Dorothy Trump, Charles Dean and Mary Ann Neff, Phil Pollock and Margaret Carey, Dick Wenzel and Fay Anderson, Bob Etter and Cabbie Walton, George Gorman and Shirley Busby, Bob Myers and Naley Jones and Donny Matthews and Madeline Pease. Bill Vinton will come stag.

Miss King Reveals Truth
News has been received of the engagement of Miss Elizabeth King, daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Everett King, to Albert Bartlett, son of Mrs. Frank James Summers, of Chicago. No date has been set for the wedding.

The announcement was made by Mr. and Mrs. A. Louis O'Connor, Miss King's uncle and aunt, with whom she makes her home. The O'Connors, whose home is in Bessemer, are former residents of Birmingham, where Miss King attended Baldwin high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Giffels, of Kennesaw avenue, will be guests at a family dinner Thursday. Their hosts will be Mr. Giffels' brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Giffels, of Royal Oak.

If you were a communist of course you wouldn't even consider the idea of worshipping God on Thanksgiving Day. For you there would be no God. Your only holiday interests would be football games, entertainment and food.

As a good Christian, however, you and your entire family with you should spend some time in church giving thanks. If you don't, Thanksgiving Day loses its entire significance.

GEORGE WILSON WEDS

Of widespread interest in Birmingham is the announcement made by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Francis, of Detroit, of the marriage of their daughter, Ruth, to George Wilson, son of Mrs. Mary S. Wilson, of East Frank street.

The nuptials were read at a quiet ceremony at three o'clock on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 20, in Chicago. Mrs. Parker Rockwell attended Miss Francis as matron of honor, and Mr. Rockwell was best man for Mr. Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will reside in Detroit, following a short trip.

Officers Chosen For New Holy Name P. T. A.

Mrs. Henry M. Foley, of Madison avenue, was elected and installed as first president of the Parent Teachers Association of the Holy Name school, at a meeting held at the Community House last Thursday night. Mrs. John Harvey Rosso presided at the newly-elected officials.

Others who will serve include: Leo Flynn, vice president; Mrs. Joseph A. Gere, secretary and Mrs. Edmund Mandfeld, treasurer. Mrs. Louis J. Giffels will act as publicity chairman; Mrs. J. R. Adams is historian; Mrs. Harry Keller heads the publications committee and Henry M. Foley is parliamentary.

Monday, Dec. 6, was selected as the date of the first meeting of the new group, which will be held at the Holy Name school, on Harmon avenue.

Evening Ensemble of Royal Purple

This rich, deep purple evening ensemble in heavy silk crepe is featured by Lucia Long. The skirt is cut on slim lines and the revers belong to the sleeveless bodice, which has low back decollete, thus transforming the model into a more formal gown when worn without the jacket. Metal discs, underlined with heavy silver thread embroidery, form the trimming.

ANNUAL DANCE IS WELL ATTENDED

Unusual Decorations Are Popular Feature Of Party

Decorations which transformed the Baldwin high school gymnasium and won praise from the large and enthusiastic crowd in attendance, were a feature of annual Football Dance, held Friday, Nov. 19. These decorations featured huge green, blue and white curtains, indirect lighting, and large pieces of football equipment, made of paper, in prominent places.

Miss Vida B. McGiffin and Anna Mary Adams greeted the guests at the dance, which honored the school's current football team. Team members were distinguished by wearing name cards in their buttonholes.

Phil Carey, captain of the team led the grand march, with Ann Louise Baldwin as his partner. Among the other members of the Maple Leaf squad and their guests who followed, were Frank McCarthy and Marilyn Prussing, Robert Bolton and Mayfa Jean Gracy, Glenn Hoover and Genevieve Gay, Ben Patterson and Dorothy Trump and Bob Etter and Katherine Walton. Jack Scovel, who was with Albee Botsford, arrived too late to parade with his team-mates.

Cochair George Wurster, with Mrs. Wurster, assisted Miss McGiffin in receiving the guests. The dance lasted until 12:30, instead of 12 p. m., as planned, due to the numerous request numbers asked of the orchestra. Organizers of the affair announce that it was one of the most successful of its kind.

O. E. S. TO INSTALL HEADS

The Birmingham branch of the Order of Eastern Stars will hold its public installation of officers Friday night, Nov. 26, at eight o'clock. This is the ceremony which was planned for Wednesday, Nov. 17, and which was postponed, due to the illness of Mrs. Sylvia B. Seaman. As originally scheduled, the ceremony will take place at the Masonic Temple.

P. T. A. ARRANGES PARTY

Mrs. W. Whiting Raymond is general chairman of the ken party which will be sponsored by the Quanton School Parent Teachers Association, Friday, Dec. 17. The affair, which will start at 8:30 p. m., will be given at the school.

Women's Union To Hold Christmas Tea

The next meeting of the Women's Union of the First Presbyterian Church will be held at the church at 2 p. m., Wednesday, Dec. 1. Mrs. Maude Hilly, president of the group, will preside over the business session.

This is the Union's annual Christmas program and tea. Members will bring gifts, which will be sent abroad. The program, which will be musical, is under the chairmanship of Mrs. Bessie McMechan.

Under the direction of Frederick A. Prothero, the Chorus of the Birmingham Musical will present a group of songs, with Mrs. Manley Tyson singing the solo parts. Following the Chorus, Miss Jean Potter will offer a group of selections on the violin.

Division No. Five, of the Union is sponsoring a food sale on the same afternoon, following the tea. The sale is under the direction of Mrs. M. D. Watts.

GIRL SCOUTS

Troop 3 of the Girl Scouts has invited three new members as Tenderfoot Scouts. They are Margaret Richey, Eleanor Penfield and Amy Roosevelt.

Troop 3 is also collecting canned goods for Thanksgiving baskets, which will be distributed through the Community House.
