

WE HEARD IT SAID BY— Carl A. Strand, of Adams road, "One of life's blessings is the out-of-doors. And in Michigan it is grand to get out into the woods and just walk around, viewing the scenery, drinking in the beauty of the autumn colors on the trees and shrubs."

Record Time By Carol Dwellley

Here are a couple of old ones, all trimmed up with new tricks. And it doesn't spoil 'em a bit, which proves that the Dorsey brothers are wise trimmers.

We firmly maintain that Bunny Berigan waxes better with every recording. He plays "Have You Ever Been in Heaven?" with grace and spirit, and Kid Reese, the vocalist, commands more respect than ever, too.

Connie Boswell, accompanied by Ben Pollack, is featured in "The Loveliness of You." We like both of them better on the improvised passages than on the straight, but no matter what, to us she'll always be first lady of the vocal chords.

A lad named Bert Shefter has recorded "Burglar's Revenge," with an octet. The novelty of this swing is pleasant enough to obliterate the pointless title.

To return to the "Favorite Bands" goody. It's a burlesque on the big shots, with a ridiculous vocal refrain. Anti-modernist, it will probably want it, if only because it so aptly pokes fun at Shep, Horace, Guy, Ray and the rest of our pals.
