

Club To Hold Cuban Fete with Fris and Food

OAKLAND HILLS TO STAGE CARNIVAL

'Night in Havana' Will Be Gay Event With Stalls And Midway

"A Night in Havana" is the name of the gay jamboree to be staged at Oakland Hills Country Club Saturday evening, when the clubhouse will be Cuban in a really big way.

There will be a midway with a wide variety of attractions, including games of chance for those with the urge to win a prize whether it be pitching rings or through some other form of skill. There will be fortune tellers for those curious about the future. Another novel feature will be a court, where "offenders" will be taken to pay fines for imaginary offenses. It will be all in the carnival spirit, even to the supper which will be a "stand-up" and-take-it meal, served at 8:30.

Those who wish to dine more leisurely and more formally may do so upstairs in the clubhouse, by making reservations beforehand.

The club held its final bridge breakfast and fashion show Tuesday, when about 250 women met to play bridge and watch the parade of fashions. Among those from Birmingham attending were Mrs. F. A. Acheson, Mrs. Thomas Skinner, Mrs. Gold Allen, Mrs. Joseph E. Dostal, Mrs. N. C. Foster, Mrs. J. F. Hollister, Mrs. Burton M. Pheasant, Mrs. Legler Paxton, Mrs. F. L. Sager, Mrs. H. S. Shelton, Mrs. M. M. Wise, and entertaining, jointly were Mrs. A. E. Thompson and Mrs. F. H. Rollins.

In one group playing together were Mrs. W. C. Sproull, Mrs. L. L. Collier, Mrs. Robert Mosby, Mrs. Malcolm W. Welby, Mrs. C. Hugh Whitelaw, and Mrs. J. C. Sproull of Morris, Ill.

Needlework Guild Announces Date For Ingathering Of Garments To Aid Needy

Mrs. Ferd Brock directs Plans As President For New Term

As president of the Birmingham branch of the Needlework Guild, Mrs. Ferd M. Brock is taking an active interest in plans for the annual Ingathering to be held Tuesday, Oct. 26 at the Community House.

Since 1922, when the local branch was organized, Birmingham has contributed generously in both garments and money gifts, according to Guild records. In 1936, Birmingham contributed 1,671 garments, of this number... were sent to food stricken areas in response to the call of the American Red Cross. With this single exception, the garments collected each year are distributed among the needy in Birmingham.

Membership in the Guild is open to all those willing to contribute 2 new garments. Members are divided into groups of ten under the supervision of a director, to whom they make their contributions. One member in each group may make a contribution of money, which is turned over to the Community House for the purchase of shoes for those in need.

Garments will be received at the Community House, during the morning, and will be placed on display during the afternoon. A feature of the Ingathering will be the annual luncheon for officers and directors, to be held at the House.

Officers elected a year ago with Mrs. Brock will serve for a term of two years. They are Mrs. E. W. Seaborn, first vice-president; Mrs. Carleton C. Patterson, second vice-president; Mrs. Lewis K. Marshall, third vice-president; Mrs. F. W. Sanders, fourth vice-president; Mrs. Marvin G. Kirk, secretary; Mrs. Harold A. Lauer, assistant secretary, and Mrs. Lawrence C. Howe, treasurer.

A. A. U. W. HEARS Rites Will Be Read In Cranbrook Church

Ohio Executive Addresses Local Branch On Aims And Ideals

Mrs. J. George Schauer of Dayton, O., was the guest speaker Wednesday, when the Birmingham branch of the American Association of University Women met at the home of Mrs. George R. Averill of Rensselaer road.

Mrs. Schauer, who is director for the Southwestern District of Ohio for the Parent Teacher Association, discussed the objectives and ideals of the Association. Mrs. William A. Shaver was in charge of arrangements for the tea which followed the program.

There is no greater movement today than that which has child welfare, and closer cooperation between home and school, as its objectives," Mrs. Schauer told the group.

The P. T. A. is concerned with the welfare of the child at home, in school, in the church and the community. It aims to bring home and school into closer understanding so that parent and teacher may work together intelligently in the training of the child.

Mrs. Schauer stressed the need for more extensive "parent education" in the understanding of the benefits to be derived from P. T. A. work. "It would be difficult to enumerate all the benefits to be derived from this activity," Mrs. Schauer explained. "For one thing, it has been able to negotiate in the most favorable to schools. The P. T. A. has been instrumental in bringing about safer conditions for school children. It has introduced radio, which has been active in promoting mental and social hygiene, child health and character education, and these are only a few of the benefits to be derived."

Mrs. Schauer discussed the progress P. T. A. is making in other cities, particularly Dayton, where there are 60 such groups at the present time. Mrs. Schauer concluded her address by reading the P. T. A. creed.

A regional meeting of the A. A. U. W. will be held at the Dearborn Inn, Oct. 23, when there will be an all-day session. Mrs. W. A. P. John is in charge of reservations.

Mrs. Fred D. Farrar, state president and Mrs. W. A. P. John, state secretary, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Jackson, of Detroit, addressed the Albion branch of the American Association of University Women Saturday, following a luncheon given by the group. This Saturday, Mrs. Farrar and Mrs. Mark Patten, accompanied by Mrs. Edward Durfee of Detroit, will motor to Muskegon, where they will be the luncheon guests of the Muskegon A. A. U. W., address the group on its program and then be guests at tea after the business meeting.

KITCHEN KORNER

By Sally Lunn

Dear You and You— For those family occasions like holidays and birthday anniversaries when both the eldest and youngest have to be considered, the cocktail problem presents difficulties.

For such gatherings the cup that cheers, should not be cheering beyond the point of dignified festivities. So what is to be a cocktail with clipped wings—that is one which would not inspire an undue to fly over the fence.

In this class comes the cranberry cocktail, a delectable and harmonious beverage made-to-order for the family party.

To make it, this is what you need: 2 cups cranberries, 2 cups water, 3 cloves, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 cup pineapple juice, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 crushed ice, Maraschino cherries.

Cook the cranberries in the water with the cloves until berries burst, or about 5 minutes. Strain through a sieve lined with wet cheesecloth. Add the sugar, and stir over low heat until the sugar is dissolved. Cool and add the pineapple juice and lemon juice. Pour over crushed ice in glasses. Garnish with sliced Maraschino cherries cut in circles.

As an appropriate canapé, cut bread in strips, spread with creamed butter and pimento pulp, cover with grated cheese and toast lightly.

To start the evening with cranberry cocktails and Hot Days res will make the young people feel that they are included in the festivities.

You may want to jot these recipes down to save for the holidays when the thronging people will come from college and the old people come up from the farm—get them all together and serve cranberry cocktails.
