CLUB IS SCENE OF NIGHT IN HAVANA

Guests From Birmingham Among Those Enjoying Cuban Fiesta

Members of Oakland Hills Country Club forgot their troubles and spent a joyful "Night in Havana" Saturday evening. The decorations were Spanish, and strolling troubadours added their touch of romantic music to the scene.

Guests "shopped" at the various booths, and entered merrily into the spirit of the affair. In charge of the booths were Mrs. Joseph A. Sweeney, Mrs. Fred H. Rollins, Mrs. W. A. Wibel, and Mrs. J. P. O'Hara. Mr. Sweeney was the winner of the grand prize of the evening, a radio.

The night court was an amusing feature with its numerous arrests and fines. Officers of the court were Mr. Sweeney and Bert Rogers, and Mr. O'Hara, president of the club, acted as judge. Harry Taylor acted as auctioneer for the various prizes.

Among those attending from Birmingham were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Jefferies, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Christon, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cookery, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Dostal, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bay, Mr. and Mrs. R. Mead, Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Euclid T. Smith, Mrs. Clyde Haefner, and others.

Missionary's Talk To Feature At Tea

The Women's Union of the First Presbyterian church will convene at the church, Wednesday, October 27, at 2 p. m., for the regular monthly meeting. Mrs. Maud Hilly will preside. After the business meeting, the group will hear Mrs. William Lyons, missionary on furlough in the United States, who will relate some of her experiences in Taiku, Korea. Mrs. E. S. Clark, devotional chairman of the day, will also speak. Her theme will be "One Hundred Years of Progress."

Division Six, whose general chairman is Mrs. F. N. Pattison, is sponsoring a food sale in the church on the same afternoon.

Alpha Chi Alumnae To Meet For Dinner

The Birmingham Alumnae Club of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority will meet Friday evening for dinner at 6:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. F. L. Coe of Worth street.

Of particular interest to the group is the appointment of Mrs. Thomas H. Adams of Puritan road as National Counselor. Mrs. Adams returned Monday from New York City, where she attended the National Council Meeting held during the past week. Mrs. Adams received her appointment from the Council president. As counselor, she belongs to the National Council composed of seven members.

VOWS SPOKEN AT HOME CEREMONY

Marion Dahlquist Becomes Bride At Pretty Autumn Rites

At a lovely candle-light ceremony Saturday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dahlquist of Henrietta street, Marion Elizabeth Dahlquist became the bride of Robert Edgar Bunyan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bunyan of West Brown street. Dr. John Edward Martin, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church read the marriage service before 80 relatives and close friends.

For the ceremony, the rooms were decorated with disposals of white and pale yellow chrysanthemums. The bride wore a gown of ivory lace over satin, fashioned on simple princess lines. Her fingertip veil of ivory tulle fell from a coronet of beaded satin. She carried a bouquet of white roses and baby chrysanthemums. Miss Annabel Dahlquist was her sister's only attendant. Her gown was of aqua marine taffeta with accents of Dubonnet velvet, and her bouquet, bronze chrysanthemums. Clarence Wedge of Royal Oak attended Mr. Bunyan's best man. Mrs. Dahlquist, chose for her daughter's wedding, a gown of thistle lace, with which she wore a corsage of yellow gladioli and roses. Mrs. Bunyan's gown was of wine crepe, and her flowers, yellow roses.

An informal reception followed the ceremony. After a wedding trip to New York, Mr. and Mrs. Bunyan will make their home at 876 Stanley avenue.

Harvest Home Dinner To Be Given At M. E. Church

Mrs. H. C. Murray is general chairman of the annual Harvest Home supper to be given Thursday, Oct. 28, at the M. E. church by Mrs. E. L. Birthing's group of the Women's Society.

Assisting Mrs. Murray on the committee will be Mrs. Frank A. Alabouse, Mrs. William F. Henkel, Mrs. Joseph R. Dalley, Mrs. Norman Porter, Mrs. H. R. Nickerson and Mrs. Joseph Green. In charge of decorations will be Mrs. Daniel Swartz and Mrs. Roy E. Smith. Mrs. Birthing is in charge of reservations for the dinner, to which the public is invited.

DR. ROEHM WILL ADDRESS PARENTS

Needs Of "Teen Age" To Be Discussed By Group

"The Physical Needs of the Teen-Age Student" is the theme chosen by Dr. Harry E. Roehm, when he addresses the first meeting of the Parent Education Study Club, inaugurated by the Baldwin high school Parent Teachers Association. The meeting will be held tonight, at 8, in room 101 at the school, and William J. Watson will introduce the speaker.

A spokesman for the group's program committee stated that Dr. Roehm was best known locally for his work with small children, particularly those who are crippled. He is in charge of the pediatric clinic at St. Joseph's Mercy hospital, in Pontiac, run for the children of indigent parents.

A past president of the Oakland County Society for Crippled Children, Dr. Roehm has achieved signal recognition in his field. He is a Fellow in the Academy of Pediatrics and the American College of Physicians, and is licensed by the American Board of Pediatrics.

The purpose of these study club meetings, according to a statement issued by a P. T. A. head, is to arouse an active interest in the welfare of youth, by means of regular, stating and enlarging upon our information about the physical, emotional and social development of these future citizens. This meeting is open to the general public, and should prove of special interest to parents of teen-age children. There will be a period for asking questions after the talk. There is no charge for admission.

Mrs. Arthur Peck is chairman of the Drama Club, assisted by a committee, which consists of Mrs. LeRoy Braisted, Mrs. Max Horton, Mrs. Fred Gilre, Mrs. Ford Peabody, Mrs. E. C. Erickson and Mrs. Angus D. McLay.

Methodist Appoint Heads For New Drama Guild

Dramatics is taking Birmingham by storm, if the formation this season of an unusual number of dramatic societies is any indication. One of the most interesting of these is the Dramatic Guild of the Methodist Church, which met recently to fill positions from among its members.

The Executive Committee will contain the following heads: Patrons, Rev. and Mrs. John E. Martin; Director, Mrs. Verol Kline; Stage Manager, Paul Dutton; Prompter, Mrs. Fred Hopkins; Business Manager, Shanley Rosso; Secretary, Harry Hrablitz; Advertising Agent, Fred Hopkins; Art Director, Ray Detmers and House Manager, Jack Carnahan.

Rehearsals for the Guild's initial play will start immediately on the completion of the cast. It is planned to present the play some time during the winter months.

Mrs. Joseph L. Hardig of Kennewas road entertained her badminton Tuesday at luncheon, including Mrs. H. B. Hatch, Mrs. W. G. Lewellen, Mrs. S. A. Stolberg, Mrs. J. D. Rule, Mrs. Donald Bay, Mrs. Euclid T. Smith, Mrs. R. K. White and Mrs. W. E. Holler.
