Bits Of News Gleaned From Old Files Of The Eccentric—The Items That Make Up The Historical Background Of The Birmingham Of Today

Fifty Years Ago

Looks as if the pennant would wave over Recreation Park this time, our base ball fans. Birmingham and Wood County Orion and return on Sunday last and a four mile trip of their annual home, in what Gibbs and Whitehead did on their bicycles—a little over 40 miles.

A little sprinkle of rain on Sunday last caused many people to postpone their trips of pleasure, which Sunday afternoon is largely devoted to in this anguilo setting.

Cyrus Jarvis has obtained a permanent position at the Military Academy along with F. W. Sherman and Walk Allen, and with every promise of success. We wish our Birmingham colony there all the luck in the world.

The new clerk in the postoffice at Royal Oak horrified Louis Storz almost to death when a dudish stranger inquired of the n. c. "Ah they're chappie, have you any 'aw'-nice imported cigars?" N. C. "Not now but we shall have in about an hour, just as soon as the printer around the corner can print the labels."

Twenty-five Years Ago

School is closed this day for the benefit of the children—the state fair.

Why are the trains late? Takes time to a good one to sell millinery.

The man who thinks parties will be pleased at the good one to sell millinery.

Shattuck and Miss Baldwin are building a house on Bonny-brier avenue. It was rented, before the cellar was finished.

If it is true that Roosevelt has a better chance to win than Taft, Wilson might just as well commence now on his inaugural address and selecting his cabinet. It is all over now but the counting.

No one of the candidates was born in a log cabin, or read, when a boy, by the light of a pine knot. None had snow shovels on them through the cracks or even split rails. Today even split a wild cat and drowned out a goosher.

George Johnson brought to this office the most beautiful bunch of red Siberian trap apples on a limb small in circumference, with more than a peck of the finest ever. These were raised by George himself, and go to show what Troy can do.

Harvey W. Hedding goes about on crutches now, after turning his foot bottom-side-up. Very painful and not at all profitable, says he.

The reason W. E. Murchie is limping around so painfully is that during a recent ball game, one of the players and one of the men working got mad. Murchie tried to separate them and got hurt. No arrows.

Five Years Ago

Schools will open Monday on 1932-33 term; increase in student census shows a forecast of happy enrollment; classes open Tuesday.

Record vote cast in bills; Allen, Jackson, Hargreaves, Bitter and James are elected. Charter approved.

Commission opens zoning law study; will scan proposals, ordinance in detail before calling public hearings.

Moral law must precede progress.

Recounts expected as returns tighten primary contests. Record vote cast in Bloomfield and Troy; Brucker favored here. Greenman, Sparks and Allen win; Orr defeat Smith.

Harver program lists postoffice. New Federal building here included in President's two-hundred million dollar relief measure.

Charter Commission will meet tonight to draft Birmingham's new city charter.

CONTEST EMPLOYEES 900

New York.—The puzzle contest being conducted by F. Lorillard & Co., manufacturers of Old Gold cigarettes, is giving employment to a staff of nearly 900 men and women, who sort the replies and file them. A whole floor of an office building is necessary to accommodate the workers.

Fireman—How long does it take you to get dressed in the morning?

Seaman—Oh, about twenty minutes.

Fireman—Why, it only takes me ten.

Seaman—Well, I wash.
