'400' TICKETS OUT FOR FASHION SHOW

Birmingham Women To Appear As Models In Parade Of Fall Styles

Are you one of the "Four Hundred"—one of the four hundred people buying tickets to the fashion show sponsored by the League of St. James' Women to be held Wednesday, Sept. 29, at the Community House? Because it's going to be quite an affair, it seems, with some of the League's most attractive members modeling equally attractive frocks and costumes. The fashion parade begins at 8:15 p. m.—husbands are not only invited but welcome.

Mrs. George Howard Fox is general chairman of arrangements, and assisting her are Mrs. L. N. Pyle, Mrs. Warren Passon, and Mrs. S. Hastreiter. Mrs. James E. Bullock is in charge of arrangements for the supper following the show. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Bruce Van Dusen, Mrs. John H. Gordon, and Mrs. E. E. Kearns. Those modeling will include Mrs. Harold Thompson, Mrs. Graham John Graham, Mrs. W. A. P. John, Mrs. Charles Barr Field and Mrs. Robert F. Wall.

Parties Before And After
Appearing as models of the various costumes to be shown, will be Mrs. Harold A. Dick, Mrs. John F. Reeder, Mrs. C. E. Pardee, Miss Sally Baker, Mrs. Stewart J. Bell, Miss Carol Dweilley, Mrs. Warner L. Forsyth, Mrs. Edward S. McCombe, Mrs. Thomas B. Klamm, Miss Katherine Mann, Mrs. Sherman LeMeasure and Mrs. E. Price Kimberly of Grosse Pointe, formerly of Birmingham.

It's going to be quite a festive occasion with parties before and after. There are many such plans in the formative stage. Among the first to plan an informal dinner before the show are Mrs. L. N. Pyle of Euclid avenue, who have invited Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Quinn of Franklin Village, and the Rev. and Mrs. Warner L. Forsyth of Winbleton drive to be their guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Pardee of Dorchester road have asked Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Matthews of Dearborn to dine with them. Meeting at their home afterwards to attend the show with them, will be Mr. and Mrs. Ward James of Detroit, and from Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sage, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Gould, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Hastreiter, and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Passon, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Sage will be hosts at an informal buffet supper for 12 guests at their home on Dorchester road after the Fashion Show.

Needs of Junior High to be Theme for Discussion by Jury Panel

Mrs. Marlay, As President Will Direct Activities For Year

The Parent Teacher Association of Quanton School will begin this season with a well planned program, to start auspiciously Monday, Oct. 4, with a dinner meeting at the Community House at 7 p. m. Mrs. J. B. Marlay is the new president, who will direct the year's activities.

A particularly interesting phase of the opening meeting will be the jury panel discussion on "A Building Program for Junior High Needs." Dr. Stuart A. Courts, professor of education of the University of Michigan, will conduct the discussion. Other members of the panel are now under consideration.

Mrs. H. S. Burlingame of Linden road will be in charge of dinner arrangements, and reservations for the dinner may be made through Mrs. Arthur L. Genung of Fairly road.

Executive Staff
Officers serving this year with Mrs. Marlay include L. M. Parr, father vice-president; Mrs. Genung, mother vice-president; Mrs. Roy McCutcheon, secretary; Mrs. William S. Spiegel, treasurer; Mrs. Stanley Spiegel, historian; Miss Magdelene Frederick, and Mrs. LeReida Forest will represent the teachers on the board.

Special committees were recently appointed by Mrs. Marlay to take over various departments of the year's work. Mrs. William E. Esery heads the program committee, assisted by Mrs. Alan W. Joyn and Thomas H. Adams.

Mrs. Genung is the new chairman of the membership committee, which includes also Mrs. Clare H. Williams, Mrs. William E. Nichols, Mrs. Lee E. Joslyn, Jr., Mrs. George D. Miller, Mrs. George B. Finch, Mrs. Donald G. Eado, Mrs. D. W. Crim, Mrs. Frederick E. Booth, Mrs. Milton E. Chandler, Mrs. D. W. Russell, Mrs. John E. Bloomstom, and Mrs. Kenneth McDonald.

Hospitality Committee
Mrs. Stanley Spiegel is chairman of the Hospitality Committee.

Mrs. Marlay

man of publicity, assisted by Mrs. Wallace Dodds, Mrs. William Lloyd Kemp is chairman of public relations. On the hospitality committee are Mrs. Paul B. Hoffman, chairman, Mrs. C. F. Dye, Mrs. J. Robert Mosby and Mrs. Farquhar. Mr. Farr is chairman of ways and means.

One of the largest committees is that composed of room mothers, who will cooperate with the executive board in relation to their respective rooms. They are Mrs. D. G. Nothner, chairman; Mrs. R. W. Thomas, Mrs. M. E. Fossekemper, Mrs. Russell Barnes, Mrs. Charles C. Hood, Mrs. Harry S. Nichols, Mrs. Lee E. Joslyn, Jr., Mrs. George D. Miller, Mrs. George B. Finch, Mrs. Donald G. Eado, Mrs. D. W. Crim, Mrs. Frederick E. Booth, Mrs. Milton E. Chandler, Mrs. D. W. Russell, Mrs. John E. Bloomstom, and Mrs. Kenneth McDonald.

GUILD ANNOUNCES FALL PROGRAMS

3-One-Act Plays In October Followed By 'Dear Brutus' In November

After the summer holiday, St. Dunstan's Guild members are going into action with their customary enthusiasm. The first performance of the year will be given Oct. 29, when three one-act plays will be presented. Percival Wild's "Out of the Mouths" is the first of these, and the other two are "The Man in the Bowler Hat" by A. A. Milne, and "Poor Aubrey" by George Kelly.

For the November meeting, the Guild has chosen J. M. Barrie's "Dear Brutus," which will be given two performances on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 19 and 20.

Harry D. Hoey will head the Guild as president this season, with Mrs. F. M. Edin as vice-president, Mrs. C. Theron Van Dusen, secretary and H. Kenneth Bingham, treasurer. The two other members of the board are Mrs. Ferd M. Brook and Mrs. Ronald Ballantyne.

The committee roster presents an array of names that augurs well for the approaching season. Mrs. Ferd M. Brook is chairman of the play-reading committee. J. Robert F. Swanson will be in charge of sets. "Pat" Eden will direct the casting of the various plays. Mrs. Swanson is chairman of the costume committee. Miss Rosamayne Thompson will have charge of publicity.

The stage crew committee will be directed by Theron Van Dusen. Mrs. Sheldon R. Noble will be in charge of make-up. J. Robert F. Grindley is slated to manage production, and Richard P. Rasmussen will be in charge of lighting.

Alumnae Hosts To Scholarship Group

Three Freshmen and three upper-classmen, all at women of the Regents' Scholarship from Birmingham, were guests of the Michigan League Monday at a welcoming luncheon for scholarship students held in Ann Arbor at the Michigan Union.

The three Freshmen were awarded scholarships to enter the University this year, and are Jean Baker, Victoria Gellatly and Ruth Seager. The upper classmen include Elizabeth Watt, Sophomore; Roberta Chisus, Junior, and Henry Foley, Senior, all winners of the Regents' Scholarship.

The two sponsors from the local unit to attend the luncheon were Mrs. Loren T. Ross and Mrs. Lewis B. Sappington. Later men students were entertained at a coffee hour at the Union, and the women were guests of the alumnae at tea in the League.

Barnum P. T. A. Plan Meeting To Discuss County Fair

The Barnum School Parent-Teacher Association will hold its first meeting of the season Friday afternoon, Oct. 7, at 3 p. m. Plans for the organization's annual County Fair, of which this year's fair will be held Thursday afternoon and evening, Nov. 5, at the school building, will be discussed.

Mrs. George F. Grenzbach of Wallace street, as chairman of the Ways and Means committee, has suggested that members of the organization organize sewing groups to work for the fair.
