BACK FENCING

Since last week, when we ran some Pet Peeves of some of the local folks, we have heard a lot of others. The main issue, it seems, is concerning automobile drivers.

Although we did not see the football game which our High School lads played last Friday, we have been told by several, some of whom really know their football...

Bob Allen is quite the golfer when the chips are on the table, as they say in golf. Last week Friday he went out to Orchard Lake Country Club and swamped Bud Morrow and Jack Nash...

At the testimonial dinner after last Saturday's golf match, held by the Presbyterian men folks, (it really did develop into just that due to the fact that someone who spoke—and those who did not—wished to proclaim the fine qualities of the departing party) Clarence Wright was heard to say that he thought he would have to arrange to LEAVE some church about every month if his present leaving was a criterion of the generosity of the congregation about to be left.

Miss Clara Krueger, who opened the new Cheer Shop in the Theater Building last week, found the local shoppers very delightful and very much in the buying mood, she stated.

Bob Emmett, one of Birmingham's mounted traffic officers, seems to have a very diplomatic way in handling out-of-towners who violate the local traffic laws.

Local Rotarians, most of whom are thought of as being pretty well set in life, seem to still possess the desire to know more about themselves—kind of checking up on themselves, as it were.

Which makes us think... perhaps your old Back Fencer had better get back on HIS job, or some Rotarian with a birthday in October might look into the crystal and decide that our job is just the one he should be holding down.
