LIONS TO MARK CHARTER NIGHT AT GALA FETE

The glamour of a floor show, dinner served cabaret style and a party will make the tenth annual Charter Night of the Birmingham Lions Club a noteworthy affair for local Lions. The affair will be held at the Community House at eight-thirty on the evening of Wednesday, April 27.

Members of the Club will be permitted to bring guests, and invitations have also been sent to representatives from other Lions Clubs in the Detroit area. Honor guests will be District Secretary Arthur Maxwell and Mrs. Maxwell of Detroit. The affair is being arranged by three Lions, Dr. J. L. McNaughton, Dr. J. Paul McKelvie and Jack E. Nash.

The floor show will be presented during the dinner hour. Dancing, both adagio and foliagate, and dancing style will be offered by a Detroit team. Also from Detroit will come a feminine accordion player and singer. She will lead community singing for the group as well. Thelma Bowdoin will be District Secretary. Detroit radio stations, will sing several songs, playing her own accompaniment on the piano.

Tables will be arranged about the edge of the dance floor in cabaret style, large checked tablecloths. Illumination will come from candles, stuck in bottles and placed in the holders. Potted geraniums will serve the double purpose of being novel table decorations and also as gifts. The night club motif will be carried out in the soft-drink booth, erected in one of the rooms adjoining the ball room.

Baldwin PTA Asks Rummage For Sale

Members of the Baldwin high school Parent Teacher Association are issuing a final request for contributions for the rummage sale which they will sponsor on Friday and Saturday, April 29 and 30, at the Boy's saleroom, 501 South Woodward avenue. The articles most needed at present are books for the household, such as bed, dining, curtains and dishes. Clothing is also in great demand.

Mrs. W. A. Shaver, general chairman of the sale, is being assisted by Mrs. Edwin S. Snyder, Mrs. Roy Smith, Mrs. Peggy Parkyn, Mrs. Victor Ogden, Mrs. Andrew Watson, Mrs. W. D. Denney, Mrs. George Greenmank, Mrs. W. D. Crim, Mrs. Nicholas Martin and Mrs. Harry Basset. If prospective donors are unable to deliver their articles, Mrs. Shaver requests that they call any member of the committee, who will be glad to call for donations.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin M. Mulock Jr. of 415 Henrietta street, are expecting congratulatory calls on the birth of a son, Edwin M. Mulock III, on Thursday, April 14. Mrs. Mulock is the former Harriet Knight.

Pythian Official Will Be Honored By Group Here

Mrs. Anna Lewis of Hillsdale, Grand Chief of Michigan, will be the honor guest of the Birmingham chapter of Pythian Sisters on Monday, April 25, when she makes her official visit. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Mildred Hayes of Bay City, district deputy for District 13, of which the local unit is a part.

A pot-luck supper, to be held at the Pythian Hall at 8:30 Monday evening, will precede the regular meeting of the group and honor the visitors. Mrs. Lewis will conduct a school of instruction at the meeting, following the initiation of new members.

GIRL SCOUTS

A group of five girls who are working for the Hostess badge enlisted Troop 41 at its recent meeting with a delightful Easter party. A number of games were played and refreshments were served.
