The love of make-believe that never quite disappears in any of us may be fully gratified on Saturday when the Players' Group of the Detroit Junior League brings "The Wizard of Oz" to Birmingham. Sponsored by the local Parent Teacher Associations and presented entirely by Junior League talent, the beloved childhood classic will be staged at Baldwin high school at 1:30 p.m. the afternoon of Saturday, April 30.

In the order of their appearance, the cast reads: "Dorothy," Mrs. West Gallogly; "Toto" (who is a dog, in case you've forgotten), Mrs. Coman Munroe; "Scarecrow" (the role made famous by Fred Stone), Mrs. Don Woodruff; "Cowardly Lion," Miss Mary Holland; "Witch of the North," Mrs. Jennesa Newcomb; "Glinda the Good," Mrs. Robert Hartwick; "Guardian of the Gates," Mrs. Cameron Waterman III; "Flora," Miss Marie Joy Ganger; "Witch of the West," Mrs. Don Buell; "The Tin Woodman," Mrs. Karl Muehler; "The Wizard of Oz," Mrs. Mary Lou Anderson; "Munchkins," Miss Mammette Pierce, Miss Susan Odell, Miss Edith Jane Scotten and Mrs. Ingersoll Lewis.

BENEFIT AFFAIR ENLISTS AID OF LOCAL MATRONS

Birmingham's Recreation Commission is living up to its name by inviting the whole town to a bridge party, which will benefit both the Commission and those who contribute to its support. The affair will be held at the Community House at eight o'clock on the evening of Tuesday, May 3. All proceeds will be turned over to the Commission for use in its work this summer.

The party is sponsored by the local Parent Teacher Association Council, and represents the Council's united effort to realize its endowment pledge to the Commission. Representatives from every school in the city are working on arrangements, under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Thomas R. Navin. Mrs. Thomas A. Nalle heads the workers from Quanton school; Mrs. Herbert H. Gardner from Baldwin high school; W. F. Thomas, Adams school; Mrs. Jack Boomer, Pierce school and Mrs. E. A. Langwith, Barnum school.

Mrs. Gardner's additional duties include chairmanship of recreational work in the high school and also chairmanship of the mothers' calling committee, organized in conjunction with the party.

An extensive list of local matrons is serving on the calling committee. It includes the names of Mrs. Clarence E. Rotford, Mrs. W. D. Crim, Mrs. John H. Gordon, Mrs. John B. Williams, Mrs. W. H. ## PROCLAMATION

"Cancer being the cause of untold misery and wanton destruction of human life and happiness, deserving the consideration of every healthy man and woman in the country as a preventive measure. Education will spread knowledge, which will indicate when cancer is present, thereby making it possible to attack the problem early enough to solve it satisfactorily, and cure many who will otherwise needlessly suffer or perish. Therefore, to promote a better understanding of cancer I designate Saturday, April 30 as Cancer Education Day, and urge citizens of this community to generously contribute to the financial support of this educational program.

Boxes will be on many street corners all day Saturday, and everyone is urged to do his or her part."—John E. Martin, Mayor

MUSICALE HEAD IS DELEGATE TO STATE MEETING

Mrs. Earl G. Potter, president of the Birmingham Musicale, is the official delegate of the organization to the 22nd annual convention of the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs, being currently held in Bay City. Mrs. Potter left Birmingham in time for the Wednesday sessions of the convention and will remain until Saturday, April 30, as will Mrs. D. L. Tate and Mrs. H. H. Gardner, who accompanied her.

Other members of the Musicale plan to attend one or more sessions throughout the week. The Musical Art Club of Bay City is acting as the hostess group.

Among the items on the ambitious program are included: the Federation Banquet, Wednesday night, followed by a piano recital by Maurice Duaneau, a French pianist; a concert Thursday evening by Marion Anderson, widely-acclaimed negro contralto; and piano and voice conferences on Friday, under the direction of Mrs. Lucile C. Jolly, state chairman of education.

Due to the convention, the meeting of the Birmingham Musicale for this week has been postponed. On Friday, May 13, the group will sponsor a program designed especially for high school students; the help ensemble of Case Technical high school, under the direction of Miss Carol Knies. Mrs. Norman Lyle will serve as general chairman of the meeting, with further details to be announced later.

Fashion Tips

Scarfs are again important because of the many collared coats. Vivid blues, greens and yellows are flattering next to the face when wearing a dark suit.

Handkerchiefs are important also. Previous designs of linen are quite smart and a lady handkerchief worn with a lady jacket gives that something to a suit.

For the crinoline dress the most satisfactory wrap is a short cape. One Parisian house uses the triangular shawl.

BITS OF B'HAM

A very life-like painting of the late Senator James Couzens was hung in the main banking room of the Wabash Bank here Tuesday morning by George Judson, president. The painting, four by five feet in size, was executed by the well-known firm of Harris & Ewing, famous Washington, D. C., photographers and artists. The painting was done over the arrangement of the Senator's favorite photograph, and is in color. It is the finest likeness of the Senator that we have ever seen," stated Mr. Judson. "The Couzens family and all the Senator's friends agree that this painting fairly lives as it looks out from the heavy gold-colored frame that contains it."

The very breath of summer is in this fragile, white-bordered, organic evening gown, meant for nights of enchantment, its youthful, breathless lines are emphasized by the black faulle ribbon threaded through the gathered band which finishes the strapless decollete. Further enchantment lies in the bow with floating ends.
