

Lions Club And Guests Mark Charter Night At Traditional Dinner Dance

TRIANGLES TO SQUARE DANCE AT PTA AFFAIR

The Triangle Club will attend the Birmingham dinner dance Friday evening by the Franklin Village Parent Teacher Association, in a body. Members will gather at eight o'clock at the Community House, and go out to Franklin together. Transportation for those who wish it will be available. Attendance will be generally a "stage" affair, with tickets reserved by both men and women. A partial list of those who will attend includes the names of George Flower, John Hunt, Charles Bon-ton, Chester Hunt, David Fierke, Dale Wetzell, Ray Sacher, Erin Andrews, Elise Taylor, Barbara Farr, George Ann McLaugh, Kay Neider, Betty Dupuis, Harriet Bradford, Barbara Stecker, Joy Stewart, Julie Preston, Alice Savage and Hester Giles. Triangle members will hold their next weekly gathering on Sunday evening May 8. At this time they will attend the Ford Sunday Evening Hour. A large supply of tickets has been secured for the occasion, but those who wish to attend are advised to reserve places early, according to Fred Johnson and George Flower, since it will be strictly a case of "first come, first served."

GUILD AND LEAGUE TO ATTEND PROGRAM

The monthly meeting of St. Margaret's Guild and the League of St. James Women will be held at the church parlors on Tuesday, May 2. Plans call for a luncheon and program. Miss Elizabeth Thomas, director of religious education for the Diocese of Michigan, will address the groups of women's work throughout the Diocese. Mrs. L. M. Baker is program chairman. The luncheon, which will be held at one o'clock preceding the address, is under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Arthur Wragby. Mrs. Wragby is being assisted by Mrs. Peter K. Boyne, Mrs. Percy W. Guest and Mrs. A. Fletcher Plant.

HOLY NAME PTA WILL INVITE PUBLIC TO TALK

The general public is invited to attend the regular meeting of the Holy Name school Parent Teacher Association, to be held at eight o'clock this evening at the Community House. A complimentary lecture will be presented. Dr. George A. Sherman of the Oakland County Tuberculosis Hospital will appear as the principal speaker, and will accompany his talk with motion pictures. He will explain various details of his work and list some of the more recent scientific advances in the field.

My new Gas Range dresses up the whole kitchen!

And its modern features make it—

- QUICKER New smokeless broilers cut broiling time in half. Ovens pre-heat twice as fast as formerly. Top burners give instant high heat and offer a flexibility not found in any other type of range.
- EASIER No need now to keep peeking into the oven—heat control gives you the exact oven temperature your recipe calls for. Many new ranges have clock control, which turns the oven on and off for you.
- CLEANER Modern gas ranges are as easy to keep clean as a china plate. Oven and broiler compartments are porcelain enamel lined. New top burners never clog and are easy to keep spark and span. The clean blue flame never blackens pots and pans—forgas is clean heat!

See the handsome new gas ranges at our show-rooms. You'll fall in love with their beauty—be delighted at their surprisingly low cost.

MANY ARE HOSTS AT GATHERINGS PRECEDING FETE

Not content with the already festive plans for their annual chapter night dinner dance, many members of the Birmingham Lions Club were hosts at informal gatherings before the affair, held Wednesday evening at the Community House. Others brought guests from outside the Club. Dinner was served night club style at tables for eight, placed about the edge of the dance floor. A variety floor show and dancing completed the entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Green of Hawthorne road attended the affair with Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Russell as their guests. Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Higbie of Stanley street invited Dr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Wilson to the party. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Binkell attended with Mr. and Mrs. Russell McBride of Fairview drive. From Detroit came Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Murray to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Terry of West Frank street.

A group which met at the home of Mrs. Arthur Wragby, director of Chester street included Mr. and Mrs. Sherman LaMear, Mr. and Mrs. J. Paul McConkie, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell E. Olmsted, Mr. and Mrs. G. Lester Sells, also of Chester street, entertained a particularly festive group before the regular party, for the occasion marked an informal house-warming of their new home. Their guest list included the names of Dr. and Mrs. J. Paul McConkie, Mr. and Mrs. Clare Scriven, Mr. and Mrs. William Atkins, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Waller of Rosedale Park, Miss Catherine MacDougal, Clarence W. Henman and Arthur N. Wingen.

Among the others who attended the party were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stone Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Hil-ton B. Berr, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson C. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Howard D. Crull, Mr. and Mrs. Heber F. Gahn, Mr. and Mrs. Yernon W. Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence G. Heimlicher, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin E. Hollas, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Morrow, James Kelly, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. McNaughton, Jack E. Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Raychel, Mr. and Mrs. J. Leigh Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Smith, Mr. and Mrs. William Spence, Mr. and Mrs. Dorval Symons, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Magr, Mr. and Mrs. John Springman, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hallock, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Szwajcne and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mills.

Mrs. Arthur Des Rosiers of Franklin Village will entertain a group of her friends Friday afternoon at a tea and musicale. Her guest list includes the names of Mrs. Eugene A. Murphy, Mrs. J. Jennings Morse, Mrs. J. Oliver Horn, Mrs. Robert N. Wooloff, Mrs. Truman F. Campbell and Mrs. Edward B. Housal.

Mrs. J. Paul McConkie and her sons, Richard and Donald, of Larches drive, have returned to their home after a ten-day motor trip through Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee. They were accompanied on the journey by Mrs. McConkie's sister, Mrs. C. B. Moore of Ferndale.

Entertains Poets

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Hurd of Vinetta Blvd., Royal Oak, opened their home Saturday evening to 150 poets, from all parts of the state. Mrs. Hurd, who is president of the Poetry Society of Michigan, gave the reception to introduce the officers and advisory board of the Society.

In the receiving line were: Mrs. Hurd, Prof. Robert Wood Clark, Clifford Allen, David Innes, Mrs. Eva Woodbridge Victor, Mrs. Jessie Wilmore Murton, Dr. John William Scholl, Mrs. Ida E. Gurnell, Mrs. Marjorie Nixon, Mrs. J. D. O'Callaghan, Mrs. Emma C. Tolonen, and Robert Bham Campbell.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. David Innes, Mrs. Ida E. Curwell, Miss Louise Horton, and Miss Betty Mitchell.

Table decorations consisted of a large centerpiece of snapdragons, flanked by white tapers on a Florentine cloth.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Hurd, Mrs. J. W. Greer, Miss Betty Barton, Alfred Greer, Miss Marion H. Miller, Ray Ayres, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Paulson, Mr. and Mrs. James Ellman, Joseph Kempe, and others.

ENTRY LIST FOR HOBBY SHOW IS LONG AND VARIED

Alice in Wonderland would certainly exclaim "Curious and certainly" if she could see the fast-growing list of entries for the Hobby Show to be sponsored by the Detroit Association this evening. Mrs. Raymond D. Gage and Miles W. Gage, chairman of the affair, invite the whole town to compare and see the displays, in the name of the Detroit Association of Hobbyists.

The list of exhibitors is so long, and the various hobbies so unique, a marked by the collection of the loan exhibit of Mrs. George T. Hendrie, Ray, and Mrs. Gail Fairchild. Mrs. Hendrie will display her collection of Chinese and Japanese objects. The arts and crafts will be represented by a collection of jewelry, hand-worked by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nevill Kirk, Mrs. F. H. O'Connell's display will prove that she too is a craftsman. It will be a lovely quilt, which she has made by hand.

Interest in the affair has spread among members of the younger set until it has reached the Bloomfield Village grade school, so a quintet of small students will add their hobbies to the evening's attractions. Young James Gleicher will bring several of the model planes he has constructed, and Bob Burton will loan his moth and butterfly collection. Teddy, Billy and Clarence Reid, all ardent collectors, have also planned to show their hobbies, which include match folders, post cards and stamps.

Club Notes

Mrs. Charles J. Shain delivered an address Monday before members of the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce, at their luncheon meeting. During the afternoon of the same day she was the principal speaker at a meeting of the Oxford Woman's Club. Her topic was "A Contrast Between Pre-war and Post-war Europe As I Have Seen It." Following her talk she was the guest of the Club for tea.

The Embury Ladies' Society will meet with Mrs. Henry Williamson of 1335 Humphrey street at one o'clock this afternoon for a post-luncheon.

The Creative Writing Group of the American Association of University Women will meet at one o'clock on the afternoon of Monday, May 2. Hostess will be Mrs. George D. Miller, 548 Fairfax drive.

Members of the Girl Scout Council will meet at one o'clock Monday, May 2, at the Girl Scout cabin. Members are asked to bring sandwiches, and coffee will be served.

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Redeemer Lutheran Church announces that its rummage sale will be continued for the rest of the week. It is being held in the former Birmingham Savings Bank building, from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. Mrs. Roy Lewis is general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Fred Samuelson and Mrs. Adolph Kowinick.

The Birmingham chapter of the Reserve Officers Association will meet at the Community House on Monday, May 2, at 8 p. m. All reserve officers living in or near Birmingham or Bloomfield are invited to attend.

The topics to be discussed at the sixth meeting of the Women's Health classes are "Cancer—Its Cause, Prevention and Cure" and "Life after Forty." These meetings are sponsored by the Michigan Department of Health, and conducted by Dr. Bernette Block. The class meets Monday at 8:30 o'clock at Adams School.

The local chapter of DeMolay will confer both degrees tonight at 7:30 at Masonic Temple for F and A. M. Number 44, the sponsoring body. All majority DeMolays and Masons are invited to attend.

REGIONAL MEET IS ATTENDED BY LOCAL WOMEN

Several members of the Birmingham Sororistomist Club were among those present at the Mid-Western Spring Regional Conference of the Clubs, Saturday and Sunday at the Book Cadillac hotel in Detroit. The meeting was the regular regional affair, held every spring and fall.

Official delegates to the conference were Miss Irene Hanley and Miss Laura Schroeder, and Mrs. M. Ray Cook, who is regional secretary, was also there in an official capacity. Others in the Birmingham contingent were Miss Hattie Arden, president of the Birmingham Sororistomist Club, Mrs. George Collins and Mrs. Frank Packard.

The conference opened with a banquet in the Founders' Room Saturday evening, and continued with an all-day business meeting, traditionally held on Sunday morning. At this time the reports of the local presidents, embracing the activities of the various clubs for the preceding six months, were presented, and the election of officers was held.

Among recent activities of the local organization was their monthly social meeting, held at Devon Tables on Thursday. Members of the Pontiac Business and Professional Women's Club were honor guests. Mrs. Charles J. Shain was the principal speaker on the program which followed dinner, with "Internationalism" as her topic.

The most important date on the calendar of the local group is the International Convention, which will be held at Atlantic City in June. Miss Arden and Mrs. Collins will attend it as official delegates from Birmingham, and more reservations will probably be made later by their fellow members. Over 250 reservations have already been sent in from Sororistomist Clubs all over the world. There will be 150 delegates from England alone, with others coming from Austria, China, and other distant countries.
