

DATE REVEALED FOR NUPTIALS IN EARLY FALL

One of the interesting events of the early fall season will be the wedding on Saturday, Sept. 3, of Miss Frances M. Robertson to Dominic Neal Cavalier. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Robertson of Webster avenue and Mr. Cavalier is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Florie Cavalier of Stamford, Conn.

The ceremony will be read at eight o'clock in the morning by the Rev. James W. Cotter, at Holy Name church. Miss Mava Robertson will attend her sister as maid of honor and Paul Cavalier will be best man for his brother.

The bride-elect will be honored at a number of pre-nuptial affairs. One of the first of her friends to entertain for her was Miss Jean Daniels, a former resident of Birmingham now in residence on Log Cabin drive in Detroit. Miss Daniels honored Miss Robertson at a kitchen shower Thursday evening in her home. Yellow and blue, the colors chosen by the bride-elect for her kitchen, were carried out in the gifts and in the decoration scheme. The tapers which illuminated the refreshment table were placed in jelly molds, and the gifts were piled on a "Dutch dresser," prominently placed for the occasion.

Family Flies 'With Greatest Of Ease'

Modern parents believe in plenty of activity for themselves and their children and will even go "up in the air" to obtain it. Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Schumann of East Long Lake and on offer proof of this to doubters, citing their own experiences as examples. Billy and Danny Schumann, young sons of the family, started things out by having Bob Greene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Greene of Bradford, Pa., as their house guest for three weeks. At the end of that time, Mr. Greene, who is an expert amateur flier and pilots his own plane, flew up to take all three boys back to Bradford with him for a fortnight. In the meantime, Mr. and Mrs. Schumann and their daughter, Ellen, journeyed to Madison-on-the-Lake, Ohio, where they were joined by Billy and Danny at the end of their Pennsylvania sojourn.

Birmingham Women Plan to Attend Convention

Birmingham delegates to the eighteenth annual convention of the American Legion Auxiliary will leave Saturday for Battle Creek, the convention city this year.

Those who will attend this meeting are Mrs. John G. of Emmons avenue and Mrs. A. D. Cooley of Bates street. Alternates are Mrs. Glenn J. Moore of Humphrey street and Mrs. Grover C. Cooley of Bowers street.

Mrs. Gordon L. Bailey, in her role as state president of the Eight at Forty, honor society of the American Legion Auxiliary, will preside over the annual dinner of that organization which will be held Saturday evening in the Hart Hotel.

ANNOUNCE BETHROTHAL OF BIRMINGHAM GIRL

Announce Betrothal - 10B - Mrs. Elizabeth Jarrett, of Humphrey street, announces the engagement of her daughter, Margaret Anne, to Earle Fred Sanders, of Detroit. The wedding will take place on September 24. Miss Jarrett was educated at the Monroe academy.

Grayling will be the mecca for a group of Bloomfield folk over the week-end. The party will include Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Brouley, Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Marley, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Klingsmith, Mrs. Frances Whitton of Detroit, Graham John Graham and Dr. Irwin H. Neff. Dividing into two groups, the women will stay at the Bromley cottage and the men at the Graham summer place, which is next door.

Country Clubs Offer Varied And Interesting Amusement To Members

"Pine Lake on Parade" will be a feature of the regular Thursday family night entertainment at the Pine Lake Country Club, this week. The feature will take the form of movies, which will be shown after the dinner hour and ending on the outdoor floor.

Earle B. Wilson Jr., who filmed the affair, will show members of the club a calendar featuring with activity as the season draws to its close. The club dinner and dance, scheduled for Saturday evening will be the first in line.

A special "member only" party has been planned for Friday afternoon and evening, Aug. 26. There will be tennis, swimming and golf in the afternoon, and dinner will take the form of a steak roast, to be held al fresco. On Sunday, Aug. 28, men sailors will run off the final races to qualify for the club championship series, which will begin two weeks later. The junior golf sailors will begin their championship qualifications shortly after the men finish.

Women golfers at Oakland Hills Country Club played First, Second and Third Low Net on Friday. Mrs. Norman Blake's 84 made her low, to take first place. Mrs. Harry Reiser came in a close second with 86 and not far behind were the three who tied for third place with 88: Mrs. Duncan Stoddard, Miss Lillian Bloss and Miss Betty Meawin. A two-ball foursome will occupy the golfers on Friday of this week.

The Thursday night family dinner at Oakland Hills are run on strictly informal lines, followed by an hour or so of dancing. An estimated 200 members turned out for last week's affair, with 150 members and their guests attending the club's Saturday night dinner and dance.

SOCIAL BRIEFS

An unusual week-end was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Rothman of Linden road and their friends. The Rothmans here as their house guests Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. King, who flew here from their home in Mentor, O., in Mrs. King's plane, of which she is pilot. On Saturday evening the quartet attended a steak roast at which Mrs. Rothman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kahn, were hosts, at their home at Walnut Lake. The Kahns, Rothmans and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Kier, spent the week-end at the lake, at a family house party.

Mrs. E. Palmer Shelton returned Sunday to her home on Latham drive after a ten-day sojourn in northern Michigan. While there she was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Jean, at her summer home at Lakeside.

Two popular visitors in Birmingham were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rose of New York, who spent several days here. They divided their time between the homes of Miss Betty Peabody and Miss Sally Baker. On Sunday Miss Baker will have as her guests for a week Mr. Rose's sister, Mrs. Betty Rose, and Miss Peg Mills of Irvington, N. Y., formerly of Birmingham. The visitors, who will be widely entertained during their sojourn, will stay at the new residence of the L. M. Baker family, on Riverside drive.

Joanne Baker is out of town at present, spending a week in Alpena as the guest of Miss Sally Wellington.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Fisher returned Sunday to their home in Franklin after more than two weeks spent in the northern part of the state. They divided their time on the lake between Blaney Park and Higgins lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Shain are again ensconced at their home on Pierce street after two weeks of motoring through the New England states.

OHIO BRIDE IS WED HERE AT QUIET SERVICE

Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Vaughan opened their home on Shirley drive for the wedding Saturday of Mrs. Vaughan's niece, Miss Norma Crafts, to Karl Wrigley Crawford. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Harry W. Crafts of Mantua, O., and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Adriel A. Crawford of Owensville, O.

The Rev. Thomas L. Harris of Christ Church Cranbrook officiated at the rites, which were held at 12 noon. Afterwards, the families of the bridal party were entertained at a wedding breakfast, also held at the Vaughan home.

The couple spoke their vows before an improvised altar in front of the fire place, banked with large white baskets of white gladioli and larkspur. White served as a decoration motif throughout the house as well. The tiered wedding cake, which centered the table at the breakfast, was flanked by two large white boxes, containing more white blossoms, larkspur, asters and delphinium.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, was attired in a suit of white crepe, and a large matching picture hat. Her flowers were a corsage of white orchids. The young pair were unaccompanied.

Mrs. Crafts chose a gown of suna crepe, with which she wore a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Crawford was attired for her son's wedding in blue crepe, with a corsage arrangement of mixed flowers. Blue was also chosen by Mrs. Vaughan, mingled with white in a soft printed crepe.

Following the breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Crawford departed for a month's motor trip through northern Michigan and Canada. They will make their home in Detroit after their return.

Other out-of-town guests at the affair, besides the mothers of the bridal couple, included Mrs. Cassford's nephew, David Crawford, also of Owensville; Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Hurd of Hollywood, Fla.; and Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Hurd of Cleveland.

Mrs. Jones B. Shannon and her small daughter, Virginia, of Wing Lake, will leave Saturday for a ten-day stay at Highland, in the mountains of North Carolina. They will be the house guests of Mrs. Shannon's aunt, Mrs. Duncan Douzall, for the period.
