

Elizabeth Harmon Roura Sets Date For Her Wedding To Lawrence Quinn

PLANS ARE TOLD BY BRIDE-ELECT FOR HOME RITES

One of the most interesting events of the early fall season will be the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Harmon Roura, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Roura Jr. of Euclid avenue, to Lawrence E. Quinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Quinn of Richmond Hill, New York. The date of the wedding has been set for Friday, Sept. 2.

Only the immediate family will witness the ceremony, which will be read at the bride's home by the Rev. Edward W. Blakeman, D. D., director of religious education at the University of Michigan, at eight o'clock in the evening. A small reception, also to be held at the Roura home, will follow the wedding.

Miss Roura will be attended only by her bridesmaids, Frances Roura, Mr. Quinn will be assisted by Gilbert Anderson of Detroit, as best man.

Among the many parties for the popular bride-elect will be a luncheon and shower of Frances Quinn, to be given Saturday by Miss Betty Jane Gatward, at her home on Bretton drive in Detroit. Miss Roura has been the guest of honor at several affairs earlier in the summer.

TO MARRY

Miss Roura
Miss Elizabeth Harmon Roura, whose engagement to Lawrence E. Quinn was made known on Thanksgiving day at a tea for members of the younger set, has set the evening of Friday, Sept. 2, as the date of her wedding.

Miss Graham John Graham, of Valhalla, is expected home in September from a European trip.

ROLLER SKATING JOINS PROGRAM OF STREET DANCE

Roller skating will be a feature in the third of the series of community street dances, planned for eight o'clock Friday evening, in front of Baldwin high school. The skating will be done about the island in Chester street, which will be roped off for the occasion. Dancing will be enjoyed on the elegant terrace in front of the school.

Holden Drury, general chairman of the affair, estimates a road-breaking crowd. Last week's dance in the Adams school district drew a crowd of approximately 500 persons and with the added attraction of roller-skating, Mr. Drury believes that 1,000 persons will attend this week's affair.

In case of rain, the dancing will take place in the high school auditorium and there will, of course, be no skating. As in previous dances, admission is free of charge and soft drinks and ice cream will be sold.

Dr. John B. Hasselberg will assist Mr. Drury as master of ceremonies. The band, led by William Salsbury, are in charge of music and lighting. Publicity is being handled by the Birmingham Lambie, assisted by Ted Haywood, Joanne Ellis, Donald Noel, and Ted Westlake.

A long list of members of the younger set have volunteered to assist on the refreshment and music committees. Those who will serve in various capacities on the refreshment committee are Bob Reddon, Edward and Mary DeLoach, Donald Bottomley, Lane Hansen, LeRoy Braisted, Martin Brinkert, Arthur and Margie Bull, Bruce Cowan, Virginia Groves, Bernard Craig, Jimmie Harry and John Hart. Those on the music committee are Kamin, Lola Schwabie, Bill Neely and Kathleen Wade.

On the grounds committee will be Quentin Brivford, Phil Casey, Harvey Cornwell, Bill Essery, Dick Everts, Bob Garfield, Allen and Arthur Jones, Charles Lester, Dick Shepherd and Bob Wallace.

Young Campers Don Costumes For Annual Masquerade And Program

Fantastic folk abound these days at Camp Hilledale, where the young campers present groups of plays every week and always in costume. The latest production arranged this year by Barbara Broock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Broock of Bloomfield Hills, and Joan Schrier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schrier of Kalamazoo, is the latest project at the camp.

A parade and judging, followed by supper and a program, were the order of the day. Barbara covered herself with glory by winning honors for the prettiest costume as well as for holding her official cap, and Joan was rewarded for being the nearest looking masquerader. Eric Heizer, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Heizer of Dorchester road, were among those who took part in the program which followed supper.

Robert Ely, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Ely of Townsend street, is also prominent among the Birmingham children attending the camp. He is the representative from the boys' camp serving on the committee for the athletic banquet which, with the "Grey Ribbon" ceremony, is an annual event. Deborah Edmonds and Pamela Storm, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Edmonds and Mrs. C. H. Storm respectively, have returned to their homes after a session at the camp.

PERHAPS you, the public, hadn't realized it, but you have been staying away from the movies in such stupendous numbers that the motion picture industry is about to spend $1,000,000 to lure you back into the theaters again.

Producers, distributors and theater men will put up the money, and you will get $20,000 of it, my friends. There will be a contest. At present, although the rules have not yet been decided on, it seems likely that this contest will be in the form of a questionnaire based on pictures released between now and October 1.

Booklets containing rules will be issued only at theater box offices. Each contestant will have to answer an average of about 30 different pictures in order to qualify.

Half of that $1,000,000 will be spent on advertising in newspapers and magazines.

Freddie March is going to try, no doubt, he'll keep on trying to make a comeback on the stage. Last year he and his wife, Florence Enridge, backed a play that was produced in New York, you recall,

Freddie March

It failed—not because of their performances, but just because it wasn't an awfully good play.

If they can find a play that they like, they'll do it again, come autumn. In the meantime, he's storing up more of what it takes to produce plays by working in Roach's "There Goes My Heart."

It looks as if Myron Selznick had started something that may result in our having better pictures. He has formed a partnership with various prominent actors, writers and directors—as the best theatrical agent in Hollywood he knew all of them—to make pictures, with a share of the pictures' profits taking the place of salary. Ernst Lubitsch Productions, Inc., is the first of these producing units.

Under this arrangement, a picture will have to be good—or else!

Here's something new under the sun. Practically all of the big publishers of popular music want a certain song, and can't have it. The song is "I'm a Little Bit of a Dreamer," written by Bing Crosby and Ken Carpenter. It was written especially for the broadcasts, and that's even if it has become a hit between Bing Crosby and Ken Carpenter. It was written especially for the broadcasts, and that's even if it has become a hit between Bing Crosby and Ken Carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoover Holton, of North Woodward avenue, were surprised Saturday afternoon by 20 of their friends from Detroit. Following a visit to some of the gardens in Bloomfield Hills by the women of the party, the supper was served on the lawn.

JESUIT CHAPEL TO BE SCENE OF FALL NUPTIALS

Announcement was made this week of plans for the approaching marriage of Miss Mary Ann D'Agostino, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander D'Agostino of Detroit, to John Livingston Thurber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Thurber of Oak street. The couple's engagement was announced at a family gathering at Easter time.

The ceremony will be performed Saturday morning, Sept. 3, at 11 o'clock in St. Catherine's Chapel of St. Peter and Paul Church in Detroit. Rev. Arthur D. Spillard, S. J., officiating.

Miss Rose D'Agostino will be the sister's only attendant and George Lawler of Birmingham will assist Mr. Thurber as best man. Following the reception for members of the family, at the home of the bride's parents in Detroit, the couple will leave on their trip through Northern Michigan and Canada. Upon their return they will reside in Birmingham.

Miss D'Agostino is a graduate of Wayne University while Mr. Thurber took his degree at the University of Michigan.

Miss Jean Jones will be hostess to members of the younger set at breakfast Saturday morning at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Jones of Buckingham road. Her guests will include Barbara Smith, Sally Saunders, Betty Baldwin, Jeanne L. Homewood and Marjorie Smith. Afterwards the party will adjourn to Miss Baldwin's home at Wing Lake, for swimming.

Double 'Blessings' Cause Sensation

Mr. and Mrs. Richard James Roach are one couple in town who truly believe the old adage that "Good things never come singly."

To the feminine mind, there is nothing quite so adorable as a baby, and even the men have been found checking in amazement or swelling with pride over the antics of the small fry. But good things certainly didn't come singly to the Roach family, and as a result they are now receiving congratulations on all sides.

On Monday, August 15, Mr. and Mrs. Roach became the parents of two little boys, both of whom are in the Crittenton Hospital in Detroit. The infants, who have been named Richard and Michael, are a perfect pair and they and their mother are thriving.

This brings the number of children in the family up to four, the other being Jane, who is five years old, and Susan, who is four. Both young ones are much excited over the new arrivals. Mrs. Roach is the former Miss Bess Bohm, of Petoskey.

St. Fred J. Robinson, of Lone Pine road, entertained her bridge club on Tuesday at the Bloomfield Hills Country club. Members attending were Mrs. Clarence H. Booth, Mrs. Frank L. Bromley, Mrs. W. D. Thompson and Mrs. Frank L. Kingensmith. Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Lohman attended a subscription dinner at the Bloomfield club, with 27 Detroit friends.

Tasty Taffeta

A delightful taffeta taffeta dress, in navy, red, and gold, is this creation worn by Olivia de Havilland, film actress. The bodice front is featured by tuxedo waist of white organdy, with row of tiny buttons, accented by a bow of stiff white tulle. Folks of soft fabric give the model its softening waistline.

FLOWERS BANK HOME FOR LATE SUMMER WEDDING

Amid a lovely profusion of flowers, Miss Violet Evelyn McLean became the bride of James Richard Burgess of St. Catherine's, Ont., at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Moore of Woodward avenue, at four o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. McLean of St. Catherine's and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Burgess of Sarnia. The Rev. Joseph A. Meers of the United Presbyterian church officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Frederick A. McLean, was lovely in emerald mousseline de soie, in the traditional bridal white. Her gown fell from clusters of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of white roses, valley gladioli and baby's breath.

A charming white in the wedding party was the presence of little Nancy Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moore and a cousin of the bride, who acted as flower girl. She wore white dotted Swiss, relieved with baby blue satin ribbons.

Norris Burgess assisted his brother as best man. Mr. Moore acted as usher.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the Bert Moore home. Mrs. McLean greeted her guests in a triple sheer gown of orchid hue, with which she wore tulle and lace and baby's breath in a corsage. For her son's wedding, Mrs. Burgess chose a blue lace gown, accented by a corsage arrangement of Chinese red gladioli and baby's breath.

After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Moore were hosts to 40 relatives and close friends of the bride and bridegroom at a wedding supper. Following the supper, Mr. and Mrs. Burgess left on an extended motor trip. For travel, Mrs. Moore wore a pink suit of Tahiti cloth, with blue accessories. She carried a corsage of gardenias. Upon their return, the bride and groom will make their home in St. Catherine's.

ATTENDANTS ARE NAMED IN PLANS FOR BIG WEDDING

When June Babcock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving B. Babcock of Lone Pine road, becomes the bride-to-be, the wedding party will include Miss Clover Babcock, another sister of the bride-elect, Miss Dorothy Babcock and Miss Susan Hill, cousins; Mrs. James DeVine, Mr. Vinton's sister, Miss Doris Vinton, Miss Joan Rutherford Meyer, Miss Nancy Murray, Miss Margaret Scriven and Miss Yvonne Gay.

Mr. Vinton has asked his brother, William, to assist him as best man. The list of those who will seat the guests include the names of Philip Moore, Charles Dean, Dudley Taylor, Mr. Alexander Fred Schwarz, and William Seitz, a cousin of the bride-elect.

Among the brides-elect of early autumn, none has been more widely feted than Miss Babcock. She and Mr. Vinton will be jointly honored at a dinner, followed by a dance, at Orchard Lake Country Club on Saturday evening. Hostess for the occasion will be Miss Vehmeyer, and the list of guests will include all the members of the bridal party who are in town for the occasion. Mr. Dean, Mr. Taylor, Miss Hill, and the Misses Harriet and Clover Babcock will be unable to attend the affair. Augmenting the guest list will be the names of Guy Howard, John Pratt and James Talham.

Miss Harriette Babcock, whose sister is maid of honor. Bridesmaids will include Miss Clover Babcock, another sister of the bride-elect, Miss Dorothy Babcock and Miss Susan Hill, cousins; Mrs. James DeVine, Mr. Vinton's sister, Miss Doris Vinton, Miss Joan Rutherford Meyer, Miss Nancy Murray, Miss Margaret Scriven and Miss Yvonne Gay.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

PICTURES AT THE FAIR

Stock showings provide snapshot chances at the fair—and so do many other events. Take the camera wherever things are going on!

COUNTY and State fairs supply a wealth of picture material for the busy camera. So do street fairs and carnivals. Take your camera along when you visit these lively affairs, and you'll have no difficulty keeping it active all day long.

On such occasions, there is always plenty going on, and wherever things are happening one can find subjects for pictures. Especially do these events offer opportunities for the "old-fashioned" type of story-telling snapshots. The vendor of toy balloons making a sale, the fat man manhandling a hambarque at a midway booth, the "mark" in front of a sidewalk, the child eating longingly at the merry-go-round, these are but samples of the dozens of picture chances you may find in an afternoon.

And there are many other types of snapshots to take. One always finds cowboys and exhibits, ranging from home-made peaches to prize watermelons, chocolate layer-cakes and the "best bushels" of corn. Snapshots of the fairs, as well as the exhibits, make good pictures for your collection. Too, there are horse and livestock shows that offer many picture-taking possibilities.

Keep your eyes open, try to capture the spirit of the fair in all its aspects, and you will come home with a pocket full of good snapshots. These occasions give you just what an old rule—if you want really good pictures, and plenty of them, take the camera where there's something going on!

John van Zinder.
