

MILITARY WEDDING UNITES LOCAL GIRL AND DETROIT MAN

Perfect Weather Draws Gay Crowd For 'Guest Day' At Oakland Hills

Amid the pomp and ceremony of a military wedding, Jane Conger Fowler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Fowler, of Harmon avenue was united in marriage to Lieut. Arthur J. Smith, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Smith, of Detroit, at a ceremony performed in the chapel of Our Lady of the Rosary Church in Detroit. William Schulte, chaplain of the Michigan National Guard officiated at the service.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory embroidered marquisette over matching tulle and fashioned with a V-neckline, short puffed sleeves and a floor-length bouffant skirt. Her long veil was held in place by a crown of rose-point lace. She carried a short bouquet of gardenias, white larkspurs and gladioli.

Marion Fowler, as maid of honor, was her sister's only attendant. She was gowned in a creation of cornflower blue marquisette over matching tulle, fashioned with a square neckline outlined with a deeper ribbon forming a small bow on each shoulder, short shirred sleeves, and a long skirt. To complete the picture she wore a wide-brimmed leghorn hat, whose ribbon trim matched that on her dress. Her flowers were an arm bouquet of peach gladioli and pom-pom asters arranged in the shade of her dress.

Paul Smith assisted his brother as best man and ushers were Lieut. Eugene Sweeney, of Detroit, and Lieut. Edwin Marchen of Toledo, brother West Point officers of the bridegroom.

The combination of perfect golfing weather and the regular monthly guest day drew the links with women golfers at Oakland Hills Country Club on Friday. Afterwards the cool dining room was filled with gay luncheon groups, excitedly comparing scores and vacation plans. Informal bridge games and more golf completed the afternoon for the players.

Members competed for low net in each flight during the morning's golf, for which the prizes were offered. Mrs. Norman Hoke topped the championship flight with a score of 96-10-86. Class A winner was Mrs. William Guse, with 98-18-80. Miss Catherine Haefner topped the Class B players with a score of 119-28-91. Mrs. Edward Gould topped Miss Haefner's score with 117-26-91, but lost the subsequent cut. Class C was won by Mrs. A. M. Wibel, whose tally was 120-34-86. The number drawn was 81.

There was a kicker handicap for guests, which turned in two tying scores. Mrs. J. J. Lessel, who had bridged 20 of the previous Saturday German ran up a count of 97-15-82.

Mrs. Damon S. Gall was everywhere in the dining room after the game, taking down scores and awarding prizes. She looked cool in a navy gown with a small white print, and a picture hat of navy straw. A bright nosegay on the table before her, and only departure from the classic navy and white. Another very busy person was Mrs. George King, who wore a brown and white, also, and the outfit proved exactly the right complement to her attractive tan. Miss Haefner resembled a golfing illustration, in her cool white skirt and cunning white huaraches. Huaraches, you know, are those flat Mexican sandals of braided leather. With the outfit she wore a matching sweater of chalky-blue, and matching angora socks. The chalky-blue was chosen by Miss Katherine Mann also, whose frock was shirtmaker style. She had tied a blue ribbon in her blonde hair and was having a gay time with her luncheon company.

Mrs. Guse, who was receiving congratulations on her score from all sides, wore a summery looking white frock, with a large and scattered flower print in vivid blue and red. With it she wore a broad white leather belt and vivid suede sandals in a variety of colors.

One of the most animated takers was that of Mrs. Thomas B. Moore, who looked striking in a two piece grey tailleur of soft, semi-sheer material. She wore a moulted hat of grey also, achieving a note of color in her jacket and matching handkerchief, with a yellow, with a blue and berry flower print. Mrs. Clifford B. Gould, one of Mrs. Moore's guests, presented an attractive picture in her culottes of "faded blue" denim, her vivid yellow sweater and Panama hat. Mrs. Gould is off to Northport soon, where she and various members of her family have been off and on all summer. On her forthcoming trip, which will last about a week, she will be accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Maury Gorham Barker, who is making a visit at the Gould home on Buckingham hill. Barker's home is in Champagne, Ill.

Everyone at the club is much excited at present over two big events, the men's championship and the new swimming pool. Ranking figures in the championship are Don J. Buell of Edinburg, and W. Scott Tyler, Jr. Buell, who has won the event before, is just out of town at present, but will soon return to the match. The swimming pool's formal opening is scheduled for August 15, and work is progressing at top speed.

MRS. ROOSEVELT APPEARS TONIGHT AS PIANO SOLOIST

Mrs. Dorothy Kemp Roosevelt of Charing Cross road, one of Birmingham's well known pianists will appear in the capacity of guest artist in a concert to be given at the evening of the Detroit Civic Orchestra on the campus of the Grosse Pointe High School.

Mrs. Roosevelt, familiar to music-lovers in this vicinity for her individual piano recitals, is scheduled for the first movement of the Rachmaninoff C Minor concerto, the second of that composer's major piano works. Mrs. Roosevelt has been coaching for several seasons with Edward Bredshah, distinguished young Detroit pedagogue.

Mrs. Roosevelt has only recently returned from Washington, D. C., where she appeared as soloist with the National Symphony Orchestra in a concert directed by Hans Klinger. At that time she was heard in Strauss' Burleske in D Minor.

Among those expected to attend the concert from this vicinity are Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Hills, Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Woodruff, of Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Rothman, Dr. D. Fraser McDonald, Mrs. L. A. Morgan, Mrs. Carolyn Lewis Beilly, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bemis, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Polk, Jr., Mrs. William McCarthy and daughter, Nancy, Dr. and Mrs. William Lloyd Kemp, Mr. and Mrs. C. Theron Van Duyn, Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Hoy.

Also attending will be Mrs. Roosevelt's sister, Mrs. S. C. Stannard, of Reading, Pa., who has been a houseguest at the Charing Cross road home and her mother, Mrs. Francis Kemp, who makes her home with Mrs. Roosevelt.
