

Birmingham Girl Weds Rhode Island Man At Bloomfield Hills Service

MARTHA STOLL BECOMES BRIDE OF JOHN MURPHY

Martha Eloise Stoll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stoll, Jr., of Bloomfield court, was married to John Joseph Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin J. Murphy, of Cranston, R. I., in a service performed Friday morning at St. Hugo of the Hills Church by the Rev. Daniel T. Whollan. Only members of the immediate family were present at the ceremony.

The bride wore a white crepe jacket frock which was fashioned with an accordion pleated skirt, a large white felt hat, and a corsage arrangement of sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley. Patricia Ead, her only attendant, wore a sapphire and white dress with a broad brimmed white straw hat, and white accessories. Her flowers were gardenias. Paul Murphy, of Providence, R. I., assisted his brother as best man.

Immediately following the nuptial vows a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Murphy left by boat to spend several days in Buffalo. For traveling she chose a navy and white striped dress with matching knee length cape. Her accessories were navy. Upon their return the couple will reside on Hazelhurst avenue, Ferndale.

JUNE BABCOCK TO BE HONORED AT PARTY TODAY

Among the many lovely and unusual parties which have been planned for June Babcock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving B. Babcock, of Lone Pine road, whose marriage to Robert Jay Vinton will be an event of the late summer is the one which has been planned for today.

Mary Jane McCurry and Louise Cobb were to be joint hostesses at a luncheon and an "odds and ends" shower to be held today at the home of Miss McCurry, on Puritan road. Guests were to be seated at one long table which was to be centered with a bouquet of garden flowers.

Those invited include the honoree, her sister, Harriette, whose wedding will also take place in the near future; her mother, Mrs. Irving B. Babcock; Mrs. Gardner M. Cobb, mother of Miss Cobb; Betty Hill, Bobbie Ustick, Nancy Murray, Yvonne Gay, Jane Reitter, Margaret Seaven, Elizabeth McCurry and Jean Rutherford.

Mrs. Walter R. Flannery, of North Woodward avenue, and her daughters, Sheila and Heidi, are visiting her mother this week in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Marjorie Beaudette Speaks Her Vows At Impressive Church Affair Saturday

Climaxing several weeks of pre-nuptial parties, Virena Marjorie Beaudette, of Pontiac, became the bride of Thomas Hunter Wilson, II, of Birmingham, amid a gala and white setting at the All Saints Episcopal Church in Pontiac Saturday afternoon. Upon their return from a motor trip the couple will live in Birmingham, Rev. Bates G. Burt, pastor of the church officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Leo Beaudette, of Pontiac, wore a gown of cream silk net and tulle, fashioned after Lanvin with a full bouffant skirt and fitted bodice over tulle. The bodice was low décolletage in front and was outlined with orange blossoms, while tiny buttons extended from the waistline half way up the high back. The train fell from underneath a wide ruff of tulle half way down the skirt. The finger tip veil of tulle was caught in wreath effect and allowed to fall over the shoulder. She carried a bouquet of white orchids, silver pheasants and white larkspur.

Bridesmaids' Gowns Identical

Assisting the bride as maid of honor was Marion Donaldson, of Pontiac. Mrs. Palmer Beaudette, Catherine Wilson, sister of the bridegroom; Sylvia Callender, of Detroit; Mrs. William Rose, Betsy Wallace, of Pittsburgh; Margaret McCallough, of Salem, Mass.; and Phyllis Beaudette, of Beverly Hills, Calif., were bridesmaids.

Their gowns, fashioned on identical lines, were of marquisette over matching tulle with large knots of tulle piping on the long, infant skirts. Miss Donaldson's was in French hyacinth blue and the others were in turquoise. Orange Queen and yellow gladioli formed the Colonial bouquet which the flowers formed short garlands for the bridesmaids, which they held to form one large garland as they preceded the bridal party down the aisle. Nancy Fitzgerald and Elizabeth Ward were flower girls.

Assisting Mr. Wilson as best man was Thomas E. Harbour, of Missouri; Mont. Ushers were Palmer and Bruce Beaudette, brother of the bride; Rockwood Bullard, David Gillo, of Detroit; Dan Douglass, of New York; Leigh Lynch, of Providence, R. I.; William Watling, of Bloomfield Hills and Thomas George Grief, of Pittsburgh.

Reception Follows Ceremony

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for the couple was held at the home of the bride's parents on West Huron street. The couple and their mothers received before the fireplace which was banked with flowers at the end of the drawing room.

Mrs. Frank S. Milward, of Charlevoix; Mrs. Charles Lathers, of Bratus, Michigan; Mr. I. A. Spanham, Mrs. Harold H. Fitzgerald and Mr. Harold Ward of Pontiac assisted in receiving guests about the roomy and the marquee and many gay umbrellas and tables.

For her going away costume Mrs. Wilson wore a twin print of silk and chiffon in brown and white, a long white coat with short sleeves, a large white hat and white accessories.

Mrs. Wilson, a graduate of Kingswood School for Girls in Bloomfield Hills, was graduated in June from Connecticut College in 1937. He is a member of Alpha Delta Phi fraternity and also the Sphinx, a senior society at Dartmouth.

COUPLE MARRIED IN LOVELY AFFAIR AT ROANOKE, VA.

A wedding of interest to Birmingham residents was solemnized in Roanoke, Va., Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Ruth Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Johnson, of Roanoke, became the bride of Harold Palmer Davock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold N. Davock, of Birmingham and Fort Lauderdale. The service was performed in the Second Presbyterian Church which was crowded to capacity by the bride's grand family.

The bride wore an impressive but simple gown of ivory satin with a narrow band of tiny seed pearls outlining the square neck and making a band down the front of the gown to the hem. Her tulle veil formed a small cap and fell in folds to the floor. She carried a bouquet of orange blossoms and lilies.

Mrs. Lucius Johnson, sister-in-law of the bride, as maid of honor, wore a pale yellow to harmonize with the yellow gladioli carried by the bridesmaids, Anne Fankhauser and Elizabeth Johnson, both of Roanoke; Mrs. William A. Morek, of Oil City, Pa.; and Mrs. Alexander Knapp, of Baltimore were bridesmaids. Their dresses were of pale gray chiffon.

Alfred N. Davock, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man and usher were Herbert Rogers, of Cleveland; Jean Reeves, of New York; both fraternal brothers of the groom; Lucius Johnson, of Roanoke and William A. Morek, of Oil City.

George Johnson, four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Johnson, was the ring bearer.

Following the ceremony a reception for the couple was held at Lindisfarne, home of the bride's parents, after which Mr. and Mrs. Davock left for Torch Lake where they have taken a cottage for the month. They plan to reside in Fort Lauderdale.

Mr. Davock attended Virginia Commonwealth College and Mrs. Davock attended Cranbrook School for Boys and Hobart College in Geneva, N. Y.

PINE LAKE IS SCENE FOR THREE PARTIES DURING THIS WEEK

Warm weather, they say, drives city people to the country. If this is true then Pine Lake Country Club is having more than its share of city residents cooling themselves on its spacious lawns for several Birmingham parties have been planned at that club house for this week.

Mrs. Robert H. Ahlers and her daughter, Phoebe, of Bradway boulevard, have announced plans for a mother-daughter luncheon to be held at the club house Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock to honor guests who are visiting here from Dayton, O.

Three tables of bridge will be in play immediately following the luncheon to entertain the mothers while the girls have made plans for a swimming party.

Invitations for the affair have been sent to Mr. Paul Storck, daughter Dolores and Mrs. Frank Ireland and daughter, Wilma, all of Detroit. Mrs. Roger Emmert, Mrs. Frederick R. Mixer, and daughter, Esther Lee, Mrs. Benjamin H. Anhalt and her daughter, Eleanor, Mrs. Leslie C. Allman, and Mrs. B. C. Claber.

Mrs. Thomas H. Adams, of Puritan road is busy completing plans for the bridge luncheon at which she will be hostess Friday afternoon. Those expected to attend are Mrs. Colin Campbell, Mrs. William H. Manning, Mrs. Rawson Van, Mrs. E. H. Mott, Jr., Mrs. Cassius F. Miller, Mrs. Paul N. Averill, Mrs. C. Howard Donnelly, Mrs. Sparkman D. Foster, Mrs. Milton E. Moller, Mrs. William A. Mellotte and Mrs. C. V. Crockett.

Coming as a welcome relief from the heat wave which has struck Birmingham within the last few weeks was the regular bridge luncheon held at the country club Wednesday. Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. George Frequent, Mrs. Thomas R. Lough, Mrs. Lester Allman, Mrs. N. T. Lacy, Mrs. Rolfe C. Spinning, Mrs. J. Frank Hill and Mr. Harold Dudley, both of Pontiac. The committee in charge of arrangements for this luncheon was composed of Mrs. Clarence Braze and Mrs. David I. Brown, also of Pontiac.

Mrs. Clark Pardee, of Dorchester, was hostess at a bon voyage party Saturday evening in honor of her sister Miss Marion Masters, a resident at the Wardell apartments in Detroit. Miss Masters together with Miss Eleanor Olney, also of Detroit, sailed Wednesday for a month's sojourn abroad. They expect to spend most of their time in England although a brief trip to Paris has been planned.

A late supper was served buffet style from a table covered with a lace cloth and centered with a large bouquet of summer flowers. Guests, all Detroit residents, included Miss Inez Hooper, Miss Helen Ziemann, Mrs. Jane Cuper, Mrs. Edward Shilo, Mrs. Riley Enright, Mrs. J. D. Kysor and Miss Natalie Germaine.
