employees stand ever reasy to copwith emergencies, armed with the best equipment and material reserves.
Backed, too, by other Bell System companies which,
because Bell equippent and methods are standardized, ean lend immediate aid.
When the recent blizzard swept northern Michigan, telephone circuits were demoished, ., towns cut off. Yet this company's repair crews quickly restored service.
When the terrific September hurricane tore through New England at a cost of 500 lives, millions of dollars worth of telephone apparatus was destroyed. This and other Bell companies rubder demen, perators, material and equipment half million telephones to service was accomplished in record time.
It is comforting to know that, however great the emergency, this company, with such Bell System backing, is prepared to keep Michigan's vital telephone service alive.
