PETERS TO PLAY AT 'SATURDAY DANCE'

Bruno Peters and his orchestra, who played at the municipal ballroom dance, have been engaged for the first "Saturday Night Dance" of the winter season at the Community House this week-end. The event has been designed as a pre-holiday affair for the high school set. It will be a prelude to the many vacation festivities that will take place in Birmingham between Christmas and New Year's.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Scott, of Brookwood court, will have as their guests over the Christmas week-end Mrs. Scott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Clark, and her sister, Miss Catherine Clark, of Detroit.

SOCIAL BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Long of Valley View lane entertained a number of their friends at tea Sunday afternoon, in their home.

Miss Jane Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus B. Jones of Buckingham road, will arrive Friday from Walnut Hills School in Natick, Mass., to spend the holidays with her parents, Logan Jones will return from his studies at Amherst College on Sunday, Dec. 18, for vacation. On Sunday also, Miss Jones and her brother will hold open house from four to six, for their friends in the school and college sets.

Mr. Carl Flintermann will entertain at a family dinner of 12 covers, on Christmas Day, at her home on Lowell court.

Miss Virginia List, a student at the University of Michigan, will return Friday to spend the Christmas vacation with her mother, Mrs. John List, of Barbour Terrace.

Miss Helen Shaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shaver of Warren Court will arrive on Saturday from Antioch College, O., where she has been studying this year, for the Christmas holidays.

Miss Betty Baldwin, who attends the Mary Baldwin school in Virginia, will arrive on Saturday, to spend Christmas with her mother, Mrs. Elmer D. Baldwin of Sunningdale drive.

Miss Nancy Strelinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Strelinger, of Dorchester road, and Miss Frances Boura, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Boura, Jr., of Euclid avenue, are returning the end of the week from Wellesley college, Wellesley, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Adams, of Kenesaw road, leave today for their lodge near Mikado, where they will spend the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Z. Alexander and Mrs. Paul B. Hoffman will be joint hosts at a buffet supper party at the Alexander home on Fairfax road, Friday evening before the Quarten P. T. A. affair party. Their guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lee Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Halsted, Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Bain, Mr. and Mrs. Turner A. Dunham, Mr. and Mrs. David Walker Lee and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Schimer.

Mrs. Alexander's mother, Mrs. Henry Houghton, of Eastmont, Ill., will arrive on Friday, to be with her daughter and son-in-law over the holidays.

Mrs. Maud Houghton of Chicago, will arrive on Dec. 23 to spend Christmas with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hal H. Houghton, of Birmingham boulevard.

Because of the approaching departure of the president, H. Kenneth Bingham, for South America, the board of St. Dunstan's Guild will move its January meeting up to next Monday night, when it will have a dinner at the home of the vice-president, Ed Eden, on Hickory Grove road. The dinner will be in the nature of a farewell party to Mr. Bingham. Those attending will include Harry D. Hovey, former president of the guild, Mrs. Sheldon R. Noble, Mrs. John W. Blanchard, Alan W. Wentz and Richard P. Rasmussen.

Mrs. Robert Holmes Stau of Dorchester road was hostess at an informal luncheon, followed by bridge, on Tuesday in her home. Christmas decorations were used. Home guests were Mrs. E. Edward R. Moreland of Denver, Colo., who is the house guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. O'Connor of Avon lane. Others in the party, besides the honorees, were Mrs. Francis C. Bagley, Mrs. David H. Laid, Mrs. Joseph Hinchshaw, Mrs. John E. Moore, Mrs. Walter R. Flannery and Mrs. Warren Peace, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Archangeli of Henry drive entertained as their guests over the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spicer of Ann Arbor. The visitors are former residents of Birmingham.

Dr. and Mrs. K. W. Sproule and their small daughter, Joan, who moved recently from Detroit to Madison avenue, are now established in their new home on York-shire road.

Among the members of the college set who will arrive home over the week-end for Christmas vacation is Kenneth J. Bottomley, a graduate student in psychology at Northwestern University, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bottomley of Cranbrook road.

Walter Jensen, who is taking the cadet flying course at Randolph Field, Tex., will fly home to spend Christmas week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Jensen, of Kenesaw road, arriving here Dec. 23. Mrs. Jensen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Armstrong, of Commerce, also will be guests of the Jensens over the Christmas week-end.
