Superb for Christmas Giving!

AS CREATED by the master craftsmen of England, OLD SHEFFIELD PLATE was made by rolling the silver on copper. Similar to those originals of which their makers were so proud are the heau-tiful reproductions which we are showing for Christmas.

The reproductions are the handiwork of silversmiths who have a deep understanding of the art as practised in the olden days. Consequently, each article is authentic as to design and period. The SHEFFIELD reproductions we are showing range

Among our BOOKS for Christmas Giving

QUEEN VICTORIA'S DAUGHTERS. By E. F. Beision, live daughters, even for a Queen, can be something of a problem, and it is the extraordinary story of these princeses and their/mother that Mr. Benson has woven into one of his most fascinating volumes. $30.00

THE HORSE AND BUGGY DOCTOR. As stimulating in its humanness, as side-splitting in its humor, as silty in its philosophy as any book of the year. By Dr. Arthur E. Hert-ler. $2.75

REBECCA. Dalphne Dn Maurier brilliant new novel. "The year's best story telling." 52.75

GUNS OR BUTTER. R. H. Bruce Lockbart has the almost perfect equipment necessary to write of the chaos of Central Europe under the Nazi shadow. $3.00

GRANDMA CALLED IT CARNAL. By Bertha Damie Portrait of the author's New England grandmother, we fought the twentieth century single-handled. $2,00

ALL THIS. AND HEAVEN TOO. Overflowing with the stuff of which immortal stories have always been made. If you read but one book a year, this should be your choice. By Racbel Irield. $2.50
