MORTON-WALLACE WEDDING PLANS ARE COMPLETED

Miss Anne Booth of Detroit, a cousin, and herself a bride-elect of a cousin, has been asked by Miss Elizabeth Ella Wallace to be her maid of honor at her marriage to James Alexander Morton, Jr., of Lakewood, O., next Monday. Miss Wallace is the daughter of Mrs. Grace Booth Wallace, of Lone Pine road, and Harold E. Wallace, of Ann Arbor, and Mrs. Morton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Morton, of Lakewood.

The ceremony will be performed at 8:30 o'clock in the evening, in St. Paul's chapel of Christ Church, Cranbrook, with the Rev. Robert W. Woodroffe officiating. A reception will follow at Mrs. Wallace's home. Another cousin of the bride-elect, Virginia Beresford, daughter of the James A. Beresfords, of Lone Pine road, will be flower girl.

Robert Morton, of Lakewood, brother of the bridegroom-elect, will serve as best man and Richard Wallace will give his sister in marriage.

Miss Kathleen Mead was the floral attendant for Miss Wallace, giving a breakfast party for eight guests Sunday, at her home on Puritan road. Forming the usual centerpiece was a collection of jars of fruit and a big fruit cake, all wrapped in red cellophane. These were later given to the guest of honor.

Miss Jean Posselt of Detroit, gave a luncheon on Wednesday, at Mrs. Wallace, and Miss Mary McEvoy will entertain at dinner at the Detroit Athletic club in Birmingham, Friday evening.

Rotary Anns Plan Yuletide Program

A program of Christmas observance will mark the next meeting of the Rotary Anns, scheduled for Monday, Dec. 19. Luncheon will be served at one o'clock in the afternoon, to begin the day's activities.

Mrs. Myron E. Snyder, accompanied by the piano by Mrs. Erik Beresford, will sing a group of Christmas songs after luncheon. Other Christmas music will be provided by a vocal choir of the Lakewood High School, under the direction of Victor Hilt, Mrs. Forbes S. Hilt will serve as general chairman of arrangements for the affair, which will be the regular Christmas party of the organization.

CLUB ELECTIONS PRECEDE ANNUAL YULETIDE PARTY

Miss Marian Hawkins has been named by the Birmingham Soroptimist Club to serve as president during the coming year. The club's annual elections, held Thursday, preceded another outstanding December date in club activities, the annual Christmas party, held Monday evening at Devon Gables.

Officers who will serve with Miss Hawkins include Mrs. Irene Hanley, vice-president; Mrs. Laura Connelly, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Gladys H. H. record secretary; Mrs. Bessie Maxwell, treasurer, and Mrs. Helen Hawthorne, new member of the board of directors.

Mrs. Connelly decorated the dining room table for Monday evening. Christmas party. A miniature Santa Claus, complete with sleigh and reindeer, in a noisemaker, centered the candle table. Novel favors marked the places of the guests. A Christmas tree in blue and green trimmings with blue on the mantle, completed the decorations.

Miss Mary Wenzel, retiring vice-president, delivered a presentation speech and presented the new year's resolutions. During the evening, the club's gift and an orchid corsage. The club also bestowed gifts upon its five members whose attendance records for the past year are perfect. Included in the group are Mrs. Ruth Collins, Mrs. Hawkins, Miss Hanley, Miss Wenzel and Miss Laura Schneider.

The evening was rounded off with a program of games and the singing of Christmas carols. Members also exchanged gifts among themselves.

Scouts To Conduct Community 'Sing'

Birmingham Girl Scout troops will conduct a "Scouts Own" community sing around the municipal Christmas tree at six p. m. on Sunday, Dec. 17. The whole town is cordially invited to come and join the Scouts in singing traditional Christmas carols. A group of musicians from Baldwin high school, under the direction of Harold Jones, accompanied, in charge of instrumental music for the sing.

Quartermaster Scout Troop is in charge of the sing presentation in front of the tree on the same evening.

Club Notes

The Present Day Club will meet on Friday at the home of Mrs. Victor K. Olsen of 1276 South avenue. A pageant, "Christmas in Other Lands," will be presented. Mrs. Theodore Kaarberg and Mrs. James Dandrell are in charge of the program.

The Sunshine Group of the First M. E. Church will be entertained by Mrs. Henry McCurry of 820 Puntan road at a Christmas tea on Wednesday, Dec. 21, at 2 p. m.

Bill Hutchinson will return from Amherst college on Sunday, to be with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Hutchinson, of Lake Park drive, over the holidays.

BRIDE-TO-BE IS HONORED AT VARIOUS FETES

Miss Dorothy Marjorie Schwartz, who will become the bride of J. Carl Hilt at four o'clock on the afternoon of Saturday, Dec. 21, is the central figure in a round of pre-nuptial entertainments, given by members of the club, since Mrs. Schwartz is the daughter of Mrs. Herman Schwartz of North Adams road. Mr. Hilt is the son of Mrs. Maude Hilt.

Continuing the list of those who have entertained for the pleasure of the bride-elect, Mrs. Lawrence E. Quinn has hosted at a luncheon and shower on Wednesday, in her home on Farland park avenue, in Highland Park. Mrs. Quinn is the former Elizabeth Rouns, whose marriage was an event of late summer.

On Saturday evening, Mrs. Schwartz and Mr. Hilt will be jointly honored at a party given by Dr. and Mrs. Herman Teichman of 44 S. S. boulevard in Detroit.

Additional plans for the wedding include a reception, at which Mrs. Schwartz will be hosted, following the rites, in her home. Mrs. Herman Schwartz Jr. and Mrs. Carl Schwartz, six-year-old of the bride-elect, Mrs. Marjorie Ginn of Flint and two aunts of the bride-elect, Mrs. Paul Weidman of Plymouth and Mrs. Floyd Bland of Detroit will assist at the affair.

After a short wedding trip, the young couple will be at home on North Adams road.

Annual Garden Show Points Way Toward Lovelier Holiday Season

With exhibitions, decorations of the hall and even the fragrance of the greens in the air, members of the Birmingham Unit of the Women's National Garden and Garden Association pointed the way to a lovelier Christmas at their annual Christmas dinner, held Monday afternoon at the Community House. Mrs. Jonathan M. Ball was chairman of the show.

A limited section of the exhibit was devoted to Christmas package wrapping, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Carol G. Barton. In a single class, Mrs. A. E. Roberts, Mrs. O. F. Achtenhagen and Mrs. L. F. E. Achtenhagen, while red ones were won by Mrs. Aaron H. Webster, Mrs. Louis A. Faguhar, Mrs. Achtenhagen and Mrs. Harry W. Roberts, who received two red awards. In the group package class, Mrs. Bruce G. Booth, Mrs. Murray S. Kier, Jr., Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Lawler were awarded blue ribbons, while red ones went to Mrs. Achtenhagen and Mrs. E. H. Alexander. Note-worthy were Mrs. Lawler's blue and red packages and the brown and gold ones, with Spruce sprays in the ribbons, shown by Mrs. Roberts. An old-fashioned sleigh hold Mrs. Booth's packages, carefully guarded by a huge brown teddy bear.

Arrange Candles

Fifty blue-ribbon winners entered Class Two, candle arrangement, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Bruce G. Booth. The winners went to Mrs. W. A. P. John, Mrs. Stanley Sniegel, Mrs. Robert E. Grindley, Mrs. Howard E. Jackson and Mrs. Faguhar. Entitled "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing," Mrs. Faguhar's arrangement was centered around a huge taper, with the Christmas scene painted on the base. Around it were placed white pottery angels, bearing candles, and small pottery sheep, among greens.

Christmas centerpieces of which Mrs. Thomas A. Nalle was chairman, formed Class Three. In this class, five red ribbons went to Mrs. Lewis C. Dible, Mrs. A. E. Thurston, Mrs. Harry Denyes, Mrs. Wise and Mrs. Webster.

"The Christmas Spirit Expressed in Still Life," formed Class Four, which Mrs. Frederick E. Booth directed. In a charming variety of displays, blue ribbons went to Mrs. Robert M. Ball and Mrs. Barton, and red ones to Mrs. Hallie Hagaman, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. B. B. Lutton and Mrs. Faguhar. Especially charming was Mrs. Ball's arrangement of long-necked swans mingled with wheat sprays, around a circular mirror. Two small white bird gifts with gold and red edge, facing a gilt-framed picture of Madonna and Child. Six red tapers flanked the picture.

Tree For Class

Mrs. David Nixon was awarded a blue ribbon for her exhibit in Class Five. Christmas trees under three feet Red ribbons were won by Mrs. Herbert A. Carlberg and Mrs. John W. Knecht. Mrs. Knecht served as chairman of the class.

Mrs. Roberts served as chairman of Class Six, for miscellaneous arrangements. Mrs. Oatman and Mrs. E. W. Brehm took red ribbons with their winter bouquets. For her Christmas table, Mrs. Clyde L. Hagerman won a blue ribbon and red ones went to Mrs. LeRoy Braisted and Mrs. Ruth P. Manning. Three red ribbons went to Mrs. Thurston, Mrs. H. Victor Spike and Mrs. E. Palmer Shelton for three mantels. Another red ribbon was the re-

'Local Boy' Of Tradition, Succeeds

Noted for their enthusiasm for things dramatic, residents of Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills are taking an almost proprietary interest in "What A Life," currently playing in Detroit, because in the end it is a perfect example of "the boy makes good on Broadway," or its equivalent.

The "local boy" is William Bles, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bles, former residents of Manor road in Birmingham. William attended Baldwin high school while living here and was an active member of the student body. He made a name for himself even in those earlier days, in dramatic and literary activities.

In June, he graduated from Dartmouth College, joining the road company of "What A Life," shortly afterwards. As Georgia, "William" in this comedy of the high school life, William has received many favorable notices, as one of Detroit's ablest dramatic critics said, "after seeing the performance: 'This is his (Bles's) first part of any consequence but that would never be betrayed by the fluent ease with which he handles it'."

Dessert Luncheon To Occupy League

The U. of M. Woman's League will hold a dessert luncheon at the Birmingham College, joining the road company of "What A Life," shortly afterwards. As Georgia, "William" in this comedy of the high school life, William has received many favorable notices, as one of Detroit's ablest dramatic critics said, "after seeing the performance: 'This is his (Bles's) first part of any consequence but that would never be betrayed by the fluent ease with which he handles it'."

Miss Cynthia Adams, who attends Cornell university, will arrive next Wednesday to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Waldemar P. Adams, of Stoneleigh drive. Mrs. Adams will entertain a group of her daughter's friends at a buffet supper, on Dec. 23.
