

GAA ENTERTAINS AT TEA WITH HOLIDAY MOTIV

The Mary Griffith lounge at the Community House was a lovely setting for the Christmas tea given Friday by the Girls Athletic Association and Miss Nina Kitts, advisor, and the Baldwin high school faculty.

The guests arrived from four to six o'clock and enjoyed many little open-face sandwiches, tiny cakes and tea as they greeted old friends and chatted gaily with them.

In the center of the room was a table covered with creamy lace with a blue cellophane Christmas tree flanked by blue candles in silver holders, Sue Sharp and Betty Lou Hook presided. Later they were relieved by Mrs. J. H. Sheridan, Mrs. Glenn Coley and Doris Jones.

The decorations and menu were in charge of Mrs. Roy Tewilliger, Mary Jane Coley, Ruth Savage, Jean Gibbons, Doris Jones, Mary Sheridan, Romona Wernert, and Margaret Tewilliger.

The committee for invitations consisted of Jean Gibbons, Mary Sheridan, and Faith Baker. Romona Wernert, Marie Sheridan, Faith Baker, Mrs. D. A. Baker, and Miss Anna Smith were the preceding committee.

The guests included: Mrs. D. A. Baker, Mrs. A. B. Coley, Mrs. Glenn Coley, Mrs. J. H. Sheridan, Mrs. Charles Jones, Mrs. Leigh Sharp, Mrs. Lee J. Mohr, Mrs. Louis Hook, Mrs. Anna Smith, Mrs. Beulah Kitts, Mrs. T. R. Navin, Mrs. W. R. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bechtold, Mr. and Mrs. A. Schlumpf, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, James Murray, Miss Leah Baldwin, Miss Hal, Miss Dorothy Walker, Miss Joy Stewart, Miss Lucille Du, Miss Emma Christiansen and Mrs. Freda Huggert. Bill Vinton and David Thompson took pictures of the event.

'PROFESSOR QUIZ' MAKES HIS DEBUT AT BALDWIN HIGH

"...and now we give you that wizard of wisdom, that lord of learning, that knight of knowledge, that earl of education, Professor Quiz!"

Thus Bill Baldwin's announcement came over the public address system at Baldwin high school last Thursday morning as the Assembly Club, sponsored by Miss Dorothy Allen and Miss Emily Walker presented a program of the question-answer type and fashioned it as nearly after the well known radio show as possible.

The professor himself, characterized by Kenton Shaver, was girded in black cap and gown, covered with varied and sundry "degrees" denoting his superior position. Judges, Mrs. Carol Darling and Wilson Jenkin quizzically looked over each participant, helping to make each one feel "on the spot."

Cameron Biggers, Ilse de Nocker, Lorne MacDonald, Dave Thompson, John Bathgate, and Jack Dunn were the contestants with Miss Biggers taking high honors and a one dollar prize with a score of 72. Lorne MacDonald and Ilse de Nocker tied for second honors with a tally of 50.

The questions were submitted by the students of Baldwin and were of three types: namely, historical, general knowledge, and school facts. Dorothy Mintz received a one dollar award for submitting the best three questions.

Talks To Be Given By Burton Holmes

Burton Holmes, world famous travel lecturer, will speak and show motion pictures on "The West Indies," "Glorious Norway," "Beautiful Sweden," and "The New Ireland of Today" for the 1939 World Adventure Series at the Detroit Institute of Arts. Mr. Holmes, who brings all new motion pictures filmed in 1938, will speak on five consecutive Tuesday evenings beginning Feb. 14.

In two lectures on "The West Indies," Mr. Holmes starts from Boston and visits Bermuda on his way to the Caribbean. His last three lectures are illustrated with motion pictures taken during summer and fall motor tours through Norway, Sweden and Ireland.

JUNIOR STUDENTS HONOR GUESTS AT BALDWIN PTA TEA

More than 150 junior high school students, their mothers and teachers were honored by a tea at Baldwin high school December 19. The tea, given by the Parent-Teacher Association, was the general chairmanship of Mrs. C. Allen Valpey.

Seven lectures over a wide scope paper covered the long tea table at which Mrs. Frank C. Newell, Mrs. Geraldine Forsythe, Mrs. Howard W. Porter, and Miss Florence Ackerly acted as hostesses for the afternoon. Four white tapers looked an arrangement of Christmas greens in the center of the table. At either end of the table stood large compotes filled with cranberries. In each window gleamed a red taper, banded with greens.

John H. Gordon Jr., president of the student council acted as master of ceremonies for the entertainment. Opening the program was a group of girl students, who sang "The Shepherd" and "The Manger." Robert Sluiter accompanied them at the piano. They were under the direction of Victor Ulrich, teacher of vocal music at Baldwin.

Next came the "Lambeth Walk," a dance and song done by Janice Daley, Amy Bessert, Ann Harrell and Dorothy Grubbs. Jack Mellinger followed with "St. Vernon Mince" a clarinet solo. Sally Patterson, arrayed in a Santa Claus costume, did a tap dance. Principal Ray H. Bechtold concluded the program with an informal speech of "welcome" to the tea guests.

Cute Contrast

Hand-fashioned in rich velvet, crowned with a bow of contrasting color, then tipped over the right eye of a Hollywood actress, this hat comes close to being perfect.
