THE STATE AND A DESCRIPTION OF THE STATE OF

A PONTIAC PASTOR was given a fine, new Pontiac automobile by his congregation Christmas. The of colored lighting arranged by local residents is Given a Stocking Full." Well, that's one kind of a sock anyone would be glad to take.

Now THAT CHRISTMAS is over for the year, why not get the habit of recalling, when you feel low, some of the happiness of that day? After lab, the season following Christmas need not he one of complete worry about paying blust late.

WHEN TELEVISION gets into the home, one will be able to see the horses as they gallop out of the program action, via the patter of gadgets held in the hands of the radio sound engineer. Or else, if real realism is adhered to, the entire technique of broadcasting may have to be revised, and lines actually committed to memory, as in the talking movies.

RADIO STATIONS are confronted with the problem of censoring speeches made that result in creating religious differences. Radio stations are religious differences. Radio stations are reviewed to the public, just as newspapers have. Newspapers are not required to print articles they deem harmful to society, and neither are radio stations. That's where character and conscience create policy.

HANK YOU BEAN YOLD just what a "rug cutter" in this jitterbug business? Neither have we. But if you ever have a group of young people in your home, and they do a bit of dancing to swing music, you'll understand what that word means—and roll up the rug before the evening leaves.
