First Winter Club Dance Highlight For Young Marrieds

Dorothy Schwarze To Become Bride Of J. Carl Hilty At December Nuptials

The Christmas holidays will hold a special significance for Miss Dorothy Schwarze, daughter of Mrs. Herman G. Schwarze of North Adams road and the late Mr. Schwarze, for she has announced the date of her wedding to be Saturday, Dec. 31. The bridegroom-elect is John Carl Hilty, son of Mrs. Maude Hilty, also of Birmingham.

NAPKINS REVEAL BESS VAUGHAN'S WEDDING PLANS

Cocktail napkins, drawn through miniature rings and bearing the names of the engaged couple, also bore the wedding date chosen by Miss Bess Vaughan. The bride-elect is John Carl Hilty, son of Mrs. Maude Hilty, also of Birmingham. The bride-elect will wed Walter A. Guthrie, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Guthrie of Dayton, O., on Saturday, Jan. 21. The ceremony will be performed in the afternoon, by the Rev. W. Glen Harris, Mr. Vaughan will reveal further details later.

Announcement of her plans was made Sunday, at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan in their home. White chrysanthemums, flanked by ivory tapers in white candleholders, were used on the table.

Guests at the affair included Mr. Guthrie, Miss Lillian Vaughan, Perry A. Vaughan Jr., Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Mosher, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Gow, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Coe, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Townsend, Miss Katherine Butler and L. T. Clark of Newburgh, Miss Mabel Cook, Miss Winona Singers, Miss Irene Hanley, Jerry Schaffer, John Hamill and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Millington Jr.

TAPERS PROVIDE ILLUMINATION AT QUIET RITES

In the soft light of tapers, in seven-branched, double candleholders, Dorothy Rose Buck, daughter of Mrs. Rose Buck of Park street, became the bride of Robert F. Quail, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Quail of Ravine road, at 8:15 p.m. Sunday evening. The Rev. W. Glen Harris of the First Presbyterian Church read the ceremony in the Ruth Shain room at the Community House, in the presence of the families and close friends.

The young couple exchanged their vows before an improvised altar set in the bay window of the room. Pinks formed the background, enlivened by disposals of white blossoms. The only illumination was from candles, in the tall standards on the mantel.

The bride chose a street-length frock of "Peking" blue, fashioned on simple lines, for the ceremony. Her small hat was in a matching blue shade and she wore a corsage arrangement of forget-me-nots and bride's roses.

Mrs. William L. Story, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. She was given a large, long, and a matching hat. Her flowers were violets and roses.

David E. Anderson of Royal Oak attended Mr. Quail as best man.

After the ceremony, the guests were entertained at a reception, at the Community House. The bride's table, laid with a lace cloth, bore the tiered wedding cake. White tapers and further white blossoms formed added decoration.

Immediately after the reception, the bride couple departed by motor for an extended southern sojourn. After January first, they will be at home on Ravine road.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon R. Noble and Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Hoy will be joint hosts at a dinner party Friday evening, at the Nobles' home on Birmingham road, complimenting a group of friends who are to leave soon on Christmas trips. The honorees will be Mr. and Mrs. C. Theron Van Dusen, who, with their three sons, will leave next week on a holiday cruise; Miss Jessie Winters, who also will depart next week to spend the Yuletide in Florida, and H. Kenneth Bingham, who plans to leave about Dec. 21 for South America. Other guests will be Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Blanchard and Mr. and Mrs. Zoltan Sepseshy.

Miss Ruth Hargreaves will return the end of next week from Boston, where she attends Miss Wheelock's school, to pass the holiday season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Hargreaves, of Cranbrook road.

GAY ASSEMBLY WILL INCLUDE MANY PARTIES

One of the most brilliant of the pre-holiday entertainments will be a Saturday evening at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club, when members of the younger married set meet for the season's first Winter Club assembly.

Lewis P. Favorite of Grosse Pointe is chairman of this first dance, which will be of a formal nature. Membership in the group is drawn from the ranks of young socialites in Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills, Grosse Pointe and Detroit.

Many of those who will attend the dance will do so following dinner parties at the homes of various Winter Club members. Among those who will entertain are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence C. Howe of Aspen road. Their guests will include Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Hinds, Mr. and Mrs. George Belsey, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Max Turnquist and Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Kleene, all of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. George Davis, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Green, Mr. and Mrs. John St. Clair and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Schirmer.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Osgood will entertain at dinner in their home on Dorchester road, preceding the dance. Their guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Rickenbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Neal and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. O'Connell Jr. have also invited guests to dine with them, in their home on Ashby road. Covers will be laid for Mr. and Mrs. Lewis P. Favorite and Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Smith of Grosse Pointe; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cornish, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Renfrew and Mr. and Mrs. J. Donald McKay.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Ripsey Jr. of Shirley drive will attend the affair in company with guests. Mr. and Mrs. Saunders of Orchard Ridge road, will be Mrs. Saunders' co-chairmen. Their list includes the names of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bolles, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Bolles, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Shepard, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Achtenbach, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Twyman, Mr. and Mrs. Chester L. Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Smith.

Arriving today for a week-end visit with Mr. and Mrs. S. Gordon Saunders of Orchard Ridge road, will be Mrs. Saunders' cousin, Miss Marie Adele McKenzie and Stephen McKenzie, and Miss Nellie Runnels. The visitors are residents of Cincinnati, O.

Miss Mayfa Jean Gracey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton H. Gracey of Franklin, will arrive on Saturday, Dec. 17, to spend the holiday with her parents. Miss Gracey, who is a student at Principia College in Elsie, Ill., will be at her home until Jan. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton H. Feeley of Waddington road will entertain a group of their friends at Sunday night supper in their home. Their guests are Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Schuler of Grosse Pointe, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Kleener of Flint and Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Clemmer.

Mrs. James Vernon Jr. of Lake road, is spending a fortnight in New York City.
