BITS OF B'HAM

An amusing incident took place at the local Board of Education meeting Tuesday hight—one of take place as the meeting of the Board of Education meeting Tuesday hight—one of take place as meetings of public bodies. J. Mark Hardin, secretary of the Board, was reading the minutes of the last meeting. He came upon a Sparmen relating, and, hesisting a moment over the simple matter of proper pronunciation, just let the verbiage slip in though the laughed — and everybody laughed. As they should, A sense of humor leavens such meetings, and is one of the qualities that camakes voluntary public service endurable.
