

MISS PIKE TELLS PLANS FOR RITES AT SAINT HUGO'S

Winifred Pike, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Pike of Virginia Park in Detroit, who will become the bride of Ralph L. Polk III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Polk Jr. of Bloomfield Hills on Saturday, Feb. 19, this week revealed further wedding plans.

The Rev. Daniel T. Wholihan will officiate at the ceremony, which will be solemnized at the rectory of St. Hugo of the Hills church at 11:30 in the morning. Only members of the family will attend the ceremony. A wedding breakfast will follow for the guests at the Pike home.

Miss Pike will have her sister, Frances, to be her bridesmaid. Mr. Polk will be escorted by his cousin, Peter Rupe, as best man.

Mrs. Dorothy Kemp Roosevelt will be her mother. Mrs. Frances Polk Kemp, will continue the round of parties honoring Miss Pike when they will be joint hosts Friday afternoon in Mrs. Roosevelt's home on Manor road. The affair will be a kitchen shower and tea. Spring flowers will be used about the rooms and on the tea table. Those who will pour are Mrs. Effie Kimball, Mrs. Edna Little and Miss Helen Fenton of Detroit.

GERMAN VISITOR SPEAKS BEFORE GIRL RESERVES

"The Youth Movement in Germany" was explained from first-hand information to local Girl Reserves at a tea, Wednesday afternoon at the Community House. The speaker was The Pollinat, young German high school girl who is visiting her cousin, Anita Loebeburg of Highland Park.

She has been in this country for about six months. In March she plans to return to Germany, taking her cousin with her for an equally extended visit. Both girls were honor guests at the meeting and at the tea which followed.

Miss Emily Walker, Girl Reserve adviser, presided at the tea table. Other guests included members of the group and their friends and relatives.

"From the time German young people are about 13 until they reach the age of about 17," she told her listeners, "they are members of Youth Groups. They are not compelled to join but membership in the Groups is so attractive that everyone wants to belong."

She further explained that the Youth Group provided for all the members social contacts, even though education was as much a part of the program as recreation. Long bicycling trips, lasting for entire week-ends, comprise most of the recreation for the Groups.

The Rev. W. Hamilton Aulenbach will read the nuptials at the Wilson home at 8:30 in the evening. The ceremony will be followed by a reception, also at the home of the bride's parents, for about 200 guests.

Do you remember the magic plant of the old fairy tale, which grew from a turnip? Well, the fabulous bean-stalk which grew from a turnip stalk which towered into the sky? Well, the fabulous bean-stalk which grew from a turnip stalk which towered into the sky? Well, the fabulous bean-stalk which grew from a turnip stalk which towered into the sky?

Hostesses for the coming event will include Mrs. Wallis R. Kinney, Mrs. William G. O'Rourke, Louise Cobb and Betty Minor Forsyth, and of course all of them will be present at the dance.

Many Will Attend. The list of those who have already made reservations for the party, while not complete, will in some measure indicate how many will attend.

A Stag Line Also. No dance is complete without a stag line and one of those who will swell the ranks of this indispensable feature are Tom Miller, Dick Culligan, Jay Lowman and Duane Roy.

Mrs. Herbert McConnell, formerly of Indianapolis and now of Birmingham, will be the bride-elect. Otis Thompson, Lyman Craig Jr. and William G. Lechen Jr.

ARTISTS NAMED TO PERFORM AT MAY FESTIVAL

A complete list of the artists who will participate in the May Festival of the University of Michigan, to be held May 11-14 at Ann Arbor, is released this week by Charles A. Sink, registrar of the University School of Music. Seven celebrities from the Metropolitan Opera, four other distinguished singers, a world-renowned violinist and a celebrated soprano will be featured.

Those from the Metropolitan list will include Marjorie Lawrence, Wagnerian artist; and Hilda Burke, soprano; Brune Castagna, "Carmen" contralto; M. Martini and Giovanni Marinelli, tenors; and Richard Bonelli and Chase Baromeo, baritones.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—George Earl of Gale avenue: "I believe that the swimming pool in the Barnum Hotel will be kept open. Seems to me as though the Board of Education and the City, aided by smart fellows from those who use it, should finance the pool. Out of use, it will soon be ruined. Hundreds of our children need it, both for recreation and for learning the art of swimming. Birmingham will grow in proportion as its public services benefit its inhabitants."

THREE RING FUN AT PARTY DRAWS CLUB MEMBERS

The advance reservations for the "three-ring" party, which Forest Lake country club will hold on Friday, Feb. 15, indicate that it is smart to appeal to the whole family when planning a large affair. The evening's fun will be diversified enough so that fathers and mothers and the children all want to be on hand.

The men will convene in the basement of the club, which will be held up in the old Haurhan style. In such a convivial atmosphere they will listen to two vivas, E. A. Batchelor and Leslie H. Green will address a group on "Golf Can Be Fun" and "Golf Can Be Work," respectively.

All the card symbols will decorate the upstairs lounge, where the wives will conduct a bridge tournament. And in the ballroom and grill, which will be used for supper following the dance, the children will hold the second Junior Party, amid all the traditional Valentine hearts and paper lace.

A number of dinners will precede the party. Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Roeder of Quanton road will be hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Arnold R. Reed and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Doney. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney A. Wells of Mohagan drive will entertain the Junior party with Patricia G. Craven and their small son, Pat, who will later attend the Junior party with Patricia G. Craven.

Others who will attend the party include Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Leon A. Chamblaine, G. C. Goode, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Reed and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Doney. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney A. Homemakers Freed The MODERN GAS RANGE

Lincoln represents freedom and so does a modern gas range. It frees women from cooking tasks that waste their time and energy—For instance there is no back-breaking stooping when you use the new range. The High Speed oven actually bakes biscuits from a cold start in a few minutes and the oven regulator permits you to leave home while food is baking.

FREE TRIAL! Without any obligation whatsoever we'll put a new modern range in your home on a free trial—try it yourself—prepare your favorite dishes—then if you wish to keep the range you can pay for it with a small amount each month.
