

PLAYERS INVITE BOARDS OF OTHER GROUPS FOR PLAY

When "June Moon" shines at the Village Players on Friday and Saturday, Feb. 25 and 26, it will shine before a group of 75 board members and their husbands or wives, besides the guests invited by Players members. These 75 officials of other amateur dramatic organizations about the state will be the guests of the board of directors of the Players and their husbands or wives.

The group will include representatives from the Detroit Players and Fine Arts Theater in Detroit, the Highland Players of Highland Park, St. Dunstan's Guild and Players Clubs in Flint, Grosse Ile and Dearborn.

Honoring the visitors, the Village Players will be hosts at a special "Afterglow" after the show for the special guests only. Mr. Frank H. Kemp is afterglow chairman, assisted by Mrs. Arthur L. Genung and Mrs. Walter E. Dweilley is president of the Players Association of Non-professional Theaters. The others who will be feted by the local boards are the directors and cast of the Kaufman-Landner play and their husbands or wives.

Players may invite guests to attend the show, and it is announced that reservations for tickets must be telephoned to Mrs. Harvey A. Green.

MISS BLOOD IS TO BE MARRIED IN WORCESTER

Birmingham friends of Gertrude Renwick Blood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Langley Blood of Worcester, Mass., and formerly of this city, will be interested to know of Miss Blood's plans for her approaching marriage. On Saturday, March 12, she will become the bride of John Warren Seybold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Seybold of Mountain Lakes, N. J.

Dr. Maxwell Savage will perform the ceremony at four o'clock in the afternoon at the First Unitarian Church in Worcester. A reception at the Blood residence on Metcalf street will follow the service.

Miss Blood will wear a broadcote satin wedding gown with a short train. It is fashioned on simple lines with a high neck and long full sleeves. Her veil will be an exquisite one of heirloom lace, which was worn by her mother. She will also wear Mrs. Blood's bridal slippers.

There will be four bridesmaids in the party besides the maid of honor. All of the attendants will be attired in identical gowns of hyacinth blue chiffon, princess style. Narrow ribbons of dusky velvet will band the soft-fitted skirts and form sashes in the back.

Miss Blood attended Baldwin high school and Liggett school when she and her family lived on Puritan road in Birmingham. Following her return to Worcester she was graduated from Bancroft school in Worcester. She later attended Swarthmore College at Swarthmore, Pa. Miss Blood's debut, a tea given at the home of her parents, was an event of the Christmas season of 1934. She is a member of the Junior League.

Mr. Seybold was graduated from Swarthmore in 1936. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and was active in undergraduate affairs when in college. He is now an instructor in economics at Olivet college, where the young couple will reside following their marriage.

Mrs. Clyde A. Haefner of Wing Lake and Mrs. Joseph A. Sweeney of Long Pine Court left Wednesday for New York. From New York they will leave by boat for Vera Cruz, and travel extensively through Mexico. Their return to Birmingham, which is planned for about a month hence, will include a stop-over in New Orleans.

Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Genard A. Flores, of Waddington road, returned last week from Quebec, where they went for the winter sports.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory W. Clark, of Detroit and Bloomfield Hills, are spending the winter months in South Carolina.

Mrs. Walter G. Faust entertained at a dinner party on Valentine's Day, honoring her daughter, Joanne, who was celebrating her ninth birthday anniversary. The young guests included: Marjorie Thompson, Joanna Norton, Dolly Mae Moore, Dorothy Adams, Nancy Mortiz, Fatsy Faust and Katherine Sirene.

Complimenting Mrs. Swance Russell of Jackson, Tenn., who is the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. Waagen Russell, and Mrs. Malvina Krueger of Dayton, O., who is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Mellinger, Mrs. John F. Horton entertained 12 guests at luncheon on Wednesday, at her home on Pilgrim road. The table decorations were suggestive of Washington's Birthday, miniature sashes, red, white and blue napkins and white sweet peas being used.

Mrs. L. B. Billings gave a small luncheon on Tuesday, for Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Krueger at her home on Lakeview avenue. An arrangement of vari-colored spring flowers ornamented the table, at which covers were laid for six.

Miss Louise Moorehead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Moorehead, who will become the bride of Robert W. Vincent of Glasgow, on Saturday, was the inspiration for the party given Tuesday evening, by Miss Betty Harrack and Miss Esther Jones at the Harrack home on Wallace street. The affair was a kitchen shower and there were 20 guests. Red tulips were disposed about the house and also ornamented the table together with red, white and blue tapers in crystal candelabra and miniature flags, which marked the place. The gifts were arranged under a red umbrella.

Two large cocktail parties will precede the dinner-dance, to be given Saturday evening, at the Detroit Boat club by the Winter club and most of the Birmingham members will find their way to one or the other of them. Mr. and Mrs. James Neal, of Pleasant Ridge, will be hosts at one of the parties and the other will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis P. Favorite, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Morse, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Shirley T. Johnson at the Smith residence in Grosse Pointe.

PROGRAM AT TEA

Mothers may be serving on committees for the Founders' Day tea to be given by the Baldwin high school Parent Teacher Association, but it is the students who will be responsible for most of the program. The tea will be given at the high school in room 101 at 3:45 this afternoon and the honor guests will be the parents of students in grades 10 B, 10 A and 11 B.

Since the announcement last week of those who are assisting in plans for the affair, two new names have been added to the list. They include those of Miss Dorothy Allen, who will be among those to preside at the tea table, and Sue Sharp, one of the student members of the hospitality committee.

The program will open with a song by the Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Edith Roach. The song will be "Finlandia," by John Sibelius. A solo, Cadman's "Candlelight," will be sung by Gloria Gruber.

A group of tenth grade girls will present a pageant, "As Told by Candles." In the cast will be Jane Collins, Sue Wood, Barbara Houghton, Peggy Hadiskey, Martha Phelps, Charlotte DuBois, Carol Chandler and Jane Fols. Following the play, Faye Anderson and Maxton Kirk will offer a dance. The program will conclude with a few informal words of welcome by Ray H. Bechtold, principal of Baldwin high school.

A feature of the tea which will follow the entertainment will be the lighting of 41 birthday candles in honor of the organization. The candles will be the huge cake which will center the tea table.

Mrs. Adele B. Fiske is chairman of the hospitality committee for a second Founders' Day tea, also to be given at Baldwin, on Thursday, Feb. 24. Honor guests at this affair will be students in grades 11-A, 12-B and 12-A and their mothers.

The time will be the same as that of this week's affair, 3:45 in the afternoon, and a program will be given. Further details on the party will be announced in the future.

BUSINESS WOMEN TO HOLD SOCIAL EVENING

Members of the Birmingham Business Women's Club will meet at the Community House tonight for a social gathering. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Hazel Lawler, Miss Blanche Brackey and Miss Marion Hawkins.

Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m., after which the group will listen to Betty Roberts, who will present a resume of her Alaskan tour.
