FRANKLIN WOMEN FORM NEW CLUB TO STUDY BOOKS

Banding together to form a book review club and, incidentally, to raise funds with which to buy books for a projected public library in Franklin, a group of Franklin matrons met Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. James H. Longwell on Thirteen Mile road. Plans were made to hold meetings every three weeks, with Mrs. Donald Williams, of Pleasant Ridge, presenting the reviews. On Tuesday, Mrs. Williams reviewed "Journalist's Wife," by Lillian Hellman.

Tea was served after the meeting. Mrs. Trump and Miss Glass poured a bouquet of purple and white stock, and Mrs. Williams and freetia decorated the table.

Comprising the membership of the club besides Mrs. Longwell, are: Mrs. W. B. Hoey, Mrs. Truman F. Campbell, Mrs. John Roth, Mrs. Frank W. Lund, Mrs. Mrs. George W. Catlin, Mrs. Edward B. House, Mrs. William Snyder, Mrs. Arthur L. Keger, Mrs. John Penny, Mrs. Albert Grigg, Mrs. De Vere Woodruff, Mrs. Alvin Downer, Mrs. Lenwood Roberts, Mrs. Vernon C. Converse, Mrs. Miss Mary E. Glass, Mrs. Clara Schermerhorn, Mrs. Oliver Hara, Mrs. E. S. Orchard, Mrs. Clark Kimball of Royal Oak, Mrs. Clarence W. Bair, Mrs. Ben P. Hays, Mrs. John H. Hill, Mrs. Edmond F. Webb, Mrs. Hal G. The next meeting of the book review club will be March 5, with Mrs. Trump as hostess.

MARATHA WASHINGTON Revered at Tea in Franklin

Departing somewhat from the stereotyped overances of Washington's Birthday but nevertheless in celebration of that event, the Franklin Women's group will sponsor a Martha Washington tea Tuesday afternoon at the Franklin Community association. There will be spinning-wheels and other implements and pieces of furniture in use in pre-Revolution days about the hall and members are being urged to attend in colonial costume. There will be bridge tables for those who wish to play.

Mrs. John Roth is president of the group and those in charge of arrangements for the tea were Mrs. W. B. Hoey, refreshments; Mrs. Floyd E. Pater, prizes; Mrs. George Smith and Mrs. William Jones, decorations.

A. A. U. V. PLANS TRAVEL TALK ON SOUTH AMERICA

The atmosphere of South America will prevail, even though it is snowing outside when a travel talk will be given by Mrs. Arletta Ahrens of Washington, D. C. She will appear under auspices of the Birmingham branch of the American Association of University Women, on Tuesday, March 1 at the Community House.

The talk will benefit the organization's Fellowship Fund. It is an annual feature by A. A. U. W. members all over the country, to aid women who are college graduates to continue research work in various fields. This is one of the major projects of the organization, since it enables women of ability to continue their activities.

Saturday, Feb. 19, will mark the closing day of the Saturday Club at the Community House, an other project of the Birmingham A. A. U. W. At 1:30 and 2:30 p. m. Club members will present programs to which parents are invited.

Mrs. Stanley R. Saunders is directing the presentation of "Show White" by members of the Damsy Group. The Puppetry group will play "Hansel and Gretel" and "Cinderella," both under the direction of Miss Janet White. The closing presentation will be a different version of "Hansel and Gretel" in dramatic group, under the direction of Mrs. J. Donald Douglas.

PAGEANT TO BE FEATURE EVENT OF ANNIVERSARY

Student members of the Barnum school Dramatic Club will join with members of the school's Parent Teacher Association in celebrating the organization's national Founder's Day and the local group's Fathers' Meeting. The occasion will be observed tonight, starting with dinner at the school at 6:30.

Nancy Plumsted and Gertrude Lanham, both Barnum students, will lead the pageant, "The Seven Lamps of Learning," which will be presented by the club. The roles of the seven Lamps Bearers will be played by Miss Nellie Mae Smith, Ruth Mintz, Nancy Rinehart, Marcel Jean McGirr, Alice Bronson and Barbara Reardon.

Talks will be made by Mrs. John H. Rosso, president of the Birmingham P. T. A.; Cassius H. Ray, Jr., state secretary of the Y. M. C. A.; Mrs. Ruth Campbell will offer words of welcome. William C. of the Barnum faculty, will lead community singing.

Clarence C. Himmler, vice-president of the group, is in charge of the Fathers' end of the meeting. Various committee chairmen will offer words of appreciation to the fathers, to present reports of various activities of the group since the opening of school last fall, rather than the regular monthly reports.

SPAGHETTI A LA ITALY To Be St. Dunstan Dinner Feature

Friday night, it is expected, will be a red-letter occasion for members of the St. Dunstan's guild, for that night, instead of the usual plays, there will be a spaghetti dinner at Cranbrook Log Cabin. Of course, the principal feature will be the spaghetti, which will be served in true Italian style, but there is to be a franking open fire to lend cheer, bright red tablecloths on the tables and a general spirit of informality.

An old-fashioned pumping organ has been secured for the evening and this will be used to provide accompaniment for group singing. Also, there are to be some guitar music by John Spence, of the Cranbrook Academy of Art, who is one of the members.

Est Egan is general chairman of the dinner and is being assisted by Mrs. Sheldon R. Noble, Mrs. Zoltan Sepsely and Mrs. J. Robert F. Swanson.

"The Parents' Role in the Health of the School Child" is to be the theme of Miss Evans' talk. After her graduation from Smith college she studied for and was awarded her Master's degree at Columbia. Before assuming her present position, Miss Evans taught health education at Western State Teachers College, at Kalamazoo.

Creator of Individual Styles Joins The Ranks of Local Business Men

Frank Pavlik, known in business circles as F. P. Pavlik, is one of the newest additions to the ranks of Birmingham business men. And he is not only a business man, but a designer of individual styles for local women.

He has been in the business of designing and making gowns for women for 30 years. "I received my training in Vienna," he stated. "In this work, one can receive three diplomas: for making gowns, designing them and then the mastership, and I have all three."

The designers, he explained, must first learn how to make gowns. It is not enough that they can adapt them to individuals. Mr. Pavlik spent four years in Prague before coming to New York, where he owned a shop for two years.

"I think there is a great field for the designer here already inspired me to invent a new system, which does away with formerly the fitting which was formerly necessary."

A native of Czechoslovakia, Mr. Pavlik thinks that America is a nice place and that Birmingham is a nice part of America.

February, The Month of Holidays, Inspires All Sorts of Festive Dishes

- Chicken and Pineapple
Cook five pound hen until well done. Cook 2 cups of rice until dry. Keep hot. Make a cream sauce, using 2 tablespoons each of butter and flour, one cup of chicken stock and one cup of thin cream. Add one cup of sauteed pineapple. When ready to serve arrange the rice in a shallow dish and lay large slices of white or dark meat on the rice. Pour the sauce over them. On each portion put two tablespoons of shredded coconuts and one teaspoon of chutney sauce. Between the rice mould put rings of sauteed pineapple.
- Cherry Pudding
Break 4 slices of white bread into small pieces. Mix with 1-4 cup of raisins, 1-4 cup of chopped pecans and 2 tablespoons of candied orange peel; add 2 tablespoons of butter. Pour over this mixture one No. 2 can of cherries with their juice on which has been dissolved 2-3 cup of sugar. Mix well. Bake in a buttered casserole and bake about 50 minutes in an oven 375 degrees. Serve hot with sweetened whipped cream and garnish with glazed cherries, thin strips of candied orange peel and candied mint leaves.
- Peanut Malt
Soften 1-2 teaspoon of gelatin in one teaspoon of cold water. Dissolve 1-2 teaspoon of cinnamon and the pulp from 1-2 cups of cooked prunes. Melt 24 marshmallows in 1-4 cup of the cooked prune juice in the top of a double boiler, add to the gelatin. Mix thoroughly and let cool. In another bowl mix 1 package of lemon jelly with 1 cup of hot water, stir until dissolved. Add 1 cup of cold water, let chill and it begins to congeal. Whip an 1/2 pint and fluffy. Fill a mold with the whipped mixture and let chill. Unmold and serve with whipped cream.

Birmingham Theater To Show "The Firefly"

The film reproductions of the Basque country in "The Firefly," coming Sunday to The Birmingham Theater, will be the best record of much of the Spanish country and landmarks, according to the producers, who are in Spain, in the offices of M-G-M. Since the action of the picture moves from Madrid to Vittoria across the Pyrenees to Bayonne in southern France and eventually back again to Madrid, it follows closely the battle lines of the present Spanish war, and the original scenes have almost all been destroyed.

"The Firefly" will be shown at 2:15, 5:45 and 9:15 p. m. on Sunday, while on Monday through Wednesday there will be but one showing each night, starting at 9 p. m. The week-day showings of this production will be preceded by short subjects from 7:00 to 7:30, including a Pete Smith novelty, the latest Crime Series subject, a comedy and the latest news. The Jones family in "Borrow Trouble" will also be shown once, at 7:30 p. m.
