CRANE TEAMS WIN
ONE, LOSE TWO IN RECENT TILTS

The work-end brought one victory and one defeat to Cranbrook athletes, whose contests took them to Culver Military Academy at Culver, Ind., on Saturday. The soldiers held the long end of a 37-28 basketball score, with the advantage over the local experts all the way through, as shown by their lead of 18-12 at the half. High point men were Phillips of Culver and Rodet of Cranbrook, who gained ten points each.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—Dr. Hugo Ericsson, of Harborside Avenue.

"It is high time that some one who knew her well should write an adequate biographical sketch of the late Martha Baldwin which, I am sure, would be gladly published by 'The Michiganian' Present Magazine." At present letters, photographs, etc., of her and about her are still available, but eventually, as such things go, they would be destroyed and thus be lost to posterity. And this would be a pity, not only because 'Mattie Baldwin' was in advance of her times but because she was easily the greatest benefactor, so far as I know, that Birmingham has ever had. If her biographer is not forthcoming, I would suggest the advisability of delivering material concerning her life to the Baldwin Public Library for the benefit of some future writer on the life of our philanthropist."

EXCHANGE CLUB
FETES WIVES AT HOLIDAY DINNER

Fifty members of the Birmingham Exchange club and their wives gathered at the Community House Tuesday evening, for a Washington's Birthday dinner. J. Howard Wendorph, president, presided and Rev. H. B. Johnson, of the Oxford Congregational church and summer minister at the Little Stone church on Mackinac Island, was the speaker, his topic being "Community Spirit." W. F. Thomas was program chairman and Maurice L. Olson was in charge of the entertainment, which included several numbers presented by the Bertha Thompson School of Dance and readings by Mrs. James Demeral, Mrs. Harry S. Starr won the door prize. Birmingham Exchange club members will meet with those from Farmington, Northville and Redford Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock, in Farmington for a fish fry dinner. Unlike the other affair, this will be a party just for men.
