District Governor

CRIM PROPS HERE IN 1937 POLICE SHOW

Chief Hackett Points to Few Accidents as Result of Traffic Drive
Crime and violent death reached a low level in Birmingham during 1937 according to the annual police report prepared by Miss Corie Stoddard, police clerk, and submitted by Chief John P. Hackett to City Manager Donald C. Egbert.

Dr. Otto O. Beck is the newly chosen District Governor of Exchange Clubs. He was elected recently at a meeting of the Metropolitan Exchange Clubs held in Detroit.

PROPERTY VALUES REACH NEW HIGH DURING PAST YEAR

An increase in improved property valuations of $762,791.00, bringing the City's property assessed up to $13,408,300.00, occurred during 1937, according to figures given out this week by James B. Baynes, local building inspector, and Elmer W. Haack, City Assessor.

Three Multiple Falls
Incidents of multiple falls in construction were three multiple dwelling falls, assessed at $73,000.00, five business buildings of various sizes, valued at $1,200,000, the largest of which, a veterinary hospital, cost $400,000.

Report Shows City Free From Contagious Ills
The health of Birmingham's citizens during 1937 was exceptional. The report shows that according to the annual report of Dr. W. Lloyd Kemp, City Health Officer, considerable growth in real property was observed.

Committee Names Chairman Of Drive

David H. Ladd has been appointed general chairman of the annual Community House drive, it is announced today by Charles W. Shain, chairman of the steering committee. Members of the committee voted to change the date of the drive to April 2 through the 11, so as not to conflict with spring vacations in the schools.

Among the accomplishments he lists are the passage of a modern zoning ordinance, the construction of a new sewage disposal plant, the local water supply, moving of the 30,000 gallon elevated water tower, building of new sewer lines in the new Woodward super-highway, erection of a new City garage and storage warehouse, inauguration of regular rubbish collection throughout the City, etc.

PUPILS TO HEAR TALKS ON CHOICE OF PROFESSION

A plan to give Birmingham young people an opportunity to learn more about the careers they anticipate entering, will be sponsored jointly by the schools, located at C. A. and the American Association of University Women.

Forty-four lectures to be given by outstanding men and women in various professions and careers will be given to the various groups, to acquaint young people in the 9, 10, 11 and 12th grades, with the various careers and occupations available to them.

CITIZENS DISCUSS PROPOSED PLAN FOR DISPOSAL

Forty residents of the area north of East Maple and east of Woodward avenue met with the City Commission, a project estimated to cost $349,000.00. After two hours of explanation and open discussion, it was evident that, while unwilling to commit themselves to unnecessary public spending, this group was sympathetic to the approval of the project as outlined.

Monday night's meeting brought forth intense discussion of the engineering and financing phases of the project, perhaps because in the audience were a number of persons professionally informed on such matters, Mayor John E. Egebert presided.

ASKS PUBLIC REPRESSION

Enthusiasm for the job of enforcing the law, a task which he has been connected for a number of years in Michigan, was manifested here Tuesday noon when Captain Donald S. Leonard of The State Police, addressed 110 members of Birmingham's Lions, Rotarians and Exchange Clubs in the Community House. Captain Leonard, who is in charge of the eastern division of the State Police, was escorted by Exchange Officer W. Jensen.
