St. Dunstan's Guild Draws Appreciative Audience For Monthly Production

An attentive audience of drama lovers from Birmingham and the Hills witnessed the January show of St. Dunstan's Guild, presented at Brookside auditorium Friday night. A well-balanced and carefully staged bill, some fine talent and friends with whom to see it—no wonder that large crowds always attend these gatherings!

STAR DUST Movie Radio

JAMES CAGNEY has patched up his quarrel with Warner Brothers and Margaret Sullivan has made peace with the Universal company, which is good news to all the admirers who have missed them. Cagney will be rewarded with the very best story Warner owns, the great story "Warner's own, the great story 'New York stage hit 'Boys Meets Girl'."

It is a rollicking story about two loony Hollywood scenario writers, and if all of Cagney's requests are granted, he will have Pat O'Brien playing his partner in comedy.

Miss Sullivan will play in "The Road to Reno." This leaves Jean Arthur the only major attraction who is still trending with her company, Columbia, and staying off the screen in revolt.

However, Ann Southern has parted company with R K O and Barbara Stanwyck is suspended from the payroll because she was seen in a picture called "Distant Fields."

Felix Knight, who sang recently on the Metropolitan auditions, is being hailed as the greatest discovery of the year, but Hollywood claims that they discovered him some two years ago. He sang the juvenile lead in "Babe in Arms," the hit Hal Roach film, and has sung in roles in the Hollywood Bowl.

"It's All Yours" the new Columbia film starring Madeline Carroll and Francis Lederer, turns out to be all Mischka Auer's. Beauty and romantic interest just cannot compete with the utter nonsense of this tragic-faced Russian puts so hilariously. Off screen Mischka Auer is entertaining too, but what most impresses on me meeting him is his deep gratitude to the United States of which he is now a naturalized citizen.

Any one of a dozen voices that you hear on "Grand Central," "The Radio City," or "True Story" is to be a youth named Lawson Serbe who comes from the University of California. He is known affectionately as radio's one-man stock company. Recently when he was scheduled to play six roles in a dramatic hour, he was delayed at another studio and when he finally arrived just in the nick of time, the frantic director had sent out for six well-known actors to replace him.

Joe Fenner is the radio favorite of 22,416 boys and girls between the ages of six and sixteen. Every year a survey is conducted by the Boys Athletic league among children in playgrounds, vacation camps, and work agencies to learn their preferences in sports, books, movies, radio programs, foods and hobbies which is used as a guide for educators in planning their diversions.

The Lone Ranger, and Jack Bauer, were runners up in the youngsters' election of radio favorites. Buck Jones proved to be the boys' favorite motion picture star, while Shirley Temple led in the girls' division.

CATHOLIC WOMEN NAME ACTIVITIES FOR FIVE MONTHS

Members of the League of Catholic Women are nothing if not faithful. It may be winter still, but already they have made their plans for as far ahead as June! Details will be announced at the appropriate times, but the important thing is that the dates are set.

A Valentine's dessert-bridge is the first major social event for the League. Mrs. Herbert Clausen will open her home on Big Beaver road for the affair, which will be held on Monday, Feb. 14, at one o'clock. Proceeds from the afternoon will be devoted to the League's milk fund.

Husband of League members are invited to attend the group's next event, which will be an address by Miss Theodosia Blake of Cleveland, at 8 p. m. on Monday, March 14, in the auditorium of the Baldwin Public Library. Her subject will be "We Change the World." She will contrast St. Catherine of Siena with the Theresas of Avila with bizarre personalities who attempted to alter society with a religious fanaticism. She will also cite Mother Alphonso's work among the cancer sufferers.

A visit by personal invitation to the Juvenile Court, presided over by Judge D. J. Healy Jr., will be the main event for the League members in April. They will arrange transportation details in the future.

The annual May breakfast at Devon Gables is becoming such a popular event that the League needs explanation. Father Gabriel of Lansing will again be the principal speaker.

The League's activities for the season will be concluded with another traditional festival, the June lawn party. This will be held according to custom, at the home of Mrs. Helen Fitzmaurice Wendell in Bloomfield Hills.

Kingswood Plans Several Festivities

The shortest month of the year will be crowded with events for students and faculty of Kingswood school. On Sunday, Feb. 6, the Pontiac Women's Chorus will present a program at the school at 5 p. m. The group is under the direction of Miss Thelma Allen, and will be accompanied by Mrs. Helen J. Douglas. The concert tea will be held following the concert.

Names of committee members for the annual Kingswood dance will be announced in the near future. The dance is to be on the evening of February 11, and will be held at the school.

Still another gala occasion will be the presentation of Shakespeare's "As You Like It," on Friday, Feb. 18. The group is under the direction of Mrs. M. Douglas, director of the production, will announce her complete cast in the future.

It's Two-Toned Sleeping Now

The same trend that makes the current styles in men's pajamas, this pair provides a two-toned splash in green. Designed by Gladys Parker, they were shown at her style show held in New York. Others shown were two-toned pajamas of strikingly different colors.
