Cranbrook Sportlets

Cranbrook athletic teams won one and lost three of four out-of-town engagements over the week-end.

Coch Schultz's basketball team, playing its first prep school game of the season, lost decisively to the University School at Cleveland, 31 to 14. Captain Ray Rode, with five points, led the Cranbrook scorers. Bill Smith, a fullback on the defense, played a sound game for the losers. This was the first varsity game for most of the Cranes. Frequent fumbling and failure to cash in on set-up shots lost the game, according to Assistant Coach Fierke.

The wrestlers, under Coach Hall, had better success on the same trip in defeating the Cleveland boys, 23 to 15. Captain George Fremont and Bill MacLachlan pinned their opponents. John Bird won on a decision, and Robert Bird won an exhibition after having the decision forfeited to him in the 125-pound class.

Michigan State's freshmen fencers were defeated by the Cranbrook varsity at East Lansing, 13 to 7. Captain Dick Mungen and Bob Franklin each won his three duels. Charles Van Dusen won two out of three. And both Charles Wells and William Wells won one of their three.

Coch Coulter's hockey team lost to Kennedy Collegiate, at the Windsor Arena, 4 to 1. Bill Lewis scored for the losers. Three of the victors' goals were scored while Lewis and Morgan Douglas were in the penalty box.

Girls' Triple-Trio Presents Program

Nine students of Baldwin making up a triple-trio sang Tuesday, at a joint meeting of the Birmingham Parent Teacher Council and the Birmingham Teacher's Club at the Community House.

The members of the trio are Marjorie Kingsbury, Constance Peck, and June Brunett, first soprano; Dorothy Trumm, Ruth Roberts, and Marianna Bell, second soprano; Annette Lamie, Beulah Martin, and Lola Schwalbe, altos. They were chosen for their music classes early in December.

They sang "Jeanie With the Light Brown Hair" and "Nellie Was a Lady," both by Stephen Foster.

The trio presented a program of Stephen Foster songs at a meeting of the Thursday Musical in December and will do several folk songs Feb. 1 for the American Federation of Music Clubs.

Miss Edith Roach organized and directed the trio.

Pancakes Aid to Course in Chemistry

The first and second semester classes in practical chemistry at Baldwin High School conducted a baking powder test Friday. The test was to determine which of the three well known brands plus a home-made type is the best for cooking. The test included the preparation, cooking, and eating of pancakes.

At the beginning of each hour the classes filed into the cafeteria and sat down to receive their share of the pancakes. There were four batches in which baking powder was used and one in which soda and sour milk were used. The students were to vote on which they liked best.

The test for this test was given to Virginia Watson by R. H. Bechtold, principal. The cooks were: Joan Gibbons, Irene Wright, Laura Smith, and Anita Kurth. The dishwashers were: Evelyn Wragley, Dorothy King, James Laing, Bill Spinning, and Robert Grenzmann.

MAROONS WIN FIFTH VICTORY THIS SEASON

A Maroon five defeated a somewhat unsteady Cranbrook quintet on the latter's floor 23-15 Tuesday afternoon before a noisy crowd of local students. The game was Birmingham's fifth basketball victory of the season.

The scoring was slow in getting started. Captain Fritz Adams gave Birmingham the first score with a long shot from center floor. The Cranes then tied it up at three all for the only time in the game when they were on even terms with the superior Birmingham team. Another long one by Adams put the Maroons in the lead again and at the half they were leading 10-4.

Fouls were frequent in the first half but both teams muffed scoring chances by poor free shot attempts. There was less fouling in the second half, but the type of play remained about the same. Both teams tried to open up in the last quarter, but many interceptions kept the play near center floor.

Floor Burns

By George Rounds
Aggressiveness at its best and at its poorest have been shown in the last two Birmingham basketball games. In both the Royal Oak game and the Cranbrook game Birmingham scored 23 points. It's not how much they get (and much) but how they get it. However, it has always been a fact that athletes don't give their best until needed.

Referee Phillip "Ciney" Sachs took it on the nose Tuesday when a disgusted Cranbrook player banged down the ball which rebounded to just above the Ciney's upper lip. A time period was called for the injured ref to recuperate.

John MacDonald, a sophomore, will be a regular pretty soon if some one doesn't start hustling. "He is one of the best workers I've got," commented Coach Whitney. "All that fellow lacks is experience."

Fritz Adams was the Maroon high scorer with three field goals while Bill Mead and Chuck Martindale netted two apiece from the playing floor for Cranbrook. Well-met goals were set far between for both teams. Bob Andrews made several bullet-like passes which did not hit the scoring column. Don Upward played his usual consistent though not particularly defended game. He had little chance in feeding the ball to the unaggressive forwards.

Cranbrook beat St. Mary's by one point in the last two seconds of their game week ago. It might look easy for Maroon cagers Friday, except for the fact that Birmingham has beaten St. Mary's only once in the history of basketball between the two schools.
